PHOENIX, ARIZONA

ON THE COVER: Harry Gonso, Indiana's exciting quarterback, fulfills the role of scholar-athlete-gentleman perfectly. Besides being selected to the 1967 All-Big Ten team, his 3.4 grade index in pre-law studies won him a place on the academic All-American team. Modest and articulate, he filled several post-season speaking dates that Coach John Pont could not fit into his schedule. Gonso, a 5-11, 185-pound junior, was a four-sport star at Findlay, Ohio, and rejected a sizeable pro baseball bonus to attend Indiana. In the spring he's a catcher-outfielder for the Hoosiers. His life ambition is simple: Married, Proven, Happy, Be A Man.

Last Of College Football's First 100 Years Finds Game Friskier Than Ever

By Maury White

Sports Columnist, The Des Moines Register
President, Football Writers' Association of America

About the time winter's last snow storm belts portions of this vast nation, the president of our lodge annually is chained to a typewriter and ordered to (ugh!) think. That's one reason no one ever seeks a second term.

This year's chore had to be more pleasant than in 1967, on noise-level alone. It wasn't necessary to wear ear plugs to shut out the anguished screams as the college football coaches staged a war dance against the rules committee. The coaches are purring now because the 1967 rule, which restricted the five interior linemen from going down under punts until the ball had been snapped, was thrown out after a one-year trial.

It was the committee's aim to discourage fair catches and encourage punt returns by restricting the wave of humanity hustling down field. A number of old heads have long felt that one of football's exciting plays was being seen too rare—because of the fair catch.

MAKE NO MISTAKE about it, the 1967 rule made most coaches about as happy as Linus when someone cops his blanket. They predicted a rash of injuries and all sorts of "escape" plans: trying field goals instead of punting, employing left-footed or right-footed punters at the proper place to make it easier to kick out of bounds, etc.

In candid moments, some admitted not liking the rule because it took up too much practice time, and because it was (for the five interior linemen) contrary to the philosophy of firing out on every play.

Well, the rash of injuries didn't develop, but neither did punt returns become noticeably more thrilling in college football. More punts were handled (1½ more per game for 21.3 more average yards) but a survey covering 611 games showed the 1967 rule had actually cut down the number of punt-return touchdowns. One was scored every 8.6 games, compared to 7.3 in 1966.

ALTHOUGH it had expressed a desire to try the rule for two years, the committee yielded in January and made the new rule an ex-ruler.

The subsequent cheering by the coaching fraternity was loud and clear all across the land.

"We feel this is a change

Newspaper ink flows thickly through Maury White's arteries. He's a fourth-generation journalist who, as he puts it, "spent a lot more hours than I'd have preferred in the back shops of weekly papers."

A native Iowan, White graduated from Drake University in 1942 after earning three letters in both football and baseball. In 1966 he was named on Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary team and in '68 became the 24th president of the Football Writers' Association of America.

White went to work as a part-timer on the Register sports staff his last two years at Drake and returned to the paper after a 3½-year hitch in the Navy. He authors a daily column.

for the best," says John McKay, coach of the Southern California team voted No. 1 in the Associated Press and United Press International polls at the end of the regular season, then voted winner of the Grantland Rice trophy as national champion by the Football Writers' Association after beating Indiana, 14-3, in the Rose Bowl.

Be that as it may, football reaches the age of 100 this fall, friskier than ever, if for no other reason than a great deal of last year's charasmatic talent was of the undergraduate variety. But before summing up the sections, let's clean up more chores.

CHANGES WERE MADE in eight other rules and six interpretations. The crackback clip was eliminated, so was the flex (or sucker) shift and a safety man who signals for a fair catch can't throw a block on the play.

Mandatory numbering dealt the death blow to the tackle-eligible play. At least five offensive linemen must now wear numbers 50-79. And no matter where they line up, men with such numbers cannot be receivers.

ON A TIME-OUT, one player may visit the whole coaching staff (instead of just one coach). Momentum has been further clarified. A defender intercepting a pass inside the five-yard line can now qualify for a touchback, instead of an automatic safety.

A time-out has been reduced from 2 to 1½ minutes, except when special arrangements have been made, say in the case of television.

More important, the clock stops on every first down. The reasoning is that often, on a successful long-gaining gamble late in the half, it took possibly eight seconds for the chains to catch up with the ball.

WHAT WILL COLLEGE FOOTBALL be like this fall? Apparently, much as it was last fall. The practice of lining up in the "I" formation and making the defense guess what comes next will continue to flourish. More teams are expected to go to wide split men on either side, which means more opponents must be ready to play four-man fronts to cover where necessary.

"We're going to see more even defenses . . . four or six-man lines to combat the rollout quarterback," says John Pont, everybody's "coach-of-the-year" after Indiana's unheralded resurgence. Texas' Darrell Royal, who has reason to hope for a resurgence, says: "You must have a more agile boy to play end or corner linebacker now. There's more finesse than a few years back when winning teams relied mainly on muscle."

USING HIS HEAD as a pillow, Wake Forest's Jimmy Johnson (23) pins Clemson's Ronnie Ducworth to the turf in unconventional but convincing fashion. Tigers weren't held down for long, though, upending Deacons, 23-6, on way to ACC championship.

As a personal observation, possibly because of watching Pont's unpredictable sophomores several times, I had the feeling last fall that more college coaches were allowing more players initiative, rather than insisting on do-or-die compliance. Another factor that frequently produced excitement was use of the on-side kickoff early in the contest.

ALL IN ALL, 1967 WAS a wonderful year for college football as only Wyoming (10-0) of the majors was unbeaten (then lost in the Sugar Bowl.)

A record 26.4 million fans attended 2,764 games by 610 four-year schools, bringing the 14th straight season of increase following a four-year down cycle, which ended in 1953. The Big Ten hasn't done well in non-conference action the past three seasons, but crowds have held up. Ohio State, Michigan and Michigan State were the top three in attendance.

At season's start, Notre Dame was a hefty choice as predicted national champion, followed by Alabama and Michigan State. The first heavy week of action made it seem the "experts" were all on LSD.

NO. 2 ALABAMA WAS TIED, 37-37, by Florida State; No. 3 Michigan State lost a 37-7 shocker to Houston (and the game wasn't played on AstroTurf); No. 4 Texas lost to Southern Cal; No. 5 Miami of Florida bowed to unheralded Northwestern; and No. 9 Tennessee was defeated by UCLA. It must be pointed out that USC and UCLA both were rated in the top 10, too, but half of the expected powers were sullied after opening games.

That's the kind of a season it kept on being. The unexpected turned out to be par. Kevin Gallen, a sports writer for the Villanova school paper, reported to capture the feel of football and wound up on the squad.

In the television opener, Inez Perez, a 5-4 reserve quarterback for SMU, came in with 36 seconds to play and took his team 58 yards for the touchdown that beat Texas A&M, with four seconds to spare!

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS, 1924-1967

Southern California was the 1967 choice of both the writers' and coaches' polls as college football's unofficial national champion. The Trojans also were voted the Grantland Rice Award by the Football Writers' Association of America.

It was Southern California's fourth national crown in 44 years. Only Notre Dame (8 times) and Minnesota (5) have been honored more often.

The Associated Press poll of sports writers was originated in 1936 and the United Press International poll of coaches in 1950. Representing opinions of observers across the country, they are the popularly accepted electors to national ranking. Prior to the polls, the Rissman and Knute Rockne trophies symbolized the championships from 1924 to 1936. The titlists so designated:

NATIONAL RATINGS, 1936-1967

The most successful major teams of the past 32 years, according to the ratings produced by the press association polls, have been Notre Dame and Oklahoma. Counting 10 points for each season-end first place rating, 9 for second and so on, the Irish have accumulated 134 points, to the Sooners' next best 102.

1. Notre Dame ... 134	5. Michigan ... 74	9. Army ... 61	13. Mississippi ... 50
2. Oklahoma ... 102	6. Mich. State ... 72	10. Minnesota ... 57	13. Navy ... 50
3. Alabama ... 85	7. Ohio State ... 68	11. UCLA ... 52	13. Southern Cal ... 50
4. Tennessee ... 76	8. Texas ... 64	11. LSU ... 52	16. Ga. Tech ... 39

That was the first of four successive losses for Coach Gene Stallings team, which flopped about and won six to tie Texas Tech for the Southwest Conference title, then share in another dramatic television moment. That came after a Cotton Bowl victory over Alabama when Bryant walked across the field, hugged his one-time pupil like he must have hugged that carnival bear and lifted Stallings off his feet as a victory accolade.

BETWEEN THESE BITTER AND SWEET moments for the Aggies, a great many teams were reminded of the truth in the cliché: "On a given day . . ." Oregon State handed USC its only loss, meted one of Purdue's two and tied UCLA. But upsets can be upset, and Coach Dee Andros' players look back to engagements with BYU and Washington with great remorse.

As reputations were tarnished and dynasties cracked, relative strangers enjoyed prosperity, Oklahoma unseated Nebraska in the Big Eight. Texas A&M and Tech came alive in the SWC. Tennessee, Yale and Minnesota snapped back to titles and independent Penn State thrived with rookies.

THE COMEBACK STORY OF THE YEAR unquestionably was Indiana, which improved from 1-8-1 to 9-1-0, gained a share of the Big Ten title for the first time since 1945 and made it to the Rose Bowl. Pont's team won six conference games. It took six years and 38 tries for the previous five.

Notre Dame suffered a double loss—graduation of Nick Eddy and the raising of the venerable Oliver Hotel. Eddy's running was missed most.

Southern Cal, equipped with marvelous O. J. Simpson, came calling early in the season. USC was No. 1 in the polls, Notre Dame was No. 5 but the Irish were 12-point favorites. Simpson & Co. rolled, 24-7.

Three backs—Simpson, Purdue halfback Leroy Keyes and UCLA quarterback Gary Beban—became the dominant player names of the season and waged a tight Heisman Trophy battle. Beban, the lone senior, took the prize.

Simpson is large and fast. His initials, O.J., gave so much publicity to orange juice the rest of the citrus industry is asking for equal time.

There were some pretty good acts in 1967, which means some folks are wondering about encores. Chuck Fairbanks won the Big Eight title and Rod Rust took the Missouri Valley crown in head coaching debuts.

IF THERE WAS ONE THING the wacky 1967 season should have proved, it's that logic need not prevail. The pertinent facts can be as invisible, and hard to pin down, as the Viet Cong. The national picture is seldom painted as predicted, but here are some clues for the upcoming season.

Let's start where '67 finished, with the 11 teams shared top 10 spots in the two wire service polls: USC, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Indiana, Wyoming, Alabama, Oregon State, Purdue, UCLA and Penn State.

Of this group, USC, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Indiana, Oregon State, Purdue and Penn State seem best equipped to make another run for the marbles. Tennessee lost its top two quarterbacks and All-American center Bob Johnson. Wyoming suffered heavy losses of seniors who had lost only one regular season game in two years. Alabama waved goodbye to Ken Stabler and Denny Homan. UCLA lost Beban and 11 other starters.

WINNING TRADITIONS MEAN A LOT, so the teams hit the hardest may stay on keel. There are many candidates to join the elite: Texas A&M, Texas, West Texas State, Louisiana State, Florida, Clemson, North Carolina State, Ohio State, Minnesota, Arizona State, University of Texas at El Paso, Florida State, Miami of Florida, Ohio University, Nebraska, Kansas, North Texas State, California, Syracuse, Army and Navy.

More probably should be mentioned, and there will be others who break through because a number of now-mystical elements jell at the right time. One thing seems certain: the 1968 collegiate national champion will again be picked by consensus. Paul Brechler, commissioner of the Western Athletic Conference, heads a nine-man group studying the feasibility of a playoff to determine the national title. But even if a plan were approved, it couldn't start until at least the 1969 season.

THE PAC EIGHT furnished three of the top 11 teams last year. USC and UCLA sustained heavy losses but Oregon State is minus only five regulars from both platoons and has its starting backfield of Steve Preece, Bill Enyart, Bill Main and Don Summers. On the basis of known talent, the Beavers should make a strong bid for top honors.

HALP! HE'S BITING ME—Northern Michigan quarterback Lloyd Carr actually is in trouble as Northern Iowa's Ray Pederson nails him for a 10-yard loss. But Carr got even later in the game, tossing 36-yard touchdown pass for Wildcats' 7-3 triumph.

Southern Cal has Simpson, the No. 1 exhibit that McKay can cash in on junior college talent in minimum time. Such help will be needed, for 10 of the 19 graduates were pro draft choices, quarterback Steve Sogge may pass up football and flanker Jim Lawrence has a questionable knee.

UCLA's Tommy Prothro is minus most of his offense but expects new breakaway help from sophomore halfback Mickey Cureton.

Jim Sweeney, at Washington State, is the only new coach in the Pac Eight. The Western Athletic Conference features two, Rudy Feldman at New Mexico and Bill Meek at Utah—plus the entry of the University of Texas at El Paso into the title race. UTEP's aerial circus, with Brooks Dawson throwing to proven receivers, is a co-favorite with Arizona State. The Sun Devils have most of their muscle returning. Wyoming Coach Lloyd Eaton must break in a quarterback again and a corrugated defense must be rebuilt, but it would be foolish to ignore these habitual winners.

NOTRE DAME HAS ITS PASSING STARS, Terry Hanratty and Jim Seymour, plus a better running game, built around Jeff Zimmerman and Bob Gladioux. If good health remains, the Irish should make a stout bid for the mythical national title they have claimed eight times, starting in 1924.

Indiana's rise and Michigan State's fall (3-7) shared billing in the Big Ten last fall. The Hoosiers, Purdue and Minnesota shared the title at 6-1 in a year when sophomores and juniors performed the heroics. All three will be strong again. Indiana won't have the element of surprise, but retains a whale of a crop of talent, plus adding some of the fastest rookie backs in school history. Purdue is loaded: Keyes, quarterback Mike Phipps, fullback Perry Williams, a bushel of experienced offensive linemen and a group of hulking sophomores. Minnesota succeeded without really settling the quarterback position. But with nine offensive regulars returning, the picture is anything but bleak. Ohio State's prospects are generally brighter.

OHIO U AND TOLEDO APPEAR the Mid-American powers again, although Toledo starts with a new quarterback. New coaches are Dave Puddington at Kent State, Don Nehlen at Bowling Green and Perry Moss at Marshall.

It won't be necessary to buy a program to identify the quarterbacks in the Midlands. Only Missouri of the Big Eight and Wichita State of the Missouri Valley will break in new men. The Big Eight was 16-9-1 against non-league foes, including bowl wins by Oklahoma and Colorado. Another good year is in sight with Oklahoma rated the team to beat, and everyone except Kansas State and Iowa State (under new coach John Majors) in contention. Nebraska and Kansas seem best equipped to wage war with the Sooners, but Missouri, Colorado and Oklahoma State may not be impressed.

NORTH TEXAS SHARED THE VALLEY TITLE in 1966, won it outright last fall and has 21 lettermen back, including passer Steve Ramsey (21 touchdowns) and flanker Ronnie Shanklin (who caught 13 of 'em). Memphis State enters league play as an immediate threat. Tulsa hopes to be regrouped, too.

The Southwest Conference foresees a return to par after a down year during which the league went 7-17 vs. foreigners and missed having a team in the top 10. Youth matures and 31 of the top 47 individuals in nine categories are back. Texas A&M lost only four starters from a co-championship team, retains quarterback Edd Hargett and linebacker Billy Hobbs.

Chris Gilbert and Bill Bradley should have enough help this campaign to help Texas recapture more of those days of yore. Texas Christian grew respectable behind a tough defense and has most of it back. Arkansas has swift David Dickey but is starting with a new quarterback. Of the independents, Houston returns a good defense and West Texas State a strong offense and each must find the other half.

The South must rise again, after going 1-1-3 in post-season play. Defending champion Tennessee has suffered some offensive jolts, but Florida returns its two top signal callers plus heavy duty back Larry Smith and a veteran offensive line. The Gators have been tabbed co-favorite with Louisiana State, which lost its quarterback and not much else. Alabama lost Stabler and Homan and that IS a lot.

DEFENDING CHAMPION WEST VIRGINIA has seceded from the Southern Conference, leaving East Carolina and Richmond to argue over the vacant throne. Clemson won the Atlantic Coast title and has 38 lettermen, including tailback Buddy Gore. North Carolina State has 17 starters in the fold and Wake Forest hopes the 35 lettermen who helped win the last four (after losing the first six) start off better this time out. Among the independents, Florida State could make a national splash and so could Miami.

Penn State's Joe Paterno moaned as key veterans were cut down last season, beamed as sophomores rose to the challenge. It was an 8-2 year, with the losses a total of three points. So much of this combine is available again that Penn State is considered the class of the East.

SYRACUSE WAS ALSO 8-2 and should be a top team again, although fullback Larry Csonka and the passing game have been graduated. Most of a tough defense is back, and since Ben Schwartzwalder always has managed to build an offense, chances are he'll do it again.

Army returns most of the backs and few of the linemen from an 8-2 team. Navy doesn't have a lick of experience at quarterback, but could go-go if that problem works out. Yale, Princeton and Dartmouth figure as the Ivy League elite. Frank Navarro takes over at Columbia, Joe Yukica at Boston College and Neil Wheelwright at Colgate.

BACKED TO THE WALL, Penn quarterback Bill Creeden tries to get pass away over mass harassment of Harvard's Joe deBettencourt (76), Stan Greenidge (69), Don Chiofaro and Bob Hoffman (84). Crimson pressure wilted the Red and Blue, 45-7.

Syracuse, Army, Navy Gird To Derail Threat Of Penn State Dynasty In East

By HAL BODLEY

Asst. Sports Editor, The Wilmington (Del.) News-Journal Papers

This will be the Year of the Lion in the East. The Nittany Lion, that is. Penn State has 20 returning lettermen from a team that came on strong last fall to win its last seven games and then tie Florida State, 17-17, in the Gator Bowl. The Nittany Lions, vaulted back into national prominence by a surprising group of sophomores, won the Lambert Trophy and there's no reason to believe it's going to leave the Penn State campus soon.

If the Lions should tumble, though, Syracuse, followed by Army and Navy should be ready to challenge for the high perch. After all, it was Syracuse that was picked here a year ago to be No. 1, but a 27-14 loss to Navy and the 29-20 fall to Penn State proved fatal during the 8-2 autumn.

There may also be "write-ins" from the Ivy League this election year, but no matter how gallant the play of say Yale or Princeton, they'll have to have banner years to squeeze past the "biggies."

TAMING THE LION doesn't appear easy. The Lions finished the regular season with an 8-2 record, and finished 10th or 11th in the nation, depending on which wire-service poll you consult. Last year's sophomores are the reason Coach Joe Paterno's third season at University Park should be his best. The two '67 losses were by a total of just three points.

There are problems, however. Primary concern is how to replace several less-publicized, but highly talented seniors whose leadership glued 1967 together after early season losses to Navy, 23-22, and UCLA, 17-15.

Tops on the list of departing seniors were record-setting quarterback Tom Sherman and safety Tim Montgomery. Also gone are center Bill Lenkaitis, tackle Rich Buzin, split end Jack Curry and fullback Dan Lucyk. On defense, graduation took tackle Mike McBath, end Jim Litterelle and defensive back Bob Capretto.

FINDING A REPLACEMENT for Sherman, who broke six Nittany Lion offensive records, was Paterno's big job in the spring. Tailback Bob Campbell, recovering from a knee injury, and Frank Spaziani, who played six different positions in two years on the varsity, appear adequate, but Paterno wants to wait until fall practice before putting the finger on any one man. Chuck Burkhart also is a strong candidate.

Seven offensive and seven defensive

From 1963 to 1967 his basic responsibility was writing a column three days a week for the Morning News and editing that sports section. A year ago he was appointed assistant sports editor. starters will be back.

Standouts are expected to be tight end Ted Kwalick, only Eastern lineman on the '67 All-America roster, halfback Charlie Pittman, fullback Don Abbey, a healthy Mike Reid at linebacker and Campbell.

Syracuse hasn't had a losing season since 1949, Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's first there, and 1968 will be no different. Although All-American fullback Larry Csonka has graduated, the Orangemen are expected to win at least six of their 10 games. A fast start is a must since they play Michigan State and UCLA in two of their first three games. Ouch!

SYRACUSE'S POWERFUL DEFENSE should be the best since the Lambert Trophy team of 1959, but the offense could be the problem.

The Orangemen were second in the nation in rushing defense last year and four of the reasons are back for '68. They are end Lou Bubitosa, tackles Art Thoms and Bill Coghill and middle guard Gerry Beach. Linebacker Bob Bancroft is also on hand to plague opposing ball carriers.

Syracuse has averaged over 200 yards a game rushing for more than 10 years but will be severely tested to keep this record intact since its top three runners have departed.

IN 1967 THE ORANGE attempted more passes than any other team in the university's history—and completed more.

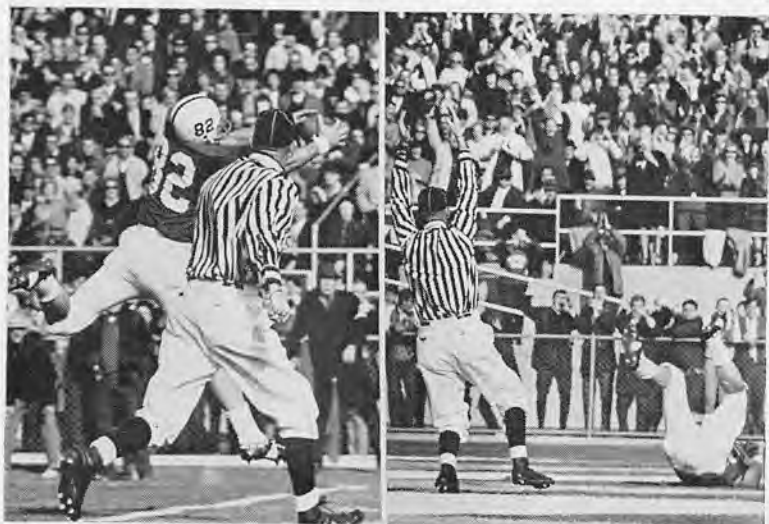

Schwartzwalder tried juniors Rich Pancyszyn and Paul Paolisso and sophomore Randy Zur at quarterback in spring practice. Bill During, Dick Bidlack and John Bulicz returned and moved up in the backfield.

If Syracuse's "green" offense jells, the East could have an "orange" tint.

Army's brilliant fourth-quarter rally was not enough in THE GAME last December and the Cadets lost to Navy, 19-14, to throw a shadow over the UNDIGNIFIED BUT EFFECTIVE was this pass-interception play employed by Lock Haven State's Dave Hoffman (identified by his socks, no doubt). His unorthodox clutch contributed to Bald Eagles' 30-6 conquest of white-jerseyed Edinboro State.

8-2 campaign. But quarterback Jim O'Toole, who sparked Army's come-from-behind effort which almost erased Navy's 19-point lead, is back for his third year. Steve Lindell, starting '67 quarterback, and fullback Charley Jarvis also return as will all three deep backs—Dennis Hutchinson, Dick Luecke and Tom Haller. Two juniors who lettered last fall, Hank Andrzejczak and Lynn Moore, will be available to Coach Tom Cahill.

UP FRONT IS WHERE THE TROUBLE LIES as the academy prepares for its 79th season. Twelve of the 1967 starters have graduated and most of them played on the forward walls. Only tackle Bob Ivany and tight end Gary Steele are back on the offensive line while the defense has tackles Steve Yarnell, end Tom Wheelock and linebacker-captain Ken Johnson.

Navy finished 5-4-1 last fall. Holding off Army saved the year. Finding a replacement for record-setting quarterback John Cartwright is Coach Bill Elias' toughest task.

Left-handed Mike Lettieri, a tight end who played quarterback as a plebe, and junior varsity players Bob Pacenta and Tom Bender, plus John McNallen make up the group from which Elias will pluck his signal-caller.

In all, Elias has 22 lettermen back. Twelve of those were starters. Fullback Tom Daley and halfback Dan Pike are the key backs.

Tight end Mike Clark, team captain, leads the receivers.

IN TWO YEARS COACH DICK HART has lured 67 football players to Pitt, the largest number recruited there recently, and in direct contrast to the total of 16 recruited the year before Hart took the job in late 1965.

This hard work should pay off as the Panthers are expected to return to respectability. With a break here or there, they could go over .500 and erase thoughts of last fall's 1-9 disaster. Of the 24 lettermen returning, 14 were starters. The lines have good size and ability while offensive help will come from tailback Dave Garnett, fullback Tony Esposito, wingbacks J. D. Lewis and Mike Connell, and quarterback Don Plusquellic.

The Ivy League again appears to be one of the best balanced leagues in the nation. Ask its coaches.

DEFENDING CHAMPION YALE, Princeton and Dartmouth are expected to fight it out for the top spot, with Cornell and Harvard battling to round out the first division.

Coach Carmen Cozza guided Yale to an 8-1 record and the championship his third year at New Haven. It was Yale's best showing since 1960 and more of the same is expected in 1968—if.

The Bulldogs lost seven starters on defense, but if Cozza can find replacements on the line, his worries are over. For on offense versatile quarterback and captain Brian Dowling is back, along with his running mate, halfback Calvin Hill. Bob Levin is the fullback. Yale has two outstanding ends in Bruce Weinstein and Lew Roney; also all-Ivy tackle Kyle Gee.

Princeton's prospects are enhanced by the fact graduation losses were the smallest in years. The starting offensive team will return with just one exception. There will be two big holes to fill on the defensive platoon. Tailback Dick Bracken heads the offense, with Jim Koloski and Ellis Moore at wingback and fullback, respectively.

DARTMOUTH'S ATTACK WILL REVOLVE around junior quarterback Bill Koenig and sophomore Jim Chasey. Both are excellent passers and can run the option. Bob Lundquist, absent with an injury most of '67, should bolster the running game, along with Bob Mlakar and Bill Donovan.

Cornell had a 6-2-1 record, its best since 1950, and finished third. Coach Jack Musick retains 24 lettermen and the outlook is good. Harvard faces a rebuilding job; graduation took 27 of 41 lettermen. Finding a quarterback is the big concern.

Columbia, with new Coach Frank Navarro, Penn and Brown, are about

TOO HOT TO HANDLE—It was, too, at least for both Baylor's Pinky Palmer (35) who has just fumbled and Syracuse's Cliff Ensley (15) who looks a cinch to recover. Bears' George Chesire (behind Palmer) fell on the hot potato for 6-yard gain.

Temple won the Middle Atlantic Conference University Division title for the first time in 1967 and the Owls are the team to beat again.

Coach George Makris has many of his defensive stalwarts returning and the nucleus of his powerful pro-type offense in quarterback John Waller, split end Jim Callahan and halfback Mike Busch.

Bucknell, with conference MVP Sam Havrilak at quarterback, and 1967 runner-up Hofstra appear to be Temple's main threats. Gettysburg should be improved, but Delaware, Lafayette and Lehigh are still rebuilding.

The Northern College Division race could be a battle between Wilkes and Wagner, with Delaware Valley moving up to challenge for the top spot. Juniata, co-champion with Wilkes and Wagner in '67, is expected to drop down.

Johns Hopkins has its outstanding halfback combination of Paul Weiss and division MVP Joe Cowan returning and should repeat as Southern College Division titlist, but can expect a fight from Western Maryland and Franklin & Marshall. Drexel and Swarthmore could rebound after losing seasons.

Having won the Yankee Conference Bean Pot four of the past five years, Massachusetts again is the team to beat, but Connecticut, New Hampshire and Rhode Island all are capable of winning the title should the Redmen falter.

UMass, after winning 14 straight conference games, must come up with a new quarterback. Split end Nick Warnock and defensive back Mike McArdle anchor the two platoons that are well seasoned.

Connecticut had only one poor game last year — a 35-14 loss to Massachusetts — and that was the difference between first and second place. Quarterback Pete Petrillo will spearhead a fine offense and if the Huskies can fill linebacking losses, the defense should be rugged.

Rhode Island led the league in passing last season and rates more than a passing glance with quarterback Larry Caswell, who could be the loop's best.

Yearling Coach Jim Root inherits 27 of 32 letter winners at New Hampshire. Defense was the Wildcats' strength in 1967 but the offense will have to be more productive if Root is to win the championship his first year.

Maine and Vermont have plenty of veterans back but the jump from the bottom of the standings to the top appears out of reach for both teams.

Both West Chester and Clarion will be hard-pressed to maintain their mastery for a third season in the Pennsylvania SCAC. In the eastern division, West Chester was hit heavily by graduation but has some excellent sophomores and fullback Bert Nye, small college scoring leader in 1967.

Clarion's western champs have top runners in Bill Wise and Jim Becker plus a very strong defense. The problem is finding a quarterback. East Stroudsburg will challenge in the east with a strong passing attack and Bloomsburg will be tough too if it can find a quarterback. Threats in the west should be high-scoring California, Slippery Rock and Edinboro.

In the first three years of its existence there is one thing that hasn't changed in the Eastern Football Conference—the team at the top.

Southern Connecticut won the title outright the first two seasons and shared it with Central Connecticut in 1967. Southern's domination should continue through 1968. The Owls will have leading ground gainer Vin Russell to operate behind a veteran offensive line that includes Steve Sekula and Joe Ginnetti.

Stiffest competition probably will come from Central Connecticut again, but Montclair State and Bridgeport also appear capable of challenging for the title. Trenton State and Glassboro will have trouble escaping the cellar.

Soothsayers Say LSU, Florida To Lead Reb Recovery From '67 Bowl Disaster

By JERRY LINDQUIST

Sports Writer, The Richmond Times-Dispatch

Somehow the South recovered from Sherman's March, and now the Rebs will have to rise again, following an unprecedented, disastrous turn of events in post-season competition.

The mind boggles at what happened. Five Southeastern Conference teams went bowling, and only Louisiana State came up a winner.

Alabama, second-ranked Tennessee, Mississippi, and Georgia all came up short. Florida State, an independent, settled for a 17-17 standoff in the Gator Bowl against Penn State.

The bruises have gone. Only the memory lingers on, and it would appear to be up to LSU and Florida to accomplish a turnabout.

An unofficial pre-season poll has labeled the Bengals and Gators most likely to succeed in the SEC.

ON THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE SCENE, defending champion Clemson gets the nod although Wake Forest has great expectations and North Carolina State always is there or thereabouts.

The Southern Conference picture, as usual, is clouded by numerous factors. For example, at times it's difficult to determine whether a team is eligible for the conference title.

West Virginia University, the 1967 champion and a perennial powerhouse in the conference, won't be back to torment SC adversaries because it quit the league earlier this year.

East Carolina, with player-of-the-year Butch Colson back at fullback, is the top threat for the Southern title now, with Richmond rated as the dark-horse candidate.

AMONG INDEPENDENTS, Florida State still has flanker Ron Sellers, and that is a strong selling point in itself. Miami (Fla.), with All-American defensive end Ted Hendricks, should be tough again. Georgia Tech will be trying to rebound from its worst season since 1945.

Key in the Southeastern Conference could be quarterback. Few teams have an established caller.

Auburn has Loran Carter. Tennessee has Bubba Wyche, although he ranked no better than a third team spot on a club that claimed the SEC title. Florida is two deep at the post with Larry Rentz and Jack Eckdahl.

Florida Coach Ray Graves has 28 let-

Besides football, Jerry Lindquist has composed stories on such sports as boxing, stock car racing, baseball and golf for the Richmond Times-Dispatch. His main assignment for the past five years has been the Southern Conference.

Lindquist was born April 7, 1938 in New York City, attended high school in New Jersey, and received his collegiate degree from Washington & Lee University at Lexington, Virginia. He joined the Times-Dispatch on June 22, 1959 as a prep writer. For the past four years, Lindquist has been the executive secretary of the Southern Conference Sports Writers Association, which is the only paying job in that organization.

termen, with a veteran offensive line plus depth and ability on the defensive forward wall.

THEN THERE IS Larry Smith, the fullback Graves calls "a great runner and blocker." No one is about to dispute him. Smith gained 754 yards. "Our offense will be built around Smith. We intend to get the football to him as often as possible," says Graves.

The schedule would appear to be in Florida's favor, too. The Gators play five games within the Southeastern Conference. They don't play perennial toughies Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana State and Alabama.

OF THE 22 STARTERS who came from behind to defeat Wyoming in the Sugar Bowl, only seven were lost to LSU. However, quarterback could be a problem, with Nelson Stokley no longer on hand.

Charlie McClendon starts his seventh season as head coach with outstanding runners in Tommy Allen and Eddie Ray. Freddy Haynes probably will replace Stokley at the quarterback slot.

The schedule definitely does not favor Tennessee. Coach Doug Dickey says, "This schedule is the toughest in Tennessee football history."

The Volunteers should be more defensive than offensive for the first time

OH, OH, I GOT COMPANY, discovers Ohio University split end Todd Snyder as he's brought down from behind by William and Mary defensive back Steve Howard (32) after hauling in forward pass. W&M shortchanged Mid-American co-champs, 25-22.

OOPH!—Clemson's Jacky Jackson has his progress reversed abruptly by Auburn safetyman Buddy McClinton's driving tackle. Other defenders are Robert Margeson (51), Mike Kolen (54) and Roy Tatum (73). Auburn's offense won it, though, 43-21.

in several seasons. Gone is All-American center Bob Johnson plus quarterbacks Dewey Warren and Charley Fulton.

Back with quarterback Wyche is Charles Rosenfelder, an offensive guard who should be an All-American nominee.

ALABAMA MUST REBUILD ITS OFFENSE as well, now that quarterback Kenny Stabler and flanker Dennis Homan have been graduated. The offensive line has holes. Leading ground gainer Ed Morgan is back.

Kentucky has David Bair at quarterback. Mississippi State has Tommy Pharr. Both had to learn under fire last season as sophomores. But neither team is rated a challenger for title contention.

Mississippi, as usual, will be big and strong. A quarterback may be all Georgia lacks to become a chief contender.

Clemson did it the hard way last season, taking the Atlantic Coast Conference crown by beating North Carolina State and arch-rival South Carolina in the final two games of the campaign.

This time around the Tigers have 38 lettermen, including tailback Buddy Gore. He set an ACC rushing record and was player-of-the-year.

YEAR AFTER YEAR, Earle Edwards fields a formidable team at State, and there's little reason to suspect he won't do it again despite the loss of 17 starters from a team that shocked Georgia in the Liberty Bowl, 14-7.

Back among 25 monogram winners is Gerald Warren, kicking specialist who led the ACC in scoring (70 points) and the nation in field goals with 17, a major-college record.

At Wake Forest there's unbounded optimism, with high hopes for the brightest campaign in more than 10 years.

BALL-HEADED DIVER is Penn State tight end Ted Kwalick, who's been flipped by North Carolina State defenders Charles Amato (33), Greg Williams (behind Kwalick) and Art McMahon (26). Wolfpack upsetters were upset in the end, 13-8.

The Deacons lost their first six in 1967 then finished by winning their last four, and the momentum could carry over, with 35 lettermen to go along with a new 31,000-seat stadium.

Quarterback Freddie Summers returns. He was the ACC's total offense leader (1,419 yards), and Coach Bill Tate has an able back-up in Dave Connors, a transfer from Purdue. Five junior college transfers will help.

JUST HOW TOUGH WAKE IS will be noted early. The Deacons play North Carolina State and Clemson back-to-back at home to open the season.

Optimism is not lacking throughout the Atlantic Coast Conference. George Blackburn has 25 lettermen at the University of Virginia. "We could have a bonafide title contender," he says.

The Cavaliers always have been able to score and score often under Blackburn, and should again. All-American type runner Frank Quayle headlines a backfield that also features quarterback Gene Arnette and converted tight end Jeff Anderson at fullback.

SOUTH CAROLINA COULD FINISH among the top four. Duke, North Carolina, and Maryland should bring up the bottom again.

Duke, a disappointing 4-6, lost 23 seniors (14 regulars) and had the defensive line all but wiped out.

Maryland, 0-9 in Bob Ward's first year as head coach, may have Alan Pastrana at quarterback after a year's layoff. That should mean improvement, offensively. The Terps scored only 46 points last year.

Southern Conference football has been on the upgrade in recent seasons, and the trend should continue. Improvement will be noted at several stops.

Colson and 21 other lettermen give East Carolina and its single-wing the championship look. There are a few gaps on attack, but Coach Clarence Stasavich has patched them before and should again.

THE UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND and The Citadel will be better. Richmond won more conference games (five) than any other team, earned Frank Jones coach-of-the-year honors, and has a solid pass-catch duo in quarterback Buster O'Brien and Walker Gillette, a split end.

Jim Parker's program at The Citadel has progressed rapidly as well. The Bulldogs expect to move upward and onward behind quarterback Jay Goolsby, running back Jim McMillan and a 6-4, 220-pound linebacker with the unlikely name of John Small.

VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, after a winning season (6-4) for the first time in five years, could be better, if Coach Vito Ragazzo can find a QB. Furman retains the Fly and the Flea (quarterback Clyde Hewell and split end Robbie Hahn), a first-rate passing combination. William & Mary's fortunes are questionable. Davidson may have trouble escaping the cellar.

Bill Peterson apparently thought enough about the future at Florida State that he turned his back on professional football coaching offers. Sellers is one reason. So are 34 other lettermen.

Sophomores will supply the answers for Georgia Tech. Bud Carson reorganized his coaching staff, which, in turn, went about reorganizing the ANATOMY OF A FUMBLE—When Kentucky tackle George Katzenbach (79) drove his head into the football that Indiana fullback Terry Cole (48) was carrying, the ball and Terry Cole parted company. Hoosiers came from behind for 12-10 victory anyhow.

A TENACIOUS DEVIL is Duke defensive end Danny Rose, who has gotten Clemson quarterback Jimmy Addison's number (18) and won't let go. But Blue Devils lost the thread and 14-6 decision to Tigers, who went on to cop third straight ACC crown.

graduation-depleted lineup. Record-breaking John Sias is a top-drawer receiver, but the Engineers must find someone to get the ball to him.

Tulane's third season as an independent is filled with peril. The schedule is typically rugged (Houston, Florida, LSU, Texas A&M, etc.) and gone are 20 seniors, including do-everything back Bobby Duhon.

West Virginia should be better overall, despite the loss of running back Garrett Ford, who had ankle problems and never could measure up to his sophomore and junior campaigns.

Carl Crennel returns at middle guard-linebacker. He was second-team All-America as a sophomore, and some professional scouts claim he's the best among collegians in his position.

The outlook is packed with question marks at Virginia Tech, where Coach Jerry Claiborne must replace eight three-year regulars, among them two-time All-American safety Frank Loria.

Southern Mississippi should be more defensive than offensive again.

Champions rarely repeat in the Gulf States Conference — only two undisputed titlists have ever done so — but most observers give McNeese a shaky vote to finish first again this fall.

The Cowboys were the first league champs to finish with a losing overall record but didn't drop a GSC game until the title was clinched. They will be headed by All-GSC guard Dick Colburn and tackles Nick Hebert, Earl Gothreaux.

NW Louisiana should be a chief contender with shifty Vic Nyvall and double-threat quarterback Don Guidry.

SW Louisiana closed 1967 with a 31-6 rout of McNeese and graduation losses were light. The Bulldogs have a stubborn defense led by Glenn Lafleur.

SE Louisiana and Louisiana Tech must solve defensive problems to make the race a wide-open affair. SE Louisiana has Dan Brewer, who broke or tied eight league records, back at quarterback, Tech's Tommy Spinks caught 62 passes for another conference standard.

NE Louisiana lost 11 starters, seven of them all-GSC, and is expected to be weaker, especially on defense. A bright spot is all-league end Al Miller.

Eastern Kentucky, defending Ohio Valley champion and NCAA Mid-east regional king, is a solid favorite for the 1968 title. Top returnees are quarterback

Jim Guice, flanker John Tazel, backs Jack McCoy and Butch Evans, linebackers Jim Moberly, Don Reed and middle guard Teddy Taylor.

Austin Peay will challenge with a strong offense led by bulldozing fullback Ronnie Hackney and end Harold (Red) Roberts. Western Kentucky, under new coach Jimmy Feix, is a definite threat with Dickie Moore, the nation's leading rusher in NCAA's college division, quarterback Mike Egan and back Jim Vorhees.

East Tennessee will feature a rock-hard defense centered around tackle Frank Patterson, guard Butch Buchanan, back Al Guy and Ron Overbay, the conference's player-of-the-year. Morehead's forte is an outstanding backfield that includes Bill Marston, Leon Wesley, Lewis Rogan and Ron Cathright.

Tennessee Tech has a new coach, Don Wade, and some proven offensive performers led by fullback Larry Schreiber. Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy begins his 22nd year as head coach at Middle Tennessee feeling he might have one of his fastest backfields with speedsters Taylor Edwards and Gene Carney. They can count on holes being opened by tackles Andy King and Jim Franklin.

Murray State boasts quarterback Larry Tillman, who broke almost every loop passing record last season. He'll have strong support from runner Russ Hake and receivers Wayne Theiss and Gerald Young.

Morgan State lost seven seniors to professional football and will be hard-pressed to rack up a third successive undefeated season and win the CIAA crown. However, the Bears still will be strong contenders with runners like George Nock and John Fuqua.

Maryland State may go undefeated behind a huge, experienced line, the running of 245-pound fullback Roy Kirksey, and the passing of Willie Belton. The line boasts of 6-6, 215-pound split end Arthur Lassiter and 6-3, 240-pound guard Gerald Irons.

Prominent returnees at North Carolina A&T are quarterbacks Merl Code and Willie Pearson, 230-pound tackle Warren Frye, and flanker Daryl Cherry.

Johnson C. Smith's future looks bright because of All-CIAA backs Bill Dusenberry, Thad Jones and 6-4, 270-pound tackle Edgar Farmer.

Virginia State needs to find replacements at end and center but is glad that star defensive tackle James Mitchell is back to anchor the line.

Sewanee's Purple Tigers, who surprised nearly everybody when they walked off with the 1967 College Athletic title, lost only eight players, but they included three all-conference performers. Coach Shirley Majors, however, still has all-league picks Marshall Boon, Tim Hubbard, Winston Sheehan and Jim Beene, as well as standout runner Bubba Owens.

Centre has a young team featuring Jerry Schenz and ends Stan Peskoe, Doug Eaton. The club will be hard-pressed to improve its '67 finish.

Washington & Lee should be strong on defense behind all-league choices Scott Mackenzie, John Harris, John Wolf and Charlie Freret. The offense needs a leader and that could be diminutive quarterback Alan Tomlin.

Dick Langdon's passing arm and the return of all-league performers Ed Kelly and Jeff Jones should be some comfort for new Washington coach Dick Martin.

Southwestern must find competent receivers to catch the passes of its outstanding quarterback, Randy McKean. The defense is led by Sam Cooper.

Defending champion Randolph-Macon, title winner twice in the last three seasons, seems too strong again for its Mason-Dixon rivals, mainly because quarterback Dave Wetzel, center John Buonassisi and safety Bill Kibler, all three all-conference selections, return.

Johns Hopkins, behind star Joe Cowan, looms as most dangerous adversary but cannot win the conference because it does not play enough games. With the Blue Jays not eligible, Hampden-Sydney appears the strongest challenger despite the loss of halfback Phil Rome, a three-year star.

Western Maryland's Terrors lost five key men and are very thin at quarterback. They must depend heavily again on Bruce Bozman, who threw for 10 touchdowns and ran for four more last fall.

Shepherd, Bridgewater and Gallaudet have been rebuilding but hope to move a season closer to roles as major contenders.

Purdue Has Keyes To Unlock Big Ten's Throne Room, Barring 5-Way Title Tie

By BOB HOERNER

Sports Editor, The Lansing State Journal

It's a good thing football titles aren't won "on paper." If they were, the Big Ten might end in a four-or-five-way deadlock this season.

Last year's three co-champions—surprising Indiana, Purdue and Minnesota—all figure to be as strong, or stronger, than in 1967. They have "paper proof" to back their theories. Ohio State also figures to be in the thick of things. So does Michigan State.

"This is the best freshman squad since I came here in 1951 and it should give us the speed and depth we need to be in the race," says Woody Hayes of his Ohio State Buckeyes.

A quick return to football respectability is expected at Michigan State. "We have some question marks," Spartan Coach Duffy Daugherty admits, "but the return of our cripples alone should make us a better team than last year. We have few losses from the senior team that will hurt us."

THOSE ARE THE FIVE TOP CONTENDERS, and they don't seem to leave much for Illinois, Michigan, Northwestern, Iowa and Wisconsin—nothing more than just enough of the upset victories that the Big Ten has in every championship campaign to really scramble the standings.

Notre Dame, king of the independents, has some defensive rebuilding to do, especially the secondary crew, but still has its Terry Hanratty-to-Jim Seymour passing combination, and should rank with the nation's best again.

The Mid-American Conference stacks up as another wild race with last year's co-champions, Toledo and Ohio U., fighting off threats from Miami of Ohio and Western Michigan.

ALTHOUGH SEVERAL Big Ten schools had outstanding frosh units a year ago, there will be familiar names when the final individual awards are presented this fall. Last year was definitely dominated by underclassmen. Check these 1967 figures:

... of the top 12 ball carriers, only one was a senior.

... of the top seven passers, only two were seniors.

... of the four total offense leaders, none was a senior.

... of the top seven individual scorers, only two were seniors.

In addition, the individual leaders in pass receiving, punting, kickoff returns, punt returns, point-after-touchdowns

Bob Hoerner has just completed 20 years on The Lansing State Journal staff, including six as sports editor. A journalism graduate of Michigan State University, Hoerner's first assignment with the paper was the high school beat. He began covering the Big Ten 10 years ago.

This summer he was on his ninth straight Big Ten Skywriters tour which covers the conference's pre-season football camps. In 1956 and 1966 he went west to report on Michigan State's adventures in the Rose Bowl.

Hoerner has been on the Associated Press' football and basketball poll committees for several seasons. He manages to see plenty of teams in both sports while patrolling the Big Ten beat.

and all but one defensive leader were non-seniors.

Purdue, although nudged by sophomore-heavy Indiana in the final of the Boilermakers' off-Rose Bowl season to cause the three-way pileup, has the top credentials focused around its All-American halfback, Leroy Keyes.

IN SOME SEASONS, Keyes would be enough to establish a team as the early fall favorite. Purdue has more than the versatile back, including quarterback Mike Phipps and fullback Perry Williams, both on the 1967 All-Big Ten team with Keyes.

Coach Jack Mollenkopf welcomes six starters on offense and five on defense. But Keyes is the vital cog to Purdue's title hopes. The Heisman Trophy candidate is the national scoring champion and doubles on defense when needed. He scored 114 points to bring the Big Ten its first football scoring championship since Michigan's Tom Harmon. On his way to the conference's Most Valuable Player award, Keyes gained the rushing title by a comfortable 245 yards. Phipps' passing and Williams' up-the-middle charges complement Keyes' sweeps perfectly.

MOLLENKOPF HAS SOME LINE REBUILDING to do, including finding a replacement for record-receiving end Jim Beirne, but with a solid, versatile backfield, the job shouldn't be too tough.

Murray Warmath heads into his 15th season at Minnesota with nine returning starters on the attack unit and six on defense. "We could be improved over last season and still not finish with as good a record," he says.

Although quarterback Curt Wilson has graduated, the Gophers are expected to be stronger on offense than when they tied for the crown with a 6-1 record. Loss of some outstanding defenders, including tackle McKinley Boston, safety Mike Condo, guard Ed Duren and halfback Tom Sakal, indicates Minnesota may not be as strong defensively.

AT INDIANA, THEY HOPE the football forces don't follow the basketball pattern. The Hoosier basketballers went from last to first and to last in the last three years. Two years ago, the Indiana footballers finished ninth with a 1-8-1 record and last fall surprised everyone with a 9-1 mark to gain a tie for the title and earn its first Rose Bowl assignment.

"We've lost the element of surprise," Coach-Of-The-Year Johnny Pont said recently. "But I would be out of character and something less than honest if I said we feel we won't have a good team."

Indiana relied heavily on sophomores last fall. Of course, most of the squad is back, and all with a year's experience. Biggest problem on offense is replacing the center of the line and fulback Terry Cole, the only starting back who was not a sophomore. On the plus side, seven starters return, including quarterback Harry Gonso, halfback John Isenbarger and flanker

Jade Butcher. The defense returns six starters.

There's a lot of talk at Broad and High in Columbus, Ohio, including some praise from Woody Hayes for Ohio State's sophomore group. It's tagged as the best the Buckeyes have had in a long time, but it doesn't look like the sophs will march into starting positions opening day. There are plenty of returning lettermen. Eight of the offense positions have starters returning and 10 are back on defense.

HAYES WILL GREET OFFENSIVE STARTERS John Muhlbach and Jim Roman, centers, halfbacks Ray Gillian and Dave Brungard, quarterback Bill Long, guard Alan Jack, tackle Dave Foley, end Rufus Mayes, and two fullbacks, Jim Otis and Paul Huff. Returning lettermen on defense are linemen Dave Whitfield, Brad Nielsen, Nick Roman, Bill Urbanik and Paul Schmidlin. Veterans in the backfield are Mike Polaski, Ted Provost, Mark Stier, Vic Stottlemeyer and Dirk Worden.

Michigan State's problem is offense, where it lost all regulars except Al Brenner and halfbacks LaMarr Thomas and Frank Waters. The defense, which suffered greatly last fall by an endless string of injuries, should be stronger. Most of the casualties are expected back and will be joined by some promising sophomores. Daugherty must find a replacement for quarterback Jimmy Raye, a two-year starter. Top candidates are senior Bill Feraco and sophomore Scooter Longmire.

ILLINOIS TIED FOR FIFTH last year to finish in the first division for the fifth straight time. Although not rated a top threat, Coach Jim Valek's crew could wind up in the top half again.

Return of senior quarterback Bob Naponic should help. He was injured in the first game last fall and missed the last eight games. Starters returning from the attack unit are end Len Wislow, guards Steve Oman and Doug Redmann, halfback Dave Jackson and fullback Rich Johnson. Key defenders are linemen Carson Brooks, Doug Whitman, Mickey Hogan, Tony Pleviak and backs Bruce Erb and Herschel Johnson.

MICHIGAN WON THREE OF ITS LAST FOUR a year ago to finish at 4-6 and hopes to have a faster start this fall. Dennis Brown, who replaced Dick Vidmer at quarterback midway of last season, will be operating with the same running backs who finished as starters.

Halfbacks Ron Johnson, who netted 1,005 yards rushing, and John Gabler and fullback Garvie Crawl return. Johnson was fourth in rushing in the Big Ten and Brown was second in passing and total offense.

Coach John Coatta will have a dozen regulars (eight offense, four defense) returning from his first team at Wisconsin. Top performer coming back is linebacker Ken Criter, who set the conference pace last season with 63 unassisted and 69 assisted tackles.

Northwestern's Alex Agase will have his most experienced team in his five years as boss of the Wildcats. His squad will be tested early as it faces Miami (Fla.), Southern Cal, Purdue and Notre Dame in the first four games. Six more Big Ten games follow. Chico Kurzawski and Bob Olson, the team's top runners a year ago, return to the halfback slots.

STARTING HIS THIRD YEAR AT IOWA, Coach Ray Nagel will have the most experienced team in the conference. Only five starters are missing. Second in the Big Ten in offense last fall, the Hawkeyes have quarterback Ed Podolak and receivers Al Bream and Barry Crees returning.

In the last 40 games, Coach Ara Parseghian's Notre Dammers have not once enjoyed the luxury of being the underdog. The string may reach 50 this campaign. Parseghian's major problem is defense where seven regulars graduated, including standouts Kevin Hardy and Tom Schoen.

Prospects are brighter on offense where Terry Hanratty and Coley O'Brien will handle the quarterback chores. Two pleasant surprises from last year, HERE COME DE JUDGE—Ingenious official is using index card to demonstrate to Augustana's Dale Morgan ball isn't touching yardstick, foiling his team's fourth-down bid for first down. Other jurymen (in white) are North Park's defenders.

halfback Bob Gladieux and fullback Jeff Zimmerman, return. Linemen back include tackle George Kunz, guard Tom McKinley, and ends Jim Winegardner and Jim Seymour. Seymour now has caught more passes for more yards than any other player in Notre Dame's 79-year football history.

Coach Frank Lauterbur, who directed Toledo to a co-championship in the Mid-American Conference with Ohio U., lost eight of his 10 players who were named to the all-conference team. The two all-league players in fold are defensive end Mel Tucker and tailback Rol Moss.

CO-CHAMP OHIO UNIVERSITY has 16 starters returning. "We feel with our experienced personnel that we have every reason to expect a fine season. I'm optimistic about our 1968 outlook," Coach Bill Hess commented. Top players on offense are tackles Ken Carmon and Frank Peters, quarterback Cleve Bryant, tailback Dick Conley and split end Todd Snyder. Seven starters are back on defense, including Steve Robinson.

Miami of Ohio Coach Bo Schembechler must rebuild his offensive line and defensive secondary if the Redskins hope to be a title threat. Linebackers Bob Babich and Bob Rieber and end Merv Nugent are standouts on defense. Offensive leaders include quarterback Kent Thompson, end Gary Arthur, tackle Dave Hutchins and fullback Don Wade.

Coach Bill Doolittle at Western Michigan is optimistic as he will have 15 starters returning. The Broncos must come up with a quarterback and a kicker to be a title contender. Running threats are tailback Jack Foster and fullback Tim Majerle.

KENT STATE, BOWLING GREEN and Marshall will have new coaches. Dave Puddington, former Kent State assistant who coached Washington University at St. Louis last fall, takes over the Falcon post and Don Nehlen moves up from defensive coach to the head spot at Bowling Green. Perry Moss is bossman at Marshall after coaching at Florida State, Montreal in the Canadian League, and in the Continental League.

Puddington inherits a strong defense paced by Jim Corrigan and Nick Zuj, but must rebuild the offense. Nehlen will have the bulk of his starters (seven on each unit) but must find an interior line. Three backs return, including quarterback P. N. Nyitray and fullback Chuck Radich. Key defenders are guard Joe Green and linebacker Dennis Zolciak.

Ed Biles' Xavier team posted a surprising 6-3-1 mark last fall and has a strong nucleus returning, including quarterback Jerry Buckmaster and two starting running backs. Top lineman is guard John Shimmers.

Dayton Coach John McVay has 11 starters, among them quarterback Jerry Biebuyck, halfbacks Bob Madden, Bernie Kress, and fullback Mike Wilson and defenders Lou Galiardi, Jim Place, Don Ragon and Denny Graf.

The Indiana Collegiate Conference will take a new look in 1968. With the departure from the league of powerhouse Ball State and its threatening sister school, Indiana State, the football plums may get passed around.

This means that the ICC chase probably will turn out to be a genuine gasser that includes all the league's remaining five members — DePauw, Butler, St. Joseph's, Evansville and Valparaiso.

DePauw can count on backfield stars John Sacramento, John Long and Bill Holton. A new quarterback is needed, however, and that could be junior Ron McBride or sophomore Roger Karl.

Butler boasts several veterans plus a flock of sophomores up from an unbeaten freshman team. Most of the offensive punch is intact plus the better part of both of the Bulldog lines.

The club with momentum could be St. Joseph's. The Pumas have most of the defensive team that was stingiest in the ICC a year ago. Jesse Taggart, a mobile 235-pound linebacker, is the heart of the unit, which also includes end Steve Bakos, linebacker Lou Offer and deep backs Dave Scheafbauer, Tom Green.

Valparaiso will go at the task of resurgence with new head coach Norman Amundsen, formerly the taskmaster at Beloit College. One of his problems is finding a new quarterback, but he inherits 25 lettermen.

Evansville is a darkhorse along with St. Joseph's. Ace opponents will have trouble stopping triple-threat back Mike Woodward, all-ICC as an offensive end, defensive back and high-scoring placekicker.

A powerful Thiel team could take the Presidents' Conference title again this fall. The squad has five All-PAC performers—offensive end John Gibson, center Joe Kranic, linebacker Mike Donato, defensive guard John Tomlinson and fullback Al McCartney, the league's top rusher in 1967.

Bethany, hampered by injuries last season, will rely on depth in making a run for the championship. Other teams in the running should be Allegheny and John Carroll. Adelbert and Washington & Jefferson should improve, and Case Tech has nowhere to go but up.

Ohio Wesleyan ended a seven-year domination by Wittenberg and Muskingum at the top of the Ohio Conference last season but will have a hard time repeating because nine of the 14 league teams rate as challengers. Wesleyan's title hopes will ride on the loop's best pass-catch combination of quarterback Dick Cromwell and end Bill Long.

Baldwin-Wallace and Muskingum loom as the teams to beat. B-W returns its entire starting backfield and Muskingum will bank on a defense anchored by four all-conference performers.

Wittenberg also is strong on defense and can't be counted out. Both Wooster and Marietta should again have the personnel to challenge for first place. Denison, Capital, Mount Union and Heidelberg are darkhorse possibilities, and Otterbein, Oberlin, Kenyon, Hiram hope to be improved.

A wide-open battle is forecast for the Interstate Conference with defending co-champions Central Michigan and Illinois State having to stave off challenges from Eastern Illinois and Western Illinois to repeat.

Among key lettermen back at Central Michigan is Craig Tefft, the first CMU running back to gain over 1,000 yards since 1958.

Illinois State is looking for an experienced quarterback but still has Jed Waters, the team's leading rusher, and guard Hank Guenther.

Eastern Illinois hopes to extend its three-game winning streak behind the loop's most experienced backfield — Joe Davis, Dennis Bundy, Larry Angelo.

Western Illinois must find a replacement for Little All-American linebacker Mike Hattery but expects help from a large group of sophomores.

Gustavus Adolphus won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference football title last year and is expected to repeat in '68. The Custies have all-conference quarterback Lane Erickson to lead the offense plus back Buster West and end Jay Anderson to guide the defense.

Concordia is looking forward toward another winning season with help from backfield stars Paul Linde, Joe Langemo, Chuck Rathert and Les Perry.

Quarterbacks Lee Christiansen and Scott Gernander and halfback Harry Davis will lead Duluth. The team must replace some key linemen, however.

Hamline should improve with Larry Hegerly back at the controls after a year of injuries that plagued the Pipers.

Macalester may give opponents trouble because it has sophomore quarterback Carter Hill, who could be the class of the loop at that position.

Three-time NAIA champion St. John's had a losing mark in 1967 but fashioned a 12-7 upset over Gustavus late in the year to give a warning for '68.

St. Thomas' Bob Rochford led the conference in passing and total offense last season and the Tommies' rivals can expect more aerial assaults. The running threat is 215-pound halfback Sean Flood.

Augsburg will rely on the passing combination of QB Bruce Nelson-flanker Karl Sneider and the defensive talents of all-league guard Larry Lamparske.

Alma College, the MIAA's 1967 champion, will be difficult to dislodge from the top spot this season. The Scots return no less than seven All-MIAA picks, including such fine offensive standouts as quarterback Tom Jakovac, halfback Chris Clark and end John Fuzak.

Olivet, which lost only to Alma last year, is searching for enough depth to be a contender again after losing several key players through graduation.

Albion was hampered by a disastrous series of injuries in 1967, but has the personnel to be a contender. Kalamazoo, Hope and Adrian were the second-division clubs last year and each has only an outside chance of improving its lot.

Lawrence, which shared the title in 1966 and won it outright with an undefeated team in 1967, will be defending without the services of its two-time all-conference quarterback, Chuck McKee. The champions also lost their ace linebacker, all-conference Gary Hietpas.

St. Olaf, a co-champion in 1966, also loses its veteran quarterback, Paul

Anderson, and an ace running back, Al Long, but will have Mike Schmeising, who tied McKee for individual scoring honors.

Lawrence will have a brace of talented linemen, including Dale Schuparra, an all-conference end on defense; and Joe Patterson and Paul Henningsen, who were second team all-league tackles in 1967.

Monmouth, which surprised the loop last year with a 5-3 mark and third-place finish, will have a number of first string players returning and ranks as a definite contender for top laurels in 1968.

Coe lost the league's third-ranking scorer in fullback Al Rowe as well as most of its backfield but will have experienced lads up front. Ripon, which dominated the conference for several years but fell to 4-4 last campaign, also is expected to be rugged this season.

Sooners, Eagles Uneasy Front Runners In Valley's 'Year Of The Quarterback'

By HOWARD BAXTER

Sports Editor, The Boulder (Colo.) Daily Camera

The Big Eight Conference experienced one of its finest football seasons last autumn and all the signs would seem to indicate that another bumper year is in prospect for 1968, with the league again likely to produce two or three of the nation's top clubs.

There are a number of reasons for the optimistic outlook, not the least of which is the fact that seven of the circuit's eight starting quarterbacks will be back in harness. And several of them rate with the best signal-callers in the country.

They're well blessed with veteran quarterbacks in the Missouri Valley Conference, too, with five of six 1967 regulars due to return.

With this batch of talent on hand, this truly could be the Year Of The Quarterback in the Midlands.

OKLAHOMA, 7-0 IN BIG EIGHT PLAY and 9-1 overall, pulled off a mild surprise in belting its way to the 1967 championship ahead of defending champion Nebraska and Colorado, the pre-season favorites.

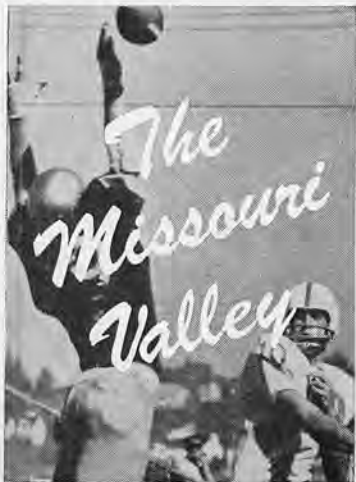

Oklahoma is rated the team to beat going into the fall workouts, but sideline observers are predicting a sizzling scrap that could see any one of four or five other teams emerge as a serious contender.

Over in the Missouri Valley, the incumbent titlist, North Texas State, also gets the nod, though facing stiff challenges from new member Memphis State, eligible for the championship for the first time, and perennial contender Tulsa University.

The 1967 Big Eight campaign was capped by a pair of bowl triumphs as third-ranked Oklahoma edged No. 2 Tennessee, 26-24, in the Orange Bowl and 11th-rated Colorado laced muscular Miami, 31-21, in the Bluebonnet Classic. The two bowl wins gave the Big Eight the best intersectional record of any of the nation's major conferences—16 victories, nine losses and a tie.

NEBRASKA AND KANSAS will make a strong run at the Sooners for this year's title. Colorado and Missouri won't be far off the pace, while Oklahoma State, which returns the most starters (17), could be tough.

Kansas State, with aggressive Vince Gibson in his second year at the helm, will be improved while Iowa State is rebuilding under a new boss, John Howard Baxter has been sports editor of the Boulder Daily Camera since 1954, specializing in coverage of the University of Colorado Buffaloes.

Born in Juniata, Neb., Baxter spent his boyhood on a farm. He was graduated from Kearney State College in 1934, after competing for the Antelopes in two sports.

As a senior at Kearney State, he launched his newspaper career by taking a part-time job with the Kearney Daily Hub. He went to work full-time with the paper after graduation and became sports editor in 1937.

After serving as a naval officer in the South Pacific during World War II, Baxter went into business for two years, then back to writing.

Anderson and Nebraska's Frank Patrick, the league's leading passer, gained plenty of recognition. Also returning are Ronnie Johnson at Oklahoma State, Bill Nossek at Kansas State and John Warder at Iowa State.

THE LOOP HAD TWO OTHER NEW COACHES besides Gibson in 1967 and both made impressive debuts—Chuck Fairbanks at OU and Pepper Rodgers at KU.

Fairbanks will have 14 starters back at Oklahoma, eight from his offensive platoon and six from his defensive unit. The biggest loss was nose-guard Granville Liggins, who made just about everyone's All-America team.

An especially bright spot in the OU picture is the backfield, where, for all intents and purposes, a full quota of regulars returns. Graduated Ron Shotts was actually the starter at tailback, but he shared the spot almost equally with sophomore Steve Owens, who led the league in rushing.

Warmack, of course, is back to run the club, while swift Eddie Hinton returns for wingback duty as does Mike Harper at fullback. "I think we have a chance to have a good football team," surmises Fairbanks. "Whether we'll have as good a record as last year remains to be proven because of the severity of our schedule." The Sooners will play Notre Dame, North Carolina State and Texas before conference warfare.

KANSAS RETURNS 25 LETTERMEN, including seven offensive and eight defensive starters, from the team that surprised just about everyone with its high finish after being tabbed for second-division status.

Douglass will again engineer the Jayhawk attack, an imaginative one under Rodgers, who isn't adverse to going against the "book."

Majors, former Tennessee star who moved to Ames from Frank Broyles' Arkansas coaching staff.

TOPPING THE LINEUP of quarterback returnees is Kansas' Bobby Douglass, who came within eight yards of the all-time Big Eight total offense record, a feat that gained the rangy southpaw all-conference laurels on most of the all-star squads though such operators as Oklahoma's quick Bob Warmack and a pair of sophomore sensations, Colorado's Bobby CAN'T BEAR TO LOOK—Even with his eyes closed, Northern Iowa's Lynn King (21) aids teammate Larry Clement in stopping South Dakota fullback John Biezuns for no gain. Iowans, who allowed only three TDs aground all year, were best, 15-7.

KANSAS CONVOY—Jayhawk quarterback Bobby Douglass (10) follows wave of grimly intent blockers toward contact with Oklahoma defense. Kansas conveyers are (from left) Harold Montgomery, Johnny Greene, Ken Wertzberger and J. C. Hixon (37).

Among the other top men back are John Zook, a 225-pound defensive end with All-America potential, tight end John Mosier, the Big Eight's soph lineman of the year, linebacker Mickey Doyle, and wingback Donnie Shanklin. Leading the sophomore contingent will be John Riggins, a 220-pound fullback, and Steve Lawson, a 245-pound defensive tackle.

NEBRASKA WILL AGAIN BE LED by Patrick, the top sophomore thrower in Big Eight history. Also featuring the Husker offense will be All-Big Eight fullback Dick Davis and halfback speedster Joe Orduna. The top receiver for Patrick's flips likely will be veteran split end Tom Penney.

While the Huskers appear to have the ingredients for a potent offensive combine, they can hardly hope to match their 1967 defensive record (first in the nation in both total defense and pass defense) following the graduation of two-time All-American middle guard Wayne Meylan and other stars from the middle of the defensive line. Therein lies the biggest rebuilding job facing Bob Devaney, the nation's winningest grid coach (.793 percentage).

Coach Eddie Crowder has a lot of patching up to do at Colorado. Though 25 letter winners return, only nine (four offense and five defense) were starters a year ago. But the outlook is still healthy.

AN ENCOURAGING FACTOR is the availability of several outstanding performers who could provide excellent leadership. These include quarterback Anderson, who topped Supreme Court Justice Byron (Whizzer) White's CU total offense mark for one season, split end Monte Huber, who bettered the school's career record for pass-receiving in his sophomore season, offensive tackle Mike Montler, and defensive standouts in end Mike Schnitker (if knee surgery proves successful), middle guard-linebacker Rocky Martin and defensive backs Isaac Howard and Mike Bynum.

Anderson is the only backfield starter returning, but Crowder has some promising candidates, including Bob Stephens, a 250-pound fullback. "We'll have inexperience to overcome, but if we can come up with a center and some offensive guards, we'll be all right," says Crowder.

Coach Dan Devine will have good personnel at Missouri with 16 starters back, but emergence of a top-flight quarterback is the real key to a banner season for the Tigers. The chief candidates for the job held last autumn by Gary Kombrink are Garnett Phelps, No. 2 last year, and junior college transfer Terry McMillan.

The impressive roster of holdovers includes such standouts as defensive back Roger Wehrli, halfback speedster Jon Staggers, Jim Anderson, a rangy offensive tackle, and Jay Wallace, defensive tackle and place-kicker.

A VETERAN OKLAHOMA STATE TEAM will carry a darkhorse label. Coach Phil Cutchin will have his starting backfield intact—Johnson at quarterback, Larry Gosney and Terry Brown at the halfbacks, and Jack Reynolds at fullback, which adds up to a nifty foursome. Center Jon Kolb and tackle John Ward are other offensive leaders, while tackle John Little and halfback Benny Goodwin are first-rate defenders.

Cutchin's troops must steer away from the injury bugaboo, which plagued them last season, and survive a rugged early schedule that puts the Cowboys on the road for the first four weekends against Arkansas, Texas, Houston and Kansas, if they are to contend for a high finish.

At Kansas State, the Wildcats will move into a new 35,000-seat stadium and fans are confident that the gridiron fortunes of the 'Cats are on the upgrade. There are some blue-chippers among the 18 returning lettermen—Cornelius Davis, who rushed for 628 yards last season, pass-catching Dave Jones, Bob Coble, the league's leading punter, and quarterback Nossek.

Coach Gibson's major problem, as last year, lies up front in the offensive line, but he hopes to get some help here from sophomores and transfers.

IOWA STATE'S CYCLONES will have a greenish hue with new coach Majors relying heavily on a better-than-average sophomore crop to bolster his returning veterans. Top hands returning are Ben King, last year's leading rusher, and defensive middle guard Willie Muldrew in addition to quarterback Warder. Majors will install the Arkansas I formation as he takes over the reins from Clay Stapleton, who will give full time to his duties as athletic director after 10 years of guiding the Cyclone gridders.

In the Missouri Valley, North Texas State has topped the ladder two seasons in a row, though sharing the '66 crown with Tulsa, and the chances are the Eagles will fly high again in '68. Twenty-one lettermen return, but especially noteworthy is that the nation's most proficient combination at scoring overhead will be on deck—quarterback Steve Ramsey, who hit for 1,732 yards and 21 TDs (most in the nation) and flanker Ronnie Shanklin, who caught 13 scoring tosses (also No. 1 in the U.S.).

DEFENSIVELY, THE MEAN GREEN was high in several national categories, too. The Eagles' secondary, which intercepted 28 passes, tops among major colleges, will be back intact. However, Coach Rod Rust must replace most of his offensive line. A lack of depth and a stiff schedule make Rust point out, "We could have as good, or better, team than last year and our won-lost record (7-1-1 last season) could still suffer."

Memphis State comes off a 6-3 record in its first bid for Missouri Valley honors. The Tigers were the only team to beat North Texas (29-20) last year. Heading the cast this season will be quarterback Ricky Thurow and tailback Nick Pappas, who averaged 7.2 yards per carry.

TULSA UNIVERSITY WILL BE UP THERE with the contenders with its aerial circus, though, for a change the Hurricanes ran more than they threw last fall. Mike Stripling returns at quarterback and Coach Glenn Dobbs has a couple of other fine prospects who will bid for the job in transfer Rick Arrington and Johnny Dobbs, son of the Hurricane boss. Dobbs must replace his entire front four on defense but a potentially explosive offense should keep the Hurricanes in most games.

At Cincinnati, Coach Homer Rice hopes the momentum of a strong 1967 finish will carry over. He had defensive problems a year ago, but looks for help from a freshman squad that allowed only two touchdowns in three games. Quarterback Greg Cook returns, as does leading ball carrier Lloyd Pate and standout pass receiver Jim O'Brien.

Like Cincinnati, Wichita State is looking for help from a good freshman team (4-1). Coach Eddie Kriwiell will have a flock of lettermen on hand, too (29), so there will be plenty of competition for starting spots. Sophomore John Beeson is the leading candidate for the quarterback job.

BLOCK AND TACKLE—Texas halfback Chris Gilbert (25) has pathway cleared by teammate Danny Abbott, only to be clutched from behind by Oklahoma linebacker Rick Goodwin (52). Fenced out Sooner is Dick Paaso (79). Longhorns won 9-7 struggle.

The lack of speed on both offense and defense hurt Louisville last season. The Cardinals will be faster this fall, but defensive weaknesses may keep them from moving very high in the conference. The Cards are well set at quarterback with the veteran Wally Oyler and Oscar Brohm, a heralded home-town boy coming up from the red-shirt ranks.

It's getting monotonous, but North Dakota State is the word again in North Central Conference football. The Bison, under coach Ron Erhardt, clinched the 1967 crown in the first week when they nipped Northern Iowa in a classic 10-9 battle. No one else came closer than 20 points. Erhardt lost four all-conference performers and key quarterback Terry Hansen, but has three all-league selections in halfback Tim Mjos and defensive stars Jim Ferge, Del Gehrett.

Stan Sheriff's Northern Iowa team lost three games by a total of eight points and gained seven wins on a stingy defense in 1967. Much of that defense is gone along with three of the four starting backs. But back are record-setting quarterback Phil Schooley and linebacker John Williams.

North Dakota's Marv Helling has four all-conference performers but still is searching for a standout quarterback after losing Corey Colehour a year ago. Helling has a stellar end in Bill Predovich and hopes sophomore John Boyer or returnee Mike Connor can uncork the passing game to go with the running of Lud Fettig and newcomer Don Sessions, operating behind a strong line.

The biggest sleeper may be South Dakota State and all-everything Darwin Gonnerman is the reason. He led the league in rushing in 1967 and is the favorite this year, but Ralph Ginn, the dean of NCC coaches, starts his 22nd year looking for a solid passing quarterback to take the heat off Gonnerman.

Dewey Halford has a plus at Morningside. Like Stan Sheriff, he has a seasoned passing quarterback returning in Don Zeleznak. Also returning is fullback and field goal specialist Dan Gipple.

The NCC's most valuable back, Augustana quarterback Gary Sandbo, is gone and with him goes most of the Vikings' offensive threat. He's one of 18 lettermen lost and coach Jim Malmquist has the premier rebuilding job in the league.

Joe Salem's South Dakota Coyotes were injury-plagued last year and fell to the bottom of the barrel at 0-6. If Salem gets running back Bob Koch healthy, it could be a different story in 1968.

With the return of a strong nucleus, Southeast Missouri State College must be considered the favorite to repeat as MIAA champion this year. Southeast's dominance could be challenged, however, by improved elevens at Southwest Missouri State and Central.

Southeast's attack will be centered around all-conference halfback Walt Smallwood, the league's second best rusher, and fullback John Diepenbrock, the conference's leading pass receiver.

Southwest Missouri will return junior end Bob Journagan, the loop's second best pass receiver last year, and hard-running back Ardie McCoy, who was among top rushers in the '67 campaign.

The University of Missouri at Rolla, Northeast Missouri and Northwest Missouri should be improved with the return of several all-league selections. Rolla failed to win a conference game last season.

SWC, Knocked From Top 10 First Time In 13 Years, Aims To Restore Order

By LOU MAYSEL

Sports Editor, The Austin American-Statesman

A partial return to the old order of things should come to Southwest football this fall, after it experienced one of those topsy-turvy years when the once-poor brothers stepped up to the Cadillac class and the old rich had to draw on the banked glory of former years.

The Southwest Conference, long the bastion of successful football in the section, suddenly became one of the nation's depressed areas. Its eight members managed only a 7-17 intersectional record for the regular season and the only big conquest was the University of Texas' 9-7 defeat of Oklahoma, a setback that probably deprived the Sooners of the national voting championships conducted by the wire services.

TEXAS A&M, TEXAS TECH AND TEXAS all wound up with 6-4 report cards but A&M was the only one to do it with any style. The Aggies recovered from an 0-4 start and a season-opening league loss to SMU but still made it to the Southwest Conference championship the hard way.

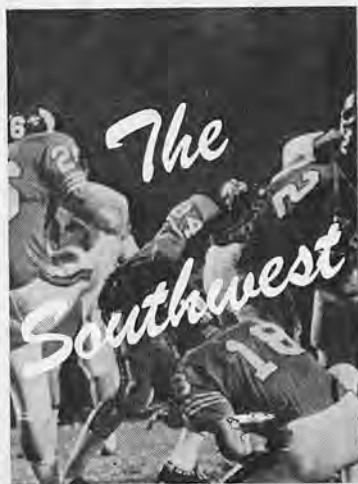

They rewarded Coach Gene Stallings with the first SWC title A&M had won since he was a player there for Bear Bryant in 1956 and then capped off the season with a 20-16 conquest of Bryant's Alabama worthies in the Cotton Bowl. Until then it was almost exclusively the year of the independents in the Southwest. Its four big freemen—Houston, University of Texas at El Paso (becoming a Rockies campaigner in '68), New Mexico State and West Texas State—cashed in for an aggregate 28-9-2 record.

Houston found itself denied bowl consideration because of NCAA probation, but UTEP and West Texas went on to holiday successes, the Miners conquering Ole Miss in the Sun Bowl, 14-7, and WTS cuffing San Fernando State in the Junior Rose Bowl, 35-13.

ALL FOUR HOPE TO REMAIN in the Cady class, but forecasters already see a revival of SWC power after the league failed to put a team among the top 10 for the first time in 13 years.

The Aggies are a prime possibility to repeat in the SWC and go to greater things because Stallings will be playing with much the same hand as in 1967. However, A&M won't be an odds-on favorite. Texas, which gave Darrell Royal his third straight 6-4 season, may finally have its house in order.

Both revitalized TCU and rebuilding

Lou Maysel is a veteran observer of the Texas sports scene. He's been sports editor of the Austin American-Statesman for the past 12 years and prior to that worked for the Waco Tribune-Herald, San Antonio Express and Corpus Christi Caller-Times.

A native of Austin, he was graduated from the University of Texas in 1949 with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism. During World War II he was a member of the Signal Corps attached to the Air Transport Command in Greenland.

Maysel has covered all major sports for the American-Statesman and is a particularly close follower of the Southwest Conference's always-exciting football races.

Arkansas have the wherewithal to contest for the title and Texas Tech and Rice, despite heavier personnel losses, are also possibilities. Not so SMU and Baylor, which seem to have monumental problems.

FEW COACHES have ever had lighter replacement problems than Stallings, who has only to find three offensive linemen and a defensive end to be back to full strength.

Big cogs for the Aggies will again be surehanded Edd Hargett and big-play linebacker Billy Hobbs, who handled seven interceptions in 1967.

Back to handle the running is Larry Stagent, last year's sophomore flash, and power-geared Wendell Housley. Tom Buckman is one of the SWC's best tight ends and Bob Long has few peers as a clutch receiver.

Hobbs is the hub of the veteran defense that features tackles Rolf Krueger and Harvey Aschenbeck and defensive backs Ross Brupbacher, Curley Hallman and Tommy Maxwell. Back too is booming punter Steve O'Neal.

TEXAS REPLACES SEVEN REGULARS but has the horses with which to do it. Royal is returning to a variation of the winged-T attack and he has perhaps his most impressive arsenal of backfield strength ever.

Chris Gilbert, who needs only 519 yards to reach the all-time SWC rushing record of 2,618 yards, will have his slithering runs supplemented by junior Ted Koy and rookie sensation Steve Worster, a pair of 205-pound fullbacks. Such sophomores as Pat Sheehan, Billy Dale, Johnny Robinson, Danny Lester and Fred Steinmark also may find places.

Bill Bradley has the temporary lock at quarterback, with James Street, Eddie Phillips and Monty Johnson providing tremendous depth.

Guard Danny Abbott and tight end Deryl Comer spark the offensive line and such defensive stalwarts as Mike Perrin, Mack McKinney, Loyd Wainscott, Corby Robertson and Glen Halsell form the defensive framework.

SPEED AND POWER RUNNING will be the chief TCU weapons. Hulking 215-pound backs Ross Montgomery and Norman Bulaich, split receiver Linzy Cole and Bubba Thornton all ran on the Frogs' sprint relay team this spring.

Coach Fred Taylor goes into his sophomore season with 14 regulars back, nine of them on defense. Late-blooming star Larry Adams will anchor the defensive line and backs Mike Hall and Billy Lloyd are top returnees.

Dan Carter should supply the quarterback spark the Frogs have lacked and guard James Ray and end Bill Ferguson are offensive mainstays.

Arkansas lost seven regulars off a team that matured a lot of sophomores but Coach Frank Broyles had to rebuild the defense and replace his quarterback. And the Razorbacks have only two games for soph Bill Montgomery, veterans John Eichler or Gordon Norwood to move in and master the pass-geared Arkansas offense before it meets TCU.

Halfback David Dickey and Max Peacock, now established at split end, give the Razorbacks their explosiveness. Guard Jim Barnes heads a veteran line that has tackle Jim Stanovich as its only newcomer. Defensive backs Gary Adams and Terry Stewart head the secondary.

RICE COUNTS ON QUARTERBACK Robby Shelton to bounce back from a year lost to injuries. If the 170-pound escape artist does, he'll minimize Coach Bo Hagan's second-season problems.

Split end Larry Davis, all-SWC tackle Leland Winston on offense and tackle Steve Bradshaw on defense should be the other Owl standouts. Dan Van Winkle and Gene Taubert are reliable backs and maturing Macon Hughes or speedy Larry Caldwell will help, too. Rice lost all its linebackers and newcomers Roger Roitsch and Paul Strahan must fill the void.

Texas Tech is replacing 10 starters and one side of the offensive line. Junior Joe Matulich solved the impending quarterback press late in the year and pulled the Raiders in for a second-place finish.

Sophomore David May has blazed onto the scene as the needed long-bomb threat and 215-pound Jackie Stewart is the league's top veteran fullback. Roger Freeman and Jimmy Bennett will be the halfbacks in J T King's split backfield array. Guard Don King and tackle Mike Patterson on offense and defensive tackle Jim Moylan, linebacker Dennis Lane and safety Larry Alford are some of the key Raider veterans.

SMU'S HAYDEN FRY HAS 12 STARTERS back but must find a quarterback. Whether it's redshirts Chuck Hixson, Wayne Delamater or George Mattingly, a JC transfer from Phoenix, he'll be blessed with all-SWC end Jerry Levias at the catching end.

Pony backs Mike Richardson and Pinky Clements can supply flashy plays and also will serve as catchers in the gaudy Mustang offense. End Harold Richardson and tackle Terry May on offense and linebacker Bruce Portillo are solid performers, but Fry is without a strong rookie crop.

Baylor Coach John Bridgers has 12 holes to fill and the all-important

UP, UP AND AWAY—Texas end Mack McKinney (42) soars like Superman in attempt to block field goal try by Texas A&M's Charlie Riggs. This boot did go wide of the goal posts, but later Riggs effort provided victory margin over Longhorns, 10-7.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT—Camera close-up records dastardly (but legal) design of Baylor defender David Anderson (86), who's trying to wrest ball from grasp of Rice Quarterback Robby Shelton. Owls barely survived such determined Bear raids during 27-25 duel.

quarterback spot is one of them. Alvin Flynn took hold in the spring but sophomores Steve Stuart and Laney Cook enter the fall as possibilities. Newcomer Derek Davis and Jerry Smith should be the Bears' chief receivers.

THE OFFENSIVE LINE, headed by tackle Richard Stevens, is the one strength. Bob Stephenson and Ted Gillum are also strong blockers and could help give Pinky Palmer, Brian Blessing, and Gene Rogers more running room than Baylor backs are accustomed to. The defense has lost most of its sparks except for safety Jackie Allen and is being rebuilt along monster-type lines.

Houston may have to rely on its defense, 10th best in the U.S. last year, during the early going, which includes a date with Texas, Sept. 21.

Bill Yeoman's Cougars lost many guns off the offense that led the nation in rushing. Alternate Ken Bailey moves up to lead quarterback and Paul Gipson, seventh rushing nationally, moves to halfback. Carlos Bell, 6-5, 225-pound basketball, is the new fullback and soph Elmo Wright joins speedy Calvin Achey as receivers. Tackle Bill Cloud is the main offensive line returnee but the defensive unit is veteran, including end Jerry Drones, tackle Jerry Gardner and backs Wade Phillips and Johnny Peacock.

NEW MEXICO STATE RETURNS 12 starters for new Coach Jim Wood, but their distribution leaves seven offensive holes. Junior Chuck Bertolina or transfer Howie Gay are the quarterback hopes. Jim Terrells, 216-pound newcomer who can burn 9.9, tops the running cast.

Other offensive standouts include tackle Rick Hackley and end Howard Taylor. Tackle Ruby Jackson (290), end Bill Ackman and linebacker Kelly Olive may help make it a year for the defense at NMS.

West Texas State shoots for national prominence with several offensive stars. These include quarterback Roy Winters, 12th nationally in total offense, and halfback Eugene "Mercury" Morris, who rushed for 1,274 yards. Coach Joe Kerbel also has a great fullback duo in Duane Thomas, a 220-pounder with 9.8 speed, and Albie "00" Owens. The offensive line averages over 235 with tackles A. Z. Drones and Larry Brazon the big men.

Grambling, outright champ in 1965 and 1967 and co-titlist in 1966, is still the team to beat in the Southwestern Conference. The Tigers lost 11 men but return with James Harris and Charlie Joiner, all-league quarterback and split end, respectively, plus a number of lettermen accustomed to winning.

Alcorn closed tough and could be that way again behind a stout defensive line. Perennial challengers Jackson State and Southern will be rugged again because they retained their quarterbacks, which means something in this loop.

Prairie View is experienced and could emerge as the darkhorse since it lost only four men. Texas Southern's bid for the title rests on the arm and foot of sophomore quarterback David Mays.

Arkansas will be hurting on offense because it lost scoring sensation Monk Williams and Don Evans. Wiley should continue to improve.

It's University of Texas at Arlington against the field in the 1968 Southland Conference football argument. The veteran Rebels have few gaps to plug for a third straight shot at the title. Back are All-SLC quarterback Mike Baylor, fullback Danny Griffin, end Jimmy Thomas and ace kicker Skipper Butler.

Arkansas State and Trinity will challenge UTA, but each has similar problems at quarterback. Arkansas State has quality in all-conference tackle Clovis Swinney and linebacker Bill Bergey and will go with soph quarterback Cecil LaGrone. If Trinity can settle on a quarterback early, the Tigers will make noise, especially if sprint star Clyde Glosson remains healthy.

Lamar Tech is hard hit at every place except tackle—Dick Cummins, 245; Ronnie Potts, 242; Ken Thompson, 253; and Ernie Hussman, 240. Abilene Christian has a new coach, Wally Bullington, and talent in linemen Joel Foster, Bob Oliver, George Cox, fullback Ken Smith and flanker Kent Lancaster.

Texas Miners Could Strike Gold Vein In First Season As Members Of WAC

By GEORGE FRANCO

Sports Writer, The Denver Post

A wild-and woolly windup to the Arizona State-University of Texas at El Paso match last fall just could have been the preview to this season's Western Athletic Conference football title chase.

The Sun Devils won that one, 33-32, on a touchdown off a busted pass play in the last second of play.

And since both A-State, a charter WAC member, and the UTEP Miners, who figure to make their debut an auspicious one, are liberally stocked with veterans, mountain-plain football filberts rate both top contenders.

Wyoming, winner of 10 straight WAC contests good for the past two league titles and holder of the nation's longest win streak of 14 until that was snapped by a narrow loss to Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl, apparently will have to go some to repeat.

ARIZONA AND BRIGHAM YOUNG likewise will have to come up with key replacements. New Mexico and Utah, which had enough troubles last season that they wound up losing coaches, will need time to get things in gear again. Rudy Feldman, the top aide at Colorado in recent seasons, is the new New Mexico head man and Bill Meek, ex-Kansas State, Houston and SMU boss and more recently Army assistant, will try his hand again at Utah.

Colorado State University also is a new WAC member and will be eligible for the title by having two non-loop games count in the standings.

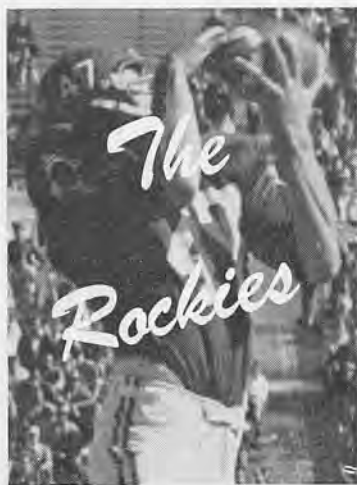

The Miners graduated a great passer—Billy Stevens—but still have a good one in Brooks Dawson and excellent receivers in flankers Volley Murphy and Dave Karns and tight end Ron Jones.

Coach Bobby Dobbs can field practically the same offensive line, too, so his problem is defense. Kicking will be handled by Jerry Waddles, who clicked on nine field goals in 1967.

A-STATE RETAINS QUARTERBACK Ed Roseborough and dangerous runners Art Malone, J. D. Hill and Larry Walton, plus much of the defense led by Ron Pritchard and Mike Kennedy.

For the third straight year, Wyoming will open without a regular quarterback. It sounds bad, but Coach Lloyd Eaton has the knack of coming up with the right replacements and he has 26 lettermen from whom to choose. One of these is all-WAC split end Gene Huey.

BYU has fine passer Marc Lyons, top

Sports fans who read the Denver Post regularly probably feel well-acquainted with George Franco, who has been a by-liner for the Colorado newspaper more than 25 years.

Franco has covered a wide range of sports during that time and in the early 1950s went through a six-year period as sports editor.

There are few sportsmen in the Rocky Mountains who know as much as Franco about the gridiron histories of major schools in the area. At one time or another he has reported on the athletic fortunes of the Air Force Academy, University of Wyoming, Colorado State University, and the University of Colorado. Along the way, he has made it to a few bowl games.

rusher Terry Sanford and linebacker Craig Bozich.

Carry-over of late-season improvement by quarterback Bruce Lee could be the key for Arizona. Flanker Wayne Edmonds, fullback David Barajas and linemen John Matishak and Frank Jenkins are other veteran standouts.

NEW MEXICO WILL count again on Terry Stone, the nation's top passer, and Ace Hendricks.

All-WAC end Norm McBride and quarterback Tim Collins, who was splitting starting duty at season's end, are the top returnees at Utah.

Colorado State U., with a new 30,000-seat stadium this fall, looks strong on defense, particularly in the secondary where rugged Bill Kishman roams. Top backs are Larry Jackson and Jerry Montiel.

INDEPENDENT UTAH STATE WELCOMES a new stadium (20,000 capacity), a full defensive unit, four offensive front-line performers and four crack backs — John Pappas, Altie Taylor, Frank Nunn and Mike O'Shea.

Limited experience but some of the best freshman prospects in history sums up the Air Force Academy situation. Quarterbacks are Steve Turner and Gary Baxter. Curtis Martin, a 5-10, 175-pounder, set all sorts of fresh rushing records and is almost a cinch to land a starting berth.

Prospects of the best-balanced race in the six-year history of the league, plus new coaches at three schools, forecast an exciting Big Sky season.

Defending champion Montana State, Idaho, Montana and Weber State all are conceded a chance for the 1968 championship.

Tom Parac replaces the highly successful Jim Sweeney at Montana State, Y. C. McNease assumes the reins at Idaho and Ed Cavanaugh at Idaho State.

Montana State returns all-league quarterback Dennis Erickson, flanker Ron Bain and fullback Ray Becky. Idaho has a veteran at nearly every position, including top receivers in Jerry Hendren and Jim Pearsall.

Montana, led by Little All-America linebacker Bob Beers, will have the league's best defense. The offense will hinge on replacements at fullback and quarterback. Weber State goes as a darkhorse because of the Tigers' ability to get talented JC recruits. Top returnee is passer Paul Waite.

Cavanaugh is counting on sophomores—ISU had the league's best freshman team—and JC transfers to revitalize the program at Idaho State. Joe Patrone, who kicked a 53-yard field goal in a frosh game, could gain national fame.

With all four squads returning large numbers of veterans, the last four-team Rocky Mountain Conference football race could be one of the best. Next season the new Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference will replace the present structure with 16 teams divided in two divisions.

Adams State and Colorado State College are favorites for the 1968 crown. ASC has a veteran club headed by quarterback Don McKillip, fullback Bill Rucinski, flanker Tony Giordano, split end Jim Paul and center Tom Kusleika. CSC's top hands are quarterback Dave Pedersen, running backs Mickey Holmes, Don Millwood, Murray Kula, safety Jack O'Brien, center Ron Klatt and line-backer Randy Thomason.

Western State could make it interesting with halfback Charlie Hall, end Frank Henn, center Herman Cordova and QB Mark Drake. Colorado Mines lost only seven lettermen and still has QBs Jay Lombardi and Dennis Ulrich.

"Sock-It-To-'Em" Beavers Are Capable Of Going From Giant Killers To Giants

By JOE HENDRICKSON

Sports Editor, The Pasadena Independent Star News

National champions never are dethroned until the fighting starts. When the University of Southern California is the team in question, this is doubly true. No preview of prospects in the Pacific Eight can begin without recognizing Johnny McKay's winners of seven 1967 national awards plus individual citations that totaled 22 for O. J. Simpson alone.

However, McKay has had to rebuild considerably for this campaign, having lost seven defensive regulars and four offensive starters. True, he still has Simpson, the unstoppable man. But 10 of 19 lettermen who will be missing were so good they were drafted by the professionals. Five went in the first round of 26. Big offensive tackle Ron Yary was the No. 1 pick.

THE MOST LOGICAL CANDIDATE to knock USC out of a third straight trip to the Rose Bowl is Oregon State, the only team to beat USC last year. The Giant Killers of 1967 aim to become the Giants of 1968. Only five regulars are gone and Dee Andros, the colorful "Great Pumpkin," has his hardstriking backfield intact—quarterback Steve Preece, fullback "Earthquake Bill" Enyart, wingback Bill Main and halfback Don Summers.

If the Beavers could bump off USC, Purdue and five others last year while tying UCLA to finish seventh nationally in the Associated Press poll, they deserve at least co-favorite billing with the Trojans. If Oregon State didn't have to play the big one with USC on Trojan soil, the Coliseum, on Nov. 16, it would be logical perhaps to put it on top right now.

The top challengers to this pair should be UCLA, Washington, California and Stanford. A third group consists of Oregon and Washington State; Oregon hopeful with 37 men back from last year's hazing; Washington State enthusiastic because it has a new coach with fighting spirit, Jim Sweeney.

BECAUSE OREGON STATE will invade Iowa City Sept. 21 with more title hope than any team on the West Coast, let us probe first the reasons for this high expectancy. That backfield, of course, should be all-powerful. Rollout and pitchout expert Preece comes back with a year of experience in running Andros' attack.

Except for Gary Houser and Dave Marlette being gone, the same men will be clearing the way, led by center John Didion. Jon Sandstrom again will be a pillar at defensive guard and Jess Lewis will be an immovable object at defensive tackle. Both made All-America last year. Ron Boley at defensive tackle is another of Andros' strong boys.

IF ANDROS HAS any worry besides his trip to USC, it is looking for a punter and kicker. He also needs receivers. Otherwise, he has just about everything.

McKay has everything also—at least in one man, the incomparable Simpson, who rushed for 1,415 yards last year, averaging 5.3 while scoring 13 touchdowns. O.J. also caught 10 passes and threw three completions in six tries. He is Heisman timber, the perfect runner—strong, fast, elusive, spirited, tireless, durable. He averages 30 carries a game, and most opposing teams average twice that many missed tackles trying to bring him down.

WORRYING MCKAY IS THE POSSIBILITY flanker Jim Lawrence, who injured his knee late last season, could get sidelined once he tries contact football this autumn after a spring workout as a trackman. McKay also doesn't know if quarterback Steve Sogge, who came through at that position last season, will pass up football. If Sogge doesn't return, he has big, long-throwing but not-so-nimble afoot Mike Holmgren to direct the attack.

Dick Allmon at center, Steve Lehmer at guard, Dan Scott at fullback, ends Bob Klein and Bob Miller and Mike Battle in the punt return department aim to play important offensive roles. On defense, Jim Snow will be the No. 1 linebacker, Jim Gunn will be gunning at end and tall linemen Tony Terry and Bill Hayhoe will try to rise up and block some more kicks. Coming up from the freshman team is promising tailback Mike Berry.

THAT FRUIT JUICE FELLA, All-America O. J. Simpson of Southern California, is under way for yardage against UCLA in game the Trojans won, 21-20, for Rose Bowl bid. Pursuing Bruins at right are linebackers Mike Ballou (57) and Don Manning.

TAKING THE HIGH ROAD, Oregon's Claxton Welch sails over goal-line road jam set up by his blocking teammates and Oregon State defenders, of whom only OSU's Mark Waletich (27) is identifiable. It was Webfeet's only touchdown in 14-10 setback.

Jim Owens, once the big winner in the Pac Eight, has some reason for believing his Washington team will bounce into contention this autumn.

THE ENTIRE HUSKY BACKFIELD is returning, including quarterback Tom Manke, a good runner and a dangerous man with the bomb. Two of his favorite targets, speedy Jim Cope and Harrison Wood, hope to get past the defenses again. Other dangerous backs include Harvey Blanks, Gerald Wea, Carl Wojciechowski, Gary James and Jim McCabe. Up front, tight end Jeff Huget, guard Jim Harris and center Bob Schoepper will clear the path.

Washington will have to improve defensively to get into the race. Men expected to figure in this tightening job are guards Mike Maggart, Rick Sharp, ends Otis Washington, Clyde Werner, linebacker George Jugum and backs Al Worley, Dan Spriesterbach, Dave DuPree, Bill Sprinkle, Bob Berg.

UCLA's Tommy Prothro must do quite a rebuilding job to maintain his ever presence in the title-bidding circle. He lost six of seven offensive line starters plus Heisman winner Gary Beban, his bread-and-butter quarterback, along with six defensive starters.

THE BACKFIELD WILL FEATURE halfback Greg Jones, fullback Rick Purdy, and the receiving unit will headline trackmen Don Copeland and Harold Busby. Defensive stalwarts are Mark Gustafson in the secondary and Hal Griffin and Larry Agajanian up front. Linebacker Mike Ballou and defensive end Kim Griffith are tough, too. From the frosh squad, UCLA fans are waiting to see what heralded All-American prep halfback Mickey Cureton can cure.

In the Bay Area, Stanford and California could emerge at any time. Ray Willsey, who finally got over the Stanford hurdle in last year's Big Game, now hopes to finish first in the title race. He has 29 lettermen back and about 10 good freshmen from the undefeated Bear frosh team. Willsey can count on veterans at every position. In addition to such experienced backs as Randy Humphries at QB, leading rusher Paul Williams, John McGaffie, Gary Fowler, a frosh star, and Bob Darby will add speed.

The Cal offensive line will miss only center John Frantz. Guards Dan Ryan and Jerome Champion, tackles Duane Mayfield and Mike Meers, ends Wayne Stewart and Jim Calkins will be helped by rookies Bob Richards, a 250-pound tackle, guard Steve Sawin and center Doug Johnson.

BULWARKS ON DEFENSE are Mike McCaffrey and Irby Augustine at ends, Ed White in the middle plus Ken Wiedemann in the deep secondary and linebackers Dennis Pitta, Jerry Woods and Travis Tatum.

John Ralston won't relinquish Bay Area supremacy without a struggle. He has 31 lettermen back, including Gene Washington, a real threat as a pass receiver. George Buehler, the power tight end, is ready to throw his weight around again. Malcolm Snider looks like a whale of an offensive tackle, and nobody will have a better-driving fullback than Greg Broughton. The big names on the defensive unit are expected to be linebacker Andy Carrigan, halfback Dick Oliver and end Don Parish.

Stanford's running game will try to explode Nate Kirtman and Howie Williams plus Broughton. Jack Schultz, up from the frosh, is a workhorse runner. Another 1967 frosh, Don Bunce, a quarterback, is ready to become a star, many in Palo Alto believe. Bunce came from Beban's high school league and broke many of his prep records. Mark Marquess and Jim Plunkett rate ahead of Bunce on experience in the QB race, however.

OREGON TOOK ITS LUMPS LAST YEAR, but sophomore Coach Jerry Frei believes the 2-8 days are over. The Ducks have 28 lettermen on hand, losing only five starters from the offense and defense combined.

Quarterback Tom Blanchard had to bow out in mid-season last campaign to get a knee patched up. If his knee holds up, he could lead the club to a comeback. Carrying the mail will be Jim Evenson, Claxton Welch, Alan Pitcaithley and a newcomer, Rocky Pamplin.

The defensive platoon will be led by George Dames, who proved last year that everybody loves a Dames. He was picked by every opposing coach as the best defensive lineman (middle guard) that they had faced. The freshman team is contributing two sprinters at end—Bob Newland and Greg Lindsey, clocked at 9.7 and 9.6 for the 100-yard dash.

In Cougar country, they are counting on the Irish, the jolly Sweeney who left Montana State to seek his fortune in the wheat fields of eastern Washington. Sweeney starts with a schedule that he can live with, good backs and veteran material on both offense and defense.

THE BACKS ARE Del Carmichael, Glen Shaw, Larry Thatcher and Mark Williams. Experienced quarterbacks are Jerry Henderson and Hank Grenda.

Sweeney will play a runbased offense off the I formation. He promises to put the ball into the air. Above all, the Cougars will hit. Sweeney was a boxer once. He understands how important sock is.

The Cougars think they may have the best center on the West Coast in Dave Harris, 215 pounds of mobility under 10 seconds. Veteran linemen on offense also include Dave Golinsky, Bruce Abbott and Bill McCain. Defensive giants include Wayne Swayda, Steve Van Sinderen, Jim Guinn, Jim Vest, Steve Bartelle, Gregg Field, Rick Reed, Steve Shoun, Lee Omlid.

IN INDEPENDENT CIRCLES, THE BIG NEWS is that undefeated San Diego State, annually the CCAA winner, will go "independent." Coach Don Coryell's Aztecs will attempt to defend their "college division" championship by playing a rugged schedule that includes Utah State and Southern Mississippi plus old local rivals. End Fred Dryer is being boomed for All-America honors. The attack will be built around fullback Lloyd Edwards, tailback Mac Dillingham and JC All-American Harry Benjamin.

San Jose State, coached by Harry Anderson, hopes to get back on the winning trail, the defense led by Al Saunders and Steve Alexakos, the offense depending upon senior quarterback Russ Munson who has lived in the shadow of Danny Holman until now. George Oreglia is another QB hope. End John Crivello has gained an extra year of eligibility and should become a leading receiver.

Veteran Santa Barbara Coach Jack Curtice has hopes for better than his past 5-5 season. His son, Jimmy, will bid for the quarterback job. Key linemen include Dick Heinz, Brock Arner, Rich Becker and Steve Young. The attack will feature Tom Broadhead, ends Frank Michaelson and Doug Barker, and fullbacks Jimmy Rogers, Loren Shumer.

Santa Clara will have a rebuilding year under Pat Malley, northern California coach-of-the-year who had an 8-1 season. Quarterback Ray Calcano's loss will hurt. Big gainers should be Darryl Stowers, Dave McFarland and Bob Rickard. Top linemen include Mike Antonelli and linebackers John Rickard and Steve Stanich. A veteran defensive backfield raises hopes.

College of Pacific was 4-5 last year. Doug Scovil's team lost some key men, but it has many returning, including quarterback Rand Bergstrom. Tony Plummer and Cal Rogers are rated top runners, while sprinter Jack Morrison and tall Roger Leonard should give receiving strength.

With the resignation of San Diego State College, 1967 champion of the CCAA, this season's championship will be hotly contested by San Fernando State, Long Beach State and Fresno State, all tied for second last year.

Long Beach will be the top challenger to take over the number one spot with some 25 members of last season's squad returning, led by the second quarterback of the league in 1967, Dave Merrill and his favorite passing target, All-CCAA Bill Parks. Parks led the CCAA in receptions last year.

San Fernando will have some 30 returnees led by fullback Mike Vogel, who chalked up 563 yards on the ground last season.

Fresno State will look to Ron Hudson to replace Danny Robinson, quarterback who graduated. The Bulldogs will have 24 returnees led by Lloyd Madden, who as a sophomore was the team's top rusher, pass receiver and scorer. John Stahl, All-CCAA offensive tackle, also is back.

Cal Poly (SLO) is expected to come to life under a new coach, Richard Harper, formerly a line coach at the University of Colorado. CP has 29 returnees led by all-league defensive lineman Dale Creighton.

Halfback Les White, who averaged 5.0 yards a try on the ground last year, and kicker Harold Serkin, leader of the CCAA with a 40.8 yard average, will be bright spots for Los Angeles State, along with All-CCAA end Mike Anderson and defensive guard John Deschler.

Cal Poly of Pomona is expected to improve on last year's 2-8 record.

Far Western Conference coaches will be searching for quarterbacks in 1968 pre-season drills. Every starting quarterback in the league is gone, including national (college division) total offense champion Bob Toledo of San Francisco State and forward passing titlist Joe Stetser of Chico State.

San Francisco State, defending conference champ, was almost wiped out by graduation, losing 19 of 22 starters. Sacramento State, Humboldt State and UC Davis were also hit hard.

Bernie Oliver, sixth in the nation in rushing, will be back as a sophomore to make Cal State Hayward a championship contender. An exciting runner, Oliver was overshadowed by the passing heroics of Toledo and Stetser in 1967. He ended with a total of 1,115 rushing yards.

The SCIAC is looking forward to another exciting season similar to last year's race which wasn't decided until the final day of the campaign.

Defending champion Whittier is the team to beat. The Poets, coached by John Godfrey, have eight offensive starters back, including halfback Ross Stewart, the conference's leading rusher last year.

Occidental is looking forward to a big year with quarterback Bruce Berger, flanker Steve Auerbach, halfback Gene Moore and tackle John St. John.

Redlands was hit hard by graduation but Coach Frank Serrao still has 14 regulars back, including defensive end Ted Hedgpeth and flanker Greg Keller. Pomona's hopes rest with sophomore quarterback Eric Miller and the return of injured end Tim Gafney.

Claremont-Mudd is hoping for better things under new mentor John Zinda and veteran quarterback Robin Jarvi, who engineered the amazing upset over Whittier last season. Cal Tech eyes an end to a long losing streak with an improved squad led by quarterback Tom Burton.

32 SKIDDOO, gestures Southern California's elusive O. J. (Orange Juice) Simpson, as he strides by Indiana's Mike Baughman and Dave Kornova (14) during 1968 Rose Bowl classic. Trojans affirmed national title status, whipping Hoosiers, 14-3.

Heartbreak, Drama And Confirmation Of A Champion Enthrall Bowl Patrons

By TED SMITS

General Sports Editor, The Associated Press

There was heartbreak and high drama in the 1967-68 college football bowl games. The son of a refugee from Communist East Germany missed a 43-yard field goal by two feet that would have turned the score around in the Orange Bowl. A beaten coach carried the winning coach off the field in the Cotton Bowl. The most talked of player in America more than lived up to his laurels in the Rose Bowl. A coach took a monumental chance in the Gator Bowl and laid himself open to widespread second guessing. A substitute halfback shattered an unbeaten team's dream in the Sugar Bowl.

But one thing was established beyond argument. Southern California was truly national champion. The Trojans, with their fabulous O.J. Simpson, disposed of Indiana, 14-3, before 102,946 in the Rose Bowl.

INDIANA, CO-CHAMPION OF THE BIG TEN, had never played before in the Rose Bowl. Before the season started it was as lightly regarded as any team in the land. Its Cinderella rise to the top raised the hopes of partisans that somehow it might crown a surprising season by tripping up the No. 1 giant. But this was not to be and the reason for it was spelled Simpson. He sliced and slashed his way through the Hoosier defense for 128 yards and both of his team's touchdowns.

Coach John Pont of Indiana summed it up:

"Southern California, with Simpson, is the national champion. You could give Simpson to some of the teams we played and then they'd be best."

Simpson scored in the first and third periods, and Indiana made its field goal, a 27-yard effort by Dave Kornowa, in the second. The Hoosiers launched a drive in the fourth—as they had done in almost all of their games all season—but on a crucial series sophomore Harry Gonso limped off with an injured ankle, and although he came back two plays later, momentum was gone.

IT WAS ANOTHER STORY in the Cotton Bowl where 75,504 purchased tickets and all but 2,000 showed up despite cold rain. Alabama was favored over Texas A&M. After all, hadn't Aggie coach Gene Stallings learned all his football playing for Bear Bryant at Texas A&M, and later as his assistant? Ken TATTERED AND TORN but undistracted, Colorado's Wilmer Cooks bores ahead between blocks by William Harris and Mike Pruett (84) and past Missouri linebacker John Douglas (36). Buffs won, 23-9, enroute to eventual Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

Stabler, who scored both Alabama touchdowns, plunged three yards to climax an 80-yard drive for the first score, but moments later Tommy Maxwell intercepted one of Stabler's passes—three in all were intercepted during the afternoon—and Edd Hargett passed 13 yards to Larry Stegent for the tying touchdown.

ALABAMA WENT AHEAD AGAIN in the second period when Steve Davis kicked a 36-yard field goal. Only 21 seconds before the end of the half the Aggies took the lead, 13-10, when Hargett connected again with Maxwell in the end zone. The Aggies stowed the victory away in the third period with Wendell Housley's running a key factor in a 52-yard drive. Housley scored on a 20-yard dash. Alabama came back with an 83-yard drive, Stabler scoring, but the Aggies still led, 20-16, and the game ended that way.

Bryant was quick to congratulate his protege. In fact he hoisted Stallings onto his shoulders and carried him off the field, as Stallings beamed: "He's a strong scamp, isn't he?"

IN THE ORANGE BOWL, 77,993 turned out to see Tennessee, ranked No. 2 nationally, and Oklahoma, ranked No. 3, battle under floodlights. Tennessee was favored by one touchdown, but Oklahoma won, 26-24, in a game that ended in the highest possible football tension.

Oklahoma, leading, 19-0, at the half, had seen its margin eroded until it clung to a 26-24 advantage. The Sooners missed a first down by inches on their 44. Tennessee charged downfield and with 14 seconds left sent in Karl Kremser, a frail, soccer-style kicker who was the son of a refugee from behind the Iron Curtain. He had made 10 of 15 field goal tries during the season, but with the ball held down on the 43-yard line he missed by only a couple of feet what would have put Tennessee on top, 27-26.

What in the end became the winning touchdown was scored at the start of the last quarter when Bob Stephenson, a fleet defensive back, grabbed off one of Dewey Warren's passes and ran 25 yards to score.

Bob Warmack, known as "The Worm" because of his elusive qualities, led Oklahoma on touchdown drives of 68, 87, and 73 yards in the first half to threaten a runaway. Tennessee fought back with two touchdowns at the start of the second half, Kremser kicked a 25-yard field goal, and with only four minutes left Tennessee drove 77 yards to narrow the gap to two points. Warren scored that time from the three. But the two points stood up despite Kremser's brilliant effort.

There was another fourth down try that failed in a big bowl game and this was one of the most surprising of all.

Penn State started out like a house afire in the Gator Bowl before 68,019, leading Florida State, 17-0, at the half. In the third period with the score still the same, Penn State coach Joe Paterno let his team try for a first down from its own 15 with a scant foot or so to go. The Nittany Lions failed and from that point on Florida State took charge.

Kim Hammond passed to Ron Sellers for a touchdown, and scored a few moments later from the one after Florida State had recovered a Penn State fumble. Fifteen seconds from the end, Grant Guthrie kicked a 25-yard field goal for a 17-17 tie and a Florida State moral triumph.

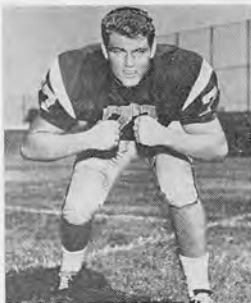

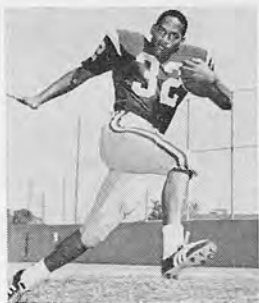

WYOMING WENT INTO THE SUGAR BOWL with a spotless record and dreaming of an unbeaten year. It looked all too possible as Wyoming led Louisiana State, 13-0, at the half before a crowd of 78,963. Then LSU came to life, fired up by Nelson Stokley, a veteran quarterback, and Glenn Smith, a substitute halfback. Smith, who gained 74 yards in the game, scored LSU's first touchdown on a one-yard plunge and Tommy Morel scored the other two on passes from Stokley, the final and decisive one for 14 yards.

In the Sun Bowl in El Paso, 34,685 saw the University of Texas-El Paso defeat Mississippi, 14-7, on the passing of Billy Stevens and the running of Larry McHenry. The decisive touchdown was scored after Fred Carr, the big Texas middle linebacker, jarred Bo Bowen loose from the ball on the Mississippi 22, and McHenry carried it over in four running plays.

IN THE BLUEBONNET BOWL in Houston, as 30,156 watched, Bob Anderson, a sophomore, pulled Colorado from behind twice in the second half and gave the Buffaloes a thrilling victory over Miami of Florida, 31-21. Anderson had been kept out of the game because of a sprained ankle, and when he went in, Miami was leading, 14-10. He sparked an 80-yard drive and scored himself from the two, and then, after Miami had gone ahead again, 21-17, he ran 38 yards down the sideline for the winning touchdown.

The Liberty Bowl in Memphis drew 35,045 to see North Carolina State outlast Georgia, 14-7. Twice Georgia was stopped on the North Carolina State goal line in the waning minutes. Tony Barchuk scored the winning touchdown for North Carolina State in the fourth period by plunging over from one yard out after a 73-yard drive.

For First Time Since Thorpe's Year, A-A Backfield Picked By Acclamation

Compiled by National Collegiate Sports Services

In a year of riots, boycotts and general dissents, about the only thing everyone seemed to agree on was the makeup of the 1967 consensus All-America team. A record-tying eight players were unanimous picks by the national selectors, and seven others on the 22-man, two-platoon squad missed by just one vote of making everyone's team.

Incredibly, it was the first time since 1912 that all four backfield choices were unanimous selections. And what a quartet they were: Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban of UCLA, and the three players who finished second through fourth in the voting behind him—rushing champion O. J. Simpson of Southern California, scoring king Leroy Keyes of Purdue and Syracuse's Larry Csonka, who gained 2,934 yards rushing in his career.

THE OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD WAS ALSO the heaviest in All-American history—206 pounds per man—and combined for more running-passing yards (6,610) than any previous foursome except the 1965 backfield of Bob Griese of Purdue, Donny Anderson of Texas Tech, Mike Garrett of Southern California and Jim Grabowski of Illinois, which accounted for 7,087 yards.

For the record, the 1912 unanimous backfield consisted of Jim Thorpe, then winding up his college career at Carlisle, Harvard's Charley Brickley, Brown's George Crowther and LeRoy Mercer of Pennsylvania.

The other four unanimous choices on the 79th annual team ranged in size from 6-foot-7 end Ted Hendricks of Miami (Fla.) to 5-11 guard Granville Liggins of Oklahoma and included such weighty players as tackle Ron Yary (245) of Southern Cal and center Bob Johnson (232) of Tennessee.

FOUR JUNIORS (TWICE AS MANY AS 1966) made the 1967 consensus team—Keyes, Simpson, Hendricks and offensive end Ron Sellers of Florida State. And both juniors on the first team in 1966—Yary and middle guard Wayne Meylan of Nebraska—again landed first-team berths.

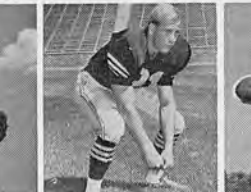

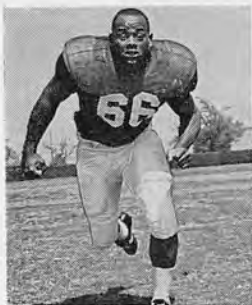

Of the 46 players (from 32 schools) receiving at least one first-team vote, four represented national champion Southern California, the most by any one team. Notre Dame and UCLA gained three spots each.

Other Trojan choices, in addition to Simpson and Yary, were defensive end Tim Rossovich and linebacker Adrian Young.

Notre Dame players honored were defensive back Tom Schoen, end Jim Seymour and defensive tackle Kevin Hardy. Teammates of UCLA's Beban on the squad were linebacker Don Manning and tackle Larry Slagle.

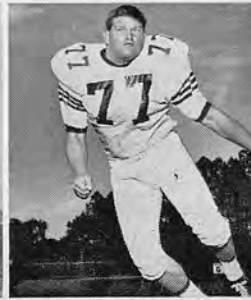

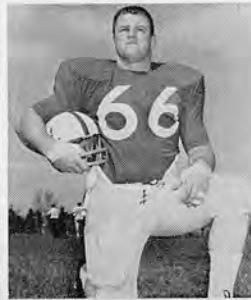

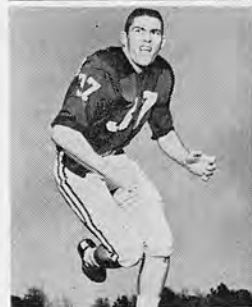

THE SEVEN PLAYERS WHO MISSED being unanimous picks by just one vote were Young, Schoen, and end Dennis Homan of Alabama, tackle Ed Chandler of Georgia and guard Rich Stotter of Houston on offense and tackle Dennis Byrd of N. C. State and back Frank Loria of Va. Tech on defense.

Two schools made the All-America roster for the first time—Toledo and the University of Texas at El Paso—with linebackers Tom Beutler and Fred Carr, respectively. Their selections boosted the roster to 1052 players from 108 schools who have been first-team selections on one or more of the nationally recognized All-America teams since 1936.

With its three players honored, Notre Dame upped its country-high total to 64 picks over the last 32 years, while Oklahoma, which gained two spots on the 1967 roster (Liggins and offensive guard Bob Kalsu) climbed into third place with 34 selections. Army is second with 39.

MAJOR-COLLEGE STATISTICS

Defending Champions O.J., Keyes Have Lot In Common, Including Challengers

By LARRY KLEIN

Associate Director, National Collegiate Sports Services

[Approximately 115 college football teams, which play most of their games against each other, are classified as "major-college" or University Division teams. They represent the field of so-called "big-time" college football as judged by class of competition rather than seasonal strength. The football teams of all other four-year, accredited NCAA-member colleges comprise the College Division field. An official list is issued annually each September.]

They grew up on opposite coasts, but they have an awful lot in common. Both own long, sissified names (Orenthel James Simpson and Marvin Leroy Keyes) that have been mercifully shortened (to O.J. and Leroy). Both got off to slow starts in life. (Keyes didn't walk till he was three years old in Newport News, Va. Simpson was in the fourth or fifth grade in San Francisco before he found out what O.J. stood for.) Both boast size, speed, power, balance and all the other explosive assets that helped make them All-America halfbacks as juniors last season.

Larry Klein

AND BOTH HAVE NATIONAL statistics championships (O.J. rushing, Leroy scoring) to defend this fall—against awesome lists of challengers. In fact, 18 of last season's top 25 finishers in both scoring and rushing return this season.

For starters, Keyes of Purdue must withstand the pressures of all four players who finished second through fifth in the point race last fall: Toledo's Roland Moss and Arkansas' David Dickey, both now seniors, and a pair of present juniors named Butch Colson of East Carolina and Don Abbey of Penn State.

His 114 points enabled 6-foot-3, 198-pound Keyes to become the first Big Ten player to win the national scoring title since Michigan's Tommy Harmon in 1939 and '40. No other major collegian has won the title twice.

IN RUSHING, TWO MAJOR COLLEGIANS have won a pair of championships each (Arizona's Art Luppino in 1954-55 and New Mexico State's Jim Pilot in 1961-62), and Simpson of Southern California could be the third if he approaches his 1966 performance. The junior-college transfer from San Francisco City College used his 9.4 speed and 6-1, 203-pound power to gain 1415 yards rushing in only 8½ games (he sat out a full game and a half because of a sprained instep).

Put another way, Simpson averaged 166.5 rushing yards per game—a rate higher than that of 62 entire major teams last season.

Based on the 1967 finish, Simpson's strongest competition can come from a record six returnees who rushed for more than 1000 yards each: runnerup Eugene (Mercury) Morris of West Texas State, Colson, Houston's Paul Gipson, Clemson's Buddy Gore, Texas' Chris Gilbert and Michigan's Ron Johnson. All are now seniors except junior Colson.

And don't forget Keyes, especially if he concentrates more on rushing. He did everything but punt, winning the all-purpose running race with 986 yards rushing, 758 yards receiving and 126 yards returning kicks and interceptions. He totaled 1870 yards to 1700 by runnerup Simpson.

Though they're the most talked-about, Simpson and Keyes are just two of last year's champions returning to defend their crowns. There are six in all, the most in any season since the seven of 1960.

The other four, with their categories and closest competitors:

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA SENIOR Mike Battle, punt returns. He beat Vic Washington of Wyoming by a mere five yards—the smallest winning margin ever—and again must duel Washington, if the 1966 champion returns.

New Mexico senior Terry Stone, passing. His 160 completions are 39 more than compiled by the closest returnee, Columbia's Marty Domres, who finished ninth last season. Right behind come Steve Ramsey of North Texas State, Mike Phipps of Purdue and Frank Patrick of Nebraska.

North Carolina State senior Gerald Warren, kick-scoring. Warren's coach, Earle Edwards, predicted prior to the season: "Once he gets that first field goal, he'll do a fine job for us." It was a master understatement. Chemical engineering major Warren found the right formula and kicked more field goals in a season (17) than any other collegian in history.

THE CLOSEST RETURNEE TO Warren in kick-scoring is third-place Zenon Andrusyshyn, a Canadian javelin-thrower who also won the punting title with an average of 44.2 yards per kick as a UCLA sophomore last season. Others back with better than 42-yard averages are Eddie Ray of Louisiana State, Tom Galloway of U. Texas El Paso, Kansas State's Bob Coble and Steve O'Neal of Texas A&M.

The highest-ranked returnees in the other four categories are Phipps in total offense (third) and Southerners Ron Sellers of Florida State in pass receptions (fourth), Dave Strong of Vanderbilt in kickoff returns (second) and Ron Davidson of Virginia Tech in interceptions (second).

'67 Season Individual Leaders

Their won-lost records were decidedly different, but 7-2-1 New Mexico State and 1-9-0 New Mexico did have something in common in 1967: Each produced its first national statistics champion in a given category.

New Mexico State senior quarterback Sal Olivas won the total-offense title, while New Mexico junior quarterback Terry Stone won the pass-completions title. And neither had an easy time of it.

Olivas, a 6-1, 200-pound native of El Paso, Tex., didn't take over the lead until the second-to-last week, and he finished just 110 yards ahead of runnerup Kim Hammond of Florida State. Only once in the previous nine years did a major collegian win by fewer rushing-passing yards.

Stone, a hometown boy from Albuquerque (and a transfer from Baylor), underwent knee surgery last summer but showed little ill effects. He threw a country-high of 336 passes and completed 160 to 157 by Jimmy Poole of Davidson. It was the fourth time in the last six years that a player has won by three or less completions.

On a career basis, senior quarterback Billy Stevens of U. Texas El Paso smashed four major-college records—pass attempts (943), passing yards (6495), touchdown passes (51) and total-offense plays (1091)—and finished fourth on the all-time career ladder with 5704 rushing-passing yards.

Another senior quarterback, Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban of UCLA, finished sixth on the career total-offense ladder with 5197 yards.

Wyoming's Paul Toscano and North Texas State's Steve Ramsey shared top honors by rushing and passing for 134 points each, but nobody worked as hard as Texas junior Bill Bradley. He handled the ball on 416 plays.

In the tightest pass-receiving race (two catches separating the top three players) since 1953's triple tie, Vanderbilt senior Bob Goodridge vaulted from fifth place to first by catching 13 passes in his final game.

On the all-time career list, Brigham Young's Phil Odle climbed to second in receptions with 183 to 261 by Tulsa's Howard Twilley, and to third in receiving yardage with 2548 to Twilley's 3343 (from 1963 through 1965) and 2882 by U. Texas El Paso's Chuck Hughes (1964-66).

18 points was the biggest in five years, and for only the second time in 10 years the national scoring championship went to a player who didn't collect a single point after touchdown.

O. J. Simpson's rushing championship was the second in three years for Southern California. Hard-working Trojan Mike Garrett won in 1965 with 1440 yards. He's the only major collegian in 16 years to have topped Simpson's 1415 total. O.J. rushed for 94 yards in his varsity opener, then reached at least 150 yards in every full game afterward.

The 1967 season wasn't played just for kicks, but it certainly seemed that way. Major collegians collectively kicked more field goals (553) in more attempts (1261) than in any previous season.

North Carolina State's Gerald Warren won the kick-scoring crown with 70 points, four more than defending champion Jerry DePoyster, a Wyoming senior who consoled himself with three collegiate career marks: most field-goal attempts (93) and made (36) and most kick points (182).

No matter what your feelings about the now-rescinded punt rule, the change obviously pleased the punt-return specialists. They ran back punts 46 per cent farther in 1967 than in 1966 (67.7 to 46.4 yards per game, both teams combined). This was the highest average since 1947.

Similarly, the number of punts (12.9) and punt returns (6.8) per game also represented 20-year highs.

Not surprisingly, a few individual stars entered the stratosphere, too. Three major collegians rolled up more than 500 punt-return yards each—Southern California's Mike Battle (570), Wyoming's Vic Washington (565) and Houston's Don Bean (522)—compared with a total of only three who reached that select circle over the previous 17 years combined.

Other return winners were seniors Steve Haterius of West Texas State in interceptions (11) and New Mexico's Joe Casas in kickoffs (602 yards).

'67 Season

Team Leaders

What a difference a year makes. In 1966, nine different teams won the nine principal major-college statistics championships in a perfect example of sharing the wealth. In 1967, two Texas independents and two Big Eight members practically monopolized the team races by winning eight of the nine principal championships. The laurels lineup looked like this:

HOUSTON—The Cougars, who had never won a team title until 1966 (total offense), made up for lost time with three in 1967. They won in rushing and punting and repeated in total offense, edging Purdue by 4.3 rushing-passing yards per game—the smallest winning margin since 1949.

U. TEXAS EL PASO—The Miners had never won either of the two titles they took in '67: scoring offense (with the fifth lowest winning rate in the last 26 years) and passing offense (with the third highest average ever). Tulsa finished second in passing after establishing a stranglehold on that championship for an unprecedented five consecutive years.

While the Texans were offensive, the Big Eighters were defensive.

NEBRASKA—The Cornhuskers also took two titles they'd never owned before—total defense and pass defense—in contrasting fashion. Their per-game allowance of 157.6 rushing-passing yards was the lowest by a major in four seasons, but their per-game allowance of 90.1 air yards was 19.7 yards a game more than any previous pass-defense champion ever gave up.

OKLAHOMA—The surprising Sooners earned their 9-1 record by winning what many believe is the most important statistics category: scoring defense. Their yield of 6.8 points a game was the most ever by a champion, but Oklahoma's victory took the title out of the South for only the third time in the last 13 seasons.

WYOMING—Just two teams in the previous 19 years gave up less rushing yards a game than the Cowboys did in 1967 (42.3). They were Syracuse in 1959 (19.3) and Wyoming itself in 1966 (38.5). The 10-0 Cowboys also finished the regular season as the nation's only unbeaten major team.

1967 Harvest Of 20 New Records Will Be Tough For '68 Star Crop To Match

By STEVE SIRIANNI

National Collegiate Sports Services

After 1967's assault on the individual record book, which produced no less than 20 new single-game or season marks, college-division football players will have a tough act to follow in 1968.

Steve Sirianni

Gone are the pair of California record-wreckers—total offense champion Bob Toledo of San Francisco State and pass completions king Joe Stetser of Chico State—who accounted for 10 of the records.

AND HEADING the returning challengers for their vacated crowns, is a player from a section of the country—the South—which has never won the total offense title and whose only completions champion was crowned in 1946.

He's Larry Tillman of Murray State (Ky.), a 5-foot-9 senior who finished third in passing and fourth in total offense last season.

But if 1967 form holds, Tillman can expect rugged competition from Ed Gorman of Portland State, Gary Bosak of Carroll and Dave Merrill of Long Beach State in total offense and from Gorman, Bosak, Merrill, Jim Skarie of UW Milwaukee, Gary Dixon of UC Riverside and Clyde Hewell of Furman in pass completions.

Four of the seven individual champions from 1967 are also on hand for another season and each one may be hard pressed to retain his title.

RUSHING CHAMPION Dickie Moore of Western Kentucky faces the toughest field, as six other contenders who gained more than 1000 yards last year are back—sophomore Bernie Oliver of Hayward State and juniors Harold Brown of Central Connecticut, Jack Maitland of Williams, Larry Schreiber of Tennessee Tech, Craig Tefft of Central Michigan and Darwin Gonnerman of South Dakota State.

Moore, too, was the scoring runnerup in 1967 to returning champion Bert Nye of West Chester (Pa.). Other top pointmakers back are Jim Thorpe of Hofstra, Gonnerman and William Dusenbery of Johnson C. Smith.

Tillman's favorite target, pass-catching champion Harvey Tanner, also returns for another campaign, along with juniors Bill Parks of Long Beach State (the '67 runnerup) and Bill Wick of Carroll (Wis.) and Tommy Spinks of Louisiana Tech.

PUNTING CHAMPION Bruce Swanson of North Park (Ill.) is back again, too, but so are the next seven booting specialists trailing him, headed by second-place Steve Turner of Southwestern (Tenn.). The top three kick-scorers have also departed, but sophomore Dennis UMBERGER of Adams State and junior Skip Butler of the University of Texas at Arlington, who finished fourth and fifth, return with their talented toes.

'67 Season Individual Leaders

San Francisco State's Toledo, who set three all-time collegiate season marks, won the total offense crown by the biggest margin ever—908-yards—and gave the Pacific Coast its sixth total-offense champion in 11 years.

Toledo, who took over the lead at midseason, wound up with a record 3407 rushing-passing yards to 2499 for the 1966 champion, Stetser. Along the way, Toledo also set marks for passing yards (3513) and touchdown passes. His 45 touchdown passes in 10 games were a phenomenal 13 more than any other collegian ever had in a season.

Stetser did gain some measure of consolation, though, as he hit on 32 of 65 passes (for 418 yards) in his final game against Humboldt State and beat Toledo for the completions crown with 220 to Toledo's 211. Stetser also set college-division season records for passes attempted (464) and total-offense plays (526).

For the second straight year, a Southern Conference player—this time Clyde Hewell of Furman—was the most accurate passer, with a .600 completion rate. Rhode Island's Larry Caswell set a college-division mark for interception avoidance, with just two of 266 passes intercepted.

Murray State's Tanner led in receiving for the last three weeks of the season and finished with 88 catches to 79 for runnerup Bill Parks of Long Beach State. The only college-division player ever to catch more in a season was the 1966 champion, Manley Sarnowsky of Drake, with 92.

Bloomsburg's Bob Tucker, who placed third, and Toledo's favorite target, Joe Koontz (seventh), were also among the bumper crop of record-setters. Tucker gained more yards receiving (1325) than any previous college-divi-sior player, and Koontz caught more TD passes (18) than any other collegian ever. Besides Tucker and Koontz (1287) four other pass-catchers gained over 1000 yards receiving—Parks (1324), Tanner (1019), Aaron Marsh of Eastern Kentucky (1015) and Bill Wick of Carroll, Wis. (1080).

Western Kentucky's Moore raced for 223 yards in his finale against Murray State and nipped season-long leader Doug Van Boven of Central (Ia.) for the rushing title, 1444 yards to 1422. With his late spurt Moore became the first Southern player to win the rushing crown since 1955, when Gene Scott of Centre (Ky.) took top honors with 1138 yards.

Third-place Lee White of Weber State (Utah) rushed more times (284) than any previous college-division player, and Dave Bain of St. Lawrence set a single-game collegiate mark with 49 carries against Norwich.

Though only 38th in the rushing race, Steve Lucas of William Jewell had the best average per rush—9.1 on 808 yards in 89 carries.

West Chester's Bert Nye gave the East its first scoring title ever—with 127 points to 114 for second-place Moore—and Lee Mayo of the University of Tennessee at Martin gave the South its first kick-scoring crown—with 75 kick points to 57 for runnerup Ben Falcone of Waynesburg (Pa.).

For Mayo, who also set a college-division season record with 12 field goals, his point total and winning margin—18 points—have been topped only by last season's champion, Jan Stenerud of Montana State, who scored 82 points and won by 19 over North Dakota's Errol Mann. Falcone booted 57 extra points—also a college-division season mark.

Punting champion Bruce Swanson of North Park (Ill.) won with a 46.3 average, the highest ever by a collegian with over 50 punts.

'67 Season Team Leaders

Thanks to Toledo's strong right arm, San Francisco State romped to team titles in both total offense (490.0 yards per game) and passing (387.0). The Gators' passing average and their total of 49 TD passes were both all-time collegiate highs, and only one college-division team in the last 18 years ever topped their total-offense mark.

Rushing offense champion North Dakota State became the sixth Missouri Valley team in seven years to win that crown, but wound up with the lowest winning average in college-division history—299.6 yards a game.

At the other extreme, Waynesburg waltzed away with the scoring title, with a near-record 53.7 points-per-game mark, scoring over 60 points in six of its nine games. Only Florida A&M, with a 54.7 average in 1961, ever outscored Waynesburg for a full season.

Thanks to individual champion Bruce Swanson, North Park (Ill.) won the team punting championship with a 44.3-yard average.

Not content with the team total defense and rushing defense crowns it won in 1966, Tennessee State won both titles again in 1967, setting an all-time rushing defense mark in the process. The 6-3-0 Tigers threw their nine opponents for an astonishing minus 16.7 yards per game rushing and allowed just 61.6 rushing-passing yards per contest.

Northeastern (Mass.), the runnerup in total defense and fourth in rushing defense, did yield the fewest points per game (4.3) and shut out five of its eight opponents. Top honors in whitewashes, however, went to Hofstra (N.Y.), which blanked seven of its ten opponents.

Mount Union (O.) allowed the fewest yards by passing (61.4), though its winning average was the highest ever by a pass defense champion.

1968 University Division Schedules

Listed alphabetically in this section are the 1968 schedules and 1967 records of all teams classified "major-college" in 1967.

Schedules and records of College Division teams are listed in a separate section, beginning on page 120.

Below each school name and location appears the name of its 1968 head coach, together with his complete coaching record for all seasons as the head coach at any four-year collegiate institution.

Home games are indicated by a diamond (♦) and night games by an asterisk (*). Neutral sites are indicated by footnote symbols († ‡ #) on each schedule.

Opposite each opponent on a team's 1968 schedule is the all-time series record—the number of games won, lost and tied against that opponent in previous meetings between the two teams.

The Football Code

Traditionally, football is the game of the schools and colleges. Therefore, only the highest standards of sportsmanship and conduct are expected of players, coaches, and others associated with the game.

Football is and should be an aggressive, rugged, contact sport. However, there is no place in the game for unfair tactics, unsportsmanlike conduct, or maneuvers deliberately designed to inflict injury.

Through the years the Rules Committee has endeavored by rule and appropriate penalty to prohibit all forms of unnecessary roughness, unfair tactics, and unsportsmanlike conduct. But rules alone cannot accomplish this end. Only the continued best efforts of coaches, players, officials, and all friends of the game can preserve the high ethical standards which the public has a right to expect in America's foremost collegiate sport. Therefore, as a guide to players, coaches, officials, and others responsible for the welfare of the game, the Committee publishes the following Code:

Coaching Ethics

Deliberately teaching players to violate the rules is indefensible. The coaching of intentional holding, beating the ball, illegal shifting, feigning injury, interference or illegal forward passing, such as the "forward fumble," will break down rather than aid in the building of the character of players. Teaching or condoning the intentional "roughing" of an opponent is even worse. Such instruction is not only unfair to one's opponents but is demoralizing to the boys entrusted to a coach's care. It has no place in a game which is an essential part of an educational program. The football helmet is for the protection of the player and is not to be used as a weapon.

Illegal Use of Hand or Arm

Indiscriminate use of hand or arm is unfair play, eliminates skill, and does not belong in the game. The object of the game is to advance the ball by strategy, skill, and speed without using illegal tactics.

Perhaps a good game could be invented, the object of which would be to advance the ball as far as possible with the assistance of holding, but it would not be football. It would probably become a team wrestling match of some kind.

"Beating the Ball"

"Beating the ball" by an unfair use of a starting signal is nothing less than deliberately stealing an advantage from the opponents. An honest starting signal is good football, but a signal which has for its purpose starting the team a fraction of a second before the ball is put in play, in the hope that it will not be detected by the officials, is nothing short of crookedness. It is the same as if a sprinter in a hundred-yard dash had a secret arrangement with the starter to give him a tenth of a second warning before he fired the pistol.

Illegal Shifting

An honest shift is good football, but shaving the one-second pause, shifting in such manner as to simulate the start of a play, or employing any other unfair tactic for the purpose of drawing one's opponents offside can be construed only as a deliberate attempt to gain an unmerited advantage. Such tactics cannot be tolerated in football.

Feigning Injuries

An injured player must be given full protection under the rules. However, the feigning of an injury by an uninjured player for the purpose of gaining additional, undeserved time for his team, and other practices of deceit, such as falsely claiming that one's playing equipment is in need of repair, are dishonest, unsportsmanlike, and contrary to the spirit of the rules. Such tactics cannot be tolerated among sportsmen of integrity.

Talking to Your Opponents

Talking to opponents, if it falls short of being abusive or insulting, is not prohibited by the rules, but no good sportsman is ever guilty of cheap talk to his opponents.

Talking to Officials

When an official imposes a penalty or makes a decision, he is simply doing his duty as he sees it. He is on the field to uphold the integrity of the game of football, and his decision, even though he may have made a mistake in judgment, is final and conclusive and should be accepted. Even if a player thinks the decision is a mistaken one, he should take his medicine and not whine about it. If there is anything to be said, it is the business of the captain to do the talking. Other players should keep quiet and play the game.

Sportsmanship

The football player who intentionally violates a rule is guilty of unfair play and unsportsmanlike conduct, and whether or not he escapes being penalized he brings discredit to the good name of the game, which it is his duty as a player to uphold.

RULE 1—THE GAME, FIELD, PLAYERS AND EQUIPMENT

Section 1. General Provisions

The Game ARTICLE 1. The game shall be played between two teams of no more than eleven players each, on a rectangular field and with an inflated ball having the shape of a prolate spheroid.

Goal Lines ARTICLE 2. Goal lines, one for each team, shall be established at opposite ends of the field, and each team shall be allowed opportunities to advance the ball across the other team's goal line by running with it, passing it, or kicking it.

Winning Team ARTICLE 3. The teams shall be awarded points for scoring according to rule and, unless the game is forfeited, the team having the larger score at the end of the game shall be the winning team.

Supervision ARTICLE 4. The game shall be played under the supervision of either four or five officials: a Referee, an Umpire, a Linesman, a Field Judge, and a Back Judge. The use of a Back Judge is optional.

Team Captains ARTICLE 5. Each team shall designate, to the Referee, one player as its Field Captain and he shall speak for his team in all dealings with the officials. A Field Captain's first announced choice of any options offered his team shall be irrevocable.

Persons Subject to the Rules ARTICLE 6. All players, substitutes, coaches, trainers, and other persons affiliated with the teams are subject to the rules and shall be governed by the decisions of the officials.

Section 2. The Field

Dimensions ARTICLE 1. The field shall be a rectangular area with dimensions, lines, zones, goals, flags or markers, as indicated and titled in the accompanying diagram. All lines shown must be marked with a material which is not injurious to the eyes or skin. There shall be no decorative markings in the end zone which are closer than two feet to the boundary lines, or goal lines. It is recommended that goal lines be marked with gold-colored non-toxic material.

Marking
Out-of-Bounds
Areas

"out of bounds." The entire width of each goal line shall be in the end zone.

ARTICLE 2. Measurements shall be from the inside edges of the boundary markings. The area enclosed by the side lines and end lines is "in bounds" and the area surrounding and including the side lines and end lines is

Limit Lines

ARTICLE 3. Limit lines shall be marked with 12-inch lines and at 24-inch intervals 5 feet outside side lines and end lines. The area between the sidelines, end lines and limit lines may be marked solidly around the field. No person shall be within the Limit Lines except when permitted to be on the field.

ARTICLE 4. On each side of the field a team area back of the limit line and between the 35-yard lines shall be marked for the exclusive use of substitutes, coaches, trainers and other persons affiliated with the team.

Team Area

ARTICLE 5. Each goal shall consist of two uprights extending at least 20 feet above the ground with a connecting horizontal cross bar, the top of which is 10'-0" above the ground. Above the cross bar the uprights shall be 23'-4" apart, inside to inside, and not more than 24' apart, outside to outside.

ARTICLE 6. Either flags (18"x18") with flexible staffs or soft flexible pylons, shall be placed at the inside corners of the four intersections of the goal lines and the side lines.

Corner Flags And Markers

ARTICLE 7. A Yardage Chain and Down Indicator shall be available on a side line. The Chain shall join two rods not less than 5 feet high, the rods being exactly 10 yards apart when the Chain is fully extended. The Down Indicator shall be mounted on a rod not less than 4 feet high.

Yardage Chain and Down Indicator

ARTICLE 8. All markers and obstructions within the playing enclosure shall be placed and constructed in such a manner as to avoid any possible hazard to players. The Referee shall order removed any markers or obstructions constituting such a hazard.

Markers or Obstructions

ARTICLE 9. Television replay or monitor equipment are prohibited at the side lines, pressbox or other locations adjacent to the playing field for coaching purposes during the game.

Prohibited
Equipment

ARTICLE 10. Television replay or monitor equipment are prohibited at the side lines, pressbox or other locations adjacent to the playing field for coaching purposes during the game.

Section 3. The Ball

Specifications & Use ARTICLE 1. The ball shall be a four-panel, pebble-grained leather cover without corrugations other than for seams and lacing which encloses a rubber bladder. It shall be inflated to the pressure of 12½-13½ pounds and have the shape and dimensions shown by the diagram. Its weight shall be 14 to 15 ounces. A rubber-covered ball may be used by mutual agreement of the contesting teams. The ball selected shall be used by both teams during the entire game except that a ball of the same materials and manufacture may be substituted during the game at the discretion of the Referee.

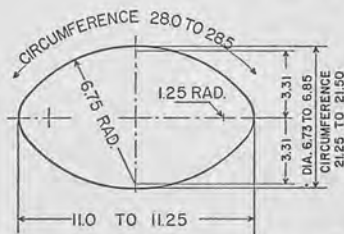

Diagram showing the longitudinal cross section of the standard ball. Maximum and minimum dimensions are used. This diagram is printed in order to secure uniformity in manufacture.

Testing and Color

ARTICLE 2. The Referee shall test and be the sole judge of any ball offered for play. The home management shall provide the ball, or balls, and shall provide scales, templet, measuring tapes, and gauge for testing.

For daylight games the ball must be of natural tan color but by mutual agreement a ball with two white stripes may be used. For night games a white or tan colored ball, with or without two stripes, may be used by mutual agreement of both teams. If no such agreement is reached five or more minutes before the scheduled starting time, the Referee shall select the game ball.

Section 4. Players and Playing Equipment

ARTICLE 1. It is strongly recommended that offensive players be numbered according to the following diagram which shows one of the many offensive formations:

ARTICLE 2. On a scrimmage down at least five offensive players on the scrimmage line shall be numbered 50 through 79.

PENALTY—5 yards from previous spot (S2).

Contrasting Colors

ARTICLE 3. Players of opposing teams must wear jerseys of contrasting colors. The visiting team shall make any changes required. High School Athletic Associations may require the home team to make any changes necessary.

Mandatory Equipment

ARTICLE 4. All players must wear soft knee pads at least $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick, head protectors and Arabic block or modern Gothic numerals. Identical numbers shall be worn on front and back of each player's jersey, must be of a single color in sharp contrast with that of the jersey, and must be eight and ten inches in height, for front and back respectively. The individual bars must be approximately $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide.

It is recommended that all players wear properly fitted mouth protectors.

Prohibited
Equipment

ARTICLE 5. No one wearing illegal equipment shall be permitted to play. Any question as to the legality of a player's equipment shall be decided by the Umpire. Illegal equipment includes:

- Any equipment worn by a player which, in the opinion of the Umpire, would confuse his opponents or endanger other players.
- Sole leather or other hard or unyielding substance on the hand, wrist, forearm or elbow of any player, no matter how covered or padded.
- Sole leather or other hard or unyielding substances in thigh guards, shin guards, knee or other braces, unless covered on both sides and overlaps all edges with a minimum of $\frac{1}{4}$ " thick on each side with closed cell, slow recovery foam padding or an alternate material having the similar physical properties.
- Any projection of metal or other hard substance from a player's person or clothing.
- Shoe cleats made of any material liable to chip or fracture, cleats without an effective locking device, or cleats with concave sides. Conical cleats with flat free ends not parallel with their bases or less than $\frac{3}{8}$ " in diameter or with rounded free ends having arcs less than $7/16$ " in diameter; oblong cleats with free ends not parallel with bases or which measure less than $\frac{1}{4}$ " by $\frac{3}{4}$ "; circular or ring cleats without rounded edges and a wall less than $\frac{3}{16}$ " thick.

- f. Tape or any bandage on a hand, wrist, forearm or elbow unless used to protect an injury and specifically sanctioned by the Umpire.
- g. Head protectors, jerseys, or attachments which tend to conceal the ball by closely resembling it in color.
- h. Grease or any other slippery substance applied on a player's person or clothing.
- i. Any face mask except those made of non-breakable moulded plastic with rounded edges and those constructed of metal having surfaces covered with rubber or equivalent resilient material.
- j. Any nose or chin guard, unless it is made of molded rubber or of non-breakable molded plastic with rounded edges.

ARTICLE 6. Players are prohibited from being equipped with any electronic, mechanical or other signal devices for the purpose of communicating with any source.

PENALTY—15 yards and disqualification of the player (S10).

RULE 2—DEFINITIONS

Section 1. Approved Ruling

ARTICLE 1. An Approved Ruling (A.R.) is an official decision on a given statement of facts. It serves to illustrate the spirit and application of the rules. The relation between the rules and an Approved Ruling is analogous to the relation between statutory law and a decision of the Supreme Court.

A star (★) preceding a Rule, Section or Article indicates a reference to amplification in the Official Football Rules Interpretations Handbook which is equivalent to an Approved Ruling.

Section 2. The Ball: Live, Dead, Free

Live Ball ARTICLE 1. A live ball is a ball in play, and a dead ball is a ball not in play. A pass, kick, or fumble which has not yet touched the ground is a live ball in flight.

Free Ball ARTICLE 2. A free ball is a live ball (other than a forward pass) not in player-possession.

When Ball is Ready-for-Play ARTICLE 3. A dead ball is ready for play when the Referee:

- If time is in, so signals.
- If time is out, sounds his whistle and signals either "start the clock" or "ball ready for play."

In Possession ARTICLE 4. In possession is an abbreviation meaning the holding or controlling of a live ball or a ball to be free kicked. A player is in possession when he is holding or controlling the ball. A team is in possession when one of its players is in possession, while a punt, drop kick, or place kick is being attempted, or while a forward pass thrown by one of its players is in flight.

Belongs to ARTICLE 5. "Belongs to" denotes temporary team custody of a dead ball.

Catch, Interception, Recovery ARTICLE 6. A catch is an act of establishing player-possession of a live ball in flight. A catch of an opponent's fumble or pass is an interception. Securing player possession of a live ball after it strikes the ground is "recovering" it.

Section 3. Blocking

ARTICLE 1. Blocking is legally obstructing an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body.

★ Section 4. Clipping

ARTICLE 1. Clipping is running or diving into the back, or throwing or dropping the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent other than the Runner.

Section 5. Crawling

ARTICLE 1. Crawling is an attempt by the Runner to advance the ball after any part of his person, other than a hand or foot, has touched the ground.

★ Section 6. Down and Between Downs

ARTICLE 1. A down is a unit of the game which starts, after the ball is ready for play, with a snap or free kick and ends when the ball next becomes dead. Between downs is the interval during which the ball is dead.

★ Section 7. Fair Catch

ARTICLE 1. A fair catch is a catch of a free kick, or a scrimmage kick which is beyond the neutral zone, by a player of the receiving team who has obviously signaled his intention, by raising one hand clearly above his head.

Section 8. Forward, Beyond or in Advance of ARTICLE 1. Forward, beyond or in advance of, as related to either team, denotes direction toward the opponents' end line. Converse terms are backward or behind.

Section 9. Foul and Violation

ARTICLE 1. A foul is a rule infraction for which a penalty is prescribed. A violation is a rule infraction for which no distance penalty is prescribed and which does not offset the penalty for a foul.

★ Section 10. Fumble — Muff — Touch — Bat

Fumble

ARTICLE 1. A fumble is loss of possession by a player other than by handing, passing, or kicking the ball.

Muff

ARTICLE 2. A muff is an unsuccessful attempt to catch or recover a ball which is touched in the attempt.

Batting

ARTICLE 3. Batting the ball is striking it with a hand or arm.

Touching

ARTICLE 4. Touching the ball denotes any contact with it.

Section 11. Goal Lines

ARTICLE 1. Each goal line is a vertical plane separating an end zone from the field of play.

★ Section 12. Handing the Ball

ARTICLE 1. Handing the ball is transferring player possession from one teammate to another without throwing, fumbling or kicking it.

Section 13. Huddle

ARTICLE 1. A huddle is two or more offensive players grouped together after the ball is ready for play before or after they have assumed a scrimmage formation prior to the snap.

★ Section 14. Hurdling

ARTICLE 1. Hurdling is an attempt by the Runner to jump with one or both feet or knees foremost over a player who is still on his feet.

Section 15. Kicks

Legal and Illegal Kicks

ARTICLE 1. A legal kick is a punt, drop kick, or place kick made according to the rules by a player of Team A before change of team possession. Deliberately kicking the ball in any other manner is illegal. Any free kick, or scrimmage kick continues to be a kick until it is caught or recovered by a player or becomes dead. A return kick is an illegal kick.

Punt

ARTICLE 2. A punt is a kick by a player who drops the ball and kicks it before it strikes the ground.

Drop Kick

ARTICLE 3. A drop kick is a kick by a player who drops the ball and kicks it as it touches the ground or as it is rising from the ground.

Place Kick

ARTICLE 4. A place kick is a kick by a player of the team in possession who kicks the ball from a fixed position either on the ground or on a tee. The ball may be held in position by any player of the kicking team. If a tee is used, it may not elevate the ball's lowest point more than two inches above the ground.

Free Kick

ARTICLE 5. A free kick is a kick by a player of the team in possession made under restrictions which prohibit either team from advancing beyond established restraining lines until the ball is kicked.

Kickoff ARTICLE 6. A kickoff is a free kick which starts each half and follows each Try or Field Goal. It must be a place kick or a drop kick.

Scrimmage Kick ARTICLE 7. A scrimmage kick is a kick by Team A during a scrimmage down before team possession changes.

Return Kick ARTICLE 8. A return kick is a kick by a player of the team in possession after change of team possession during a down.

Section 16. Loss of a Down

ARTICLE 1. "Loss of a down" is an abbreviation meaning: "loss of the right to repeat a down."

Section 17. The Neutral Zone

ARTICLE 1. The neutral zone is the space between the two lines of scrimmage and is established when the ball is ready for play.

Section 18. Offside

ARTICLE 1. Offside denotes the position of a player, except the Snapper or the kicker and holder of a place kick for a free kick, any part of whose person is beyond his scrimmage line or his restraining line when the ball is put in play.

Section 19. Passes

Passing ARTICLE 1. Passing the ball is throwing it. A pass continues to be a pass until it is caught or recovered by a player or becomes dead.

Forward and Backward Pass ARTICLE 2. A backward pass is a live ball thrown toward or parallel to the Passer's end line; a forward pass is a live ball thrown toward the opponents' end line.

Section 20. Penalty

ARTICLE 1. A penalty is a loss imposed by rule against a team which has committed a foul.

Section 21. Scrimmage

Scrimmage ARTICLE 1. A scrimmage is the interplay of the two teams during a down in which play begins with a snap.

Scrimmage Line ARTICLE 2. The scrimmage line for each team is the yard line and its vertical plane which passes through the point of the ball nearest its own goal line. A player of Team A is "on his scrimmage line" when he faces his opponents' goal line with the line of his shoulders approximately parallel thereto, and has his head within 12 inches of that scrimmage line.

Backfield Line ARTICLE 3. The backfield line is a vertical plane one yard behind and parallel to the offensive team's scrimmage line.

★ Section 22. Shift

ARTICLE 1. A shift is a simultaneous change of position by two or more offensive players after the ball is ready for play for a scrimmage and before the next snap.

★ Section 23. Snapping the Ball

ARTICLE 1. Legally snapping the ball (a snap) is handing or passing it back from its position on the ground with a quick and continuous motion of the hand or hands, the ball actually leaving the hand or hands in this motion. While resting on the ground and prior to the snap the long axis of the ball must be at right angles to the scrimmage line with neither end of the ball raised more than 45 degrees.

Section 24. Spots

Enforcement Spot ARTICLE 1. An enforcement spot is the point from which the penalty for a foul or violation is enforced.

Previous Spot ARTICLE 2. The previous spot is the point from which the ball was last put in play.

Succeeding Spot ARTICLE 3. The succeeding spot, as related to a foul, is the point at which the ball would next be put in play if that foul had not occurred.

Dead-Ball Spot ARTICLE 4. The dead-ball spot is the point at which the ball last became dead.

Spot of the Foul ARTICLE 5. The spot of the foul is the point at which that foul occurs. If out of bounds between the goal lines, it shall be the intersection of the nearer inbounds line and the yard line extended through the spot of the foul.

Out-of-Bounds Spot ARTICLE 6. The out-of-bounds spot is the point at which, according to rule, the ball becomes dead because of going or being declared out of bounds.

Inbounds Spot ARTICLE 7. The inbounds spot is the intersection of the nearer inbounds line and the yard line passing through the dead ball spot, or the spot where the ball is left in a side zone by a penalty.

Section 25. Tackling

ARTICLE 1. Tackling is grasping or encircling an opponent with a hand or arm.

Section 26. Team and Player Designations

Teams A & B ARTICLE 1. Team A is the team which is designated to put the ball in play and remains Team A during that down; Team B designates the opponents. Team B becomes Team A when the ball is declared ready for play for any down during which they will next put the ball in play.

Offensive Team ARTICLE 2. The Offensive Team is the team in possession, or the team to which the ball belongs — the Defensive Team is the opposing team.

Kicker ARTICLE 3. The Kicker is any player who punts, drop kicks or place kicks.

Lineman and Back ARTICLE 4. A lineman is any player on his scrimmage line when the ball is snapped; a back is any player who is legally behind that line when the ball is snapped.

Passer ARTICLE 5. The Passer is the player who throws a legal forward pass. He remains the Passer while the ball is in flight.

Player ARTICLE 6. A player is any one of the 22 participants actually in the game at any particular time.

Runner ARTICLE 7. The Runner is a player in possession of a live ball.

Snapper ARTICLE 8. The Snapper is the player who snaps the ball.

Substitute ARTICLE 9. A substitute is a replacement for a player or a player vacancy. An incoming substitute becomes a player and the player he replaces becomes a substitute as follows:

- Substitutions limited—when the incoming substitute has reported to a designated official.
- Substitutions unlimited—When the ball is next put in play.

★ Section 27. Tripping

ARTICLE 1. Tripping is using the lower leg or foot to obstruct an opponent (including the Runner) below the knee.

Section 28. A Yard-Line

ARTICLE 1. A yard line is any line in the field of play parallel to the end lines. A team's own yard lines, marked or unmarked are numbered consecutively from its own goal line to the 50-yard line.

RULE 3—PERIODS, TIME FACTORS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Section 1. Start of Each Period

First and Third Periods

ARTICLE 1. Each half shall start with a kickoff. Three minutes before the scheduled starting time the Referee shall toss a coin in the presence of the Field Captains of the opposing teams, first designating which Field Captain shall call the fall of the coin.

- a. The winner of the toss shall choose one of the following options and his first choice shall not be revocable:
 1. To designate which team shall kick off.
 2. To designate which goal line his team will defend.
- b. The loser of the toss shall exercise the remaining option.
- c. Before the start of the second half the loser of the toss shall choose one of the options.

Fourth Periods

ARTICLE 2. Between the first and second periods and also between the third and fourth periods the teams shall exchange goal lines. The ball shall be relocated at a spot corresponding exactly, with respect to goal lines and side lines, to its location at the end of the preceding period. Possession of the ball, the number of the down and the distance to be gained shall remain unchanged.

Section 2. Playing Time and Intermissions

Length of

Intermissions

ARTICLE 1. The total playing time in a collegiate game shall be 60 minutes divided into four periods of 15 minutes each, with one-minute intermissions between the first and second periods (first half) and between the third and fourth periods (second half). Unless extended or shortened by mutual agreement, the intermission between the halves shall be 15 minutes. Periods in Preparatory and High School games shall be limited to 12 minutes each and in such games an additional three minutes between the halves may be allowed for warm-up activities.

Shortening

Periods

ARTICLE 2. Before any game starts, playing time may be shortened by mutual agreement of the opposing Field Captains or may be arbitrarily shortened by the Referee if he is of the opinion that darkness may interfere with the game. In either of such cases the four periods must be of equal length. During any intermission the playing time of any remaining period or periods may be shortened by mutual agreement of the opposing Field Captains and the Referee.

Extension of Period

ARTICLE 3. No period shall end until the ball is dead, and in the case of a touchdown the period shall be extended until the Try is completed. If playing time for a period expires before completion of the penalty for a foul by opponents of team in possession of the ball, or a foul by either team while the ball is free and the penalty is not a safety or an awarded touchdown, the period shall be extended until a down which is free from such fouls has been played or the penalty is declined. The period is not extended if foul is by team in possession, if both teams foul, or if either team fouls while ball is free and the penalty is a safety or awarded touchdown.

Game Clock

ARTICLE 4. Playing time shall be kept with a game clock which may be either a stop watch operated by the Field Judge or Back Judge, or a field clock operated by an assistant under the direction of either Judge.

When Clock
Starts

ARTICLE 5. Following a free kick the game clock shall be started when the ball is legally touched. On a scrimmage down the game clock shall be started when the ball is snapped or on prior signal by the Referee. The clock shall not run during a Try or during an extension of a period.

- a. The Referee shall signal and the game clock starts when the ball is ready for play, if it was stopped:
 1. By an infraction of the substitution rule, an excess time out, an illegal delay, or a backward pass or an illegal forward pass to conserve time.
 2. When Team A is awarded a first down. (Exception: 3-2-5-b-3.)
 3. To complete a penalty incurred while the ball was ready for play.
 4. At the Referee's discretion.
- b. The Referee does NOT signal and the game clock starts when the ball is put in play, if it was stopped:
 1. By a free time out, a touchback, an incompleting forward pass, or a live ball going out of bounds.
 2. To complete a penalty (except for illegal delay, backward pass or an illegal forward pass to conserve time, or violation of the substitution rule) incurred either while the ball was in play, or between downs while the ball was not ready for play.
 3. To award a first down to Team B, or when after a kick Team A is awarded a first down. The Referee shall not declare the ball ready for play until both teams have had reasonable opportunity to complete their substitutions.

- c. If incidents in (a), above, occur in conjunction with a free time out or any other incident following which the clock would not start until the ball is put in play, it shall be started when the ball is put in play.

When Clock
Stops

ARTICLE 6. The game clock shall be stopped when each period ends, and whenever "time out" is declared by the Referee.

Section 3. Time Outs

How Charged

ARTICLE 1. The Referee shall declare a time out when he suspends play for any reason. Each time out shall be charged either to the Referee or to one of the teams.

Time Out

ARTICLE 2. The Referee shall declare a time out whenever a touchdown, field goal, touchback, or safety is made; when an excess time out is allowed; when the game clock is stopped to complete a penalty; when a forward pass becomes incomplete; when a live ball goes out of bounds; and when Team A or Team B is awarded a first down.

Referee's Discretionary Time Out

ARTICLE 3. The Referee may declare and charge himself with a time out for any contingency not elsewhere covered by the rules. If such time out is for repair or replacement of player equipment which became illegal through play, the Referee shall charge himself; otherwise he shall charge the team whose player is wearing the illegal equipment.

*A.R. 1. A shoelace, padlace, jersey, or other equipment breaks or tears. Should repair or replacement be made on the Referee's time?
RULING: Only if the Referee considers such equipment dangerous to other players.*

Free Time Outs

ARTICLE 4. Each team is entitled to four free time outs during each half without penalty. Consecutive free time outs shall not be allowed the same team. Otherwise, if the ball is dead and a team has not exhausted its four free time outs the Referee shall allow a free time out and charge that team, only when requested by its Field Captain or his representative, or when substitutions are limited and an injured player is replaced in addition to the substitutions permitted by 3-5-1.

A.R. 2. Neither team has been charged with a time-out when a Field Captain requests a time-out and designates an injured player who is replaced. RULING: Charge that Captain's team with a free time-out.

Excess
Time Outs

ARTICLE 5. After a team's free time outs have been exhausted, subsequent requests by its Field Captain or his representative may be allowed only for the benefit of a designated injured player and such time out, if allowed, is an excess time out.

Length of
Time Outs

ARTICLE 6. A free time out requested by the Field Captain or his representative shall not exceed one minute and 30 seconds. Other time outs shall be no longer than the Referee deems necessary to fulfill the purpose for which they are declared, but any time out may be extended by the Referee for the benefit of a seriously injured player.

Warning and Notification

ARTICLE 7. The Referee shall warn both teams 30 seconds before a free time out expires and 5 seconds later shall declare the ball ready for play. When a fourth free time out is charged to a team in either half the Referee shall notify the Field Captain and Coach of that team. Unless a field clock is the official timepiece, the Referee shall also inform each Field Captain and Coach when approximately four minutes of playing time remain in each half. He may order the clock stopped for that purpose if necessary.

Sideline Conference

ARTICLE 8. During a free time out charged to a team one player is allowed to confer with the coaching staff at the team area.

PENALTY – 15 yards. (S10)

★ Section 4. Delays

Delaying the Start of a Half

ARTICLE 1. Each team shall have its players on the field for the opening play at the scheduled time for the beginning of each half.

Illegal Delay of the Game

ARTICLE 2. The ball must be put in play promptly and legally and any action or inaction by either team which tends to prevent this is illegal delay of the game. This includes:

- Consuming more than 25 seconds in putting the ball in play after it is ready for play.
- Failing to remove an injured player for whose benefit an excess time out has been granted.
- Crawling or deliberately advancing the ball after it is dead.

PENALTY – 5 yards. (S6)

A.R. 3. After a one-minute intermission one of the teams is not ready to play. RULING: Penalize the offending team for illegal delay.

Unfair Tactics

ARTICLE 3. The Referee shall order the game clock started or stopped whenever, in his opinion, either team is trying to conserve or consume playing time by tactics obviously unfair.

PENALTY – 5 yards. (S6)

A.R. 4. In an attempt to consume time near the end of a period, A "stalls" and exceeds the 25-second count. RULING: The Referee shall invoke Rule 3-4-3 and order the clock be started when the ball is next put in play.

Section 5. Substitutions

Limited and Unlimited Substitutions

ARTICLE 1. Two eligible substitutes of either team may enter the game at any time before the ball is put in play.

Any number of eligible substitutes for either team may enter the game between periods, after a score or Try, when Team B is awarded a first down, or when, following a kick Team A is awarded a first down or on a replayed successful or unsuccessful Try. After substitutions authorized by this rule have been completed, injured players may be replaced.

PENALTY—15 yards and rejection for entry of disqualified players (S10); 5 yards and rejection for entry of an excess substitute. (S5)

Legal Substitutions

ARTICLE 2. An eligible substitute may replace a player or fill a player vacancy provided none of the following restrictions is violated:

- No incoming substitute or replaced player shall be on the field while the ball is in play.
- When an excess time out is granted a team, that team shall replace the injured player or players.
- A substitute who enters the game must remain in the game and a player withdrawn may not re-enter until a down has intervened, a foul occurs between downs or the period ends. If a foul occurs before the ball is snapped on a Try, scrimmage down or free kick, the number of substitutes permitted by 3-5-1 prior to the foul may enter the game.
- An incoming substitute must report to a designated official when substitutes are limited.

PENALTY—If ball is dead: 5 yards from succeeding spot; otherwise: 5 yards from previous spot. (S2)

A.R. 5. A replaced player is ostensibly withdrawing but has not reached a boundary line when the ball is put in play and he does not interfere with play or players. RULING: Infraction of 3-5-2-a.

Regulations for Preparatory and High Schools

ARTICLE 3. Preparatory and High Schools may adopt more liberal substitution regulations when mutually agreed, or when authorized by their state athletic association or league.

RULE 4—BALL IN PLAY, DEAD BALL,
OUT OF BOUNDS*Section 1. Ball in Play — Dead Ball*Dead Ball*Becomes Alive

kicked, legally or illegally.

ARTICLE 1. After a dead ball has been declared ready for play, it becomes a live ball when it is snapped or free

Live Ball*Becomes Dead

(even though inadvertently), or otherwise declares the ball dead.

ARTICLE 2. A live ball becomes a dead ball as provided in the rules or when an official sounds his whistle

Ball*Declared Dead

ARTICLE 3. A live ball becomes dead and an official shall sound his whistle or declare it dead:

- a. When it goes out of bounds, when it touches the goal line (vertical plane) of the Runner's opponents, or when a Runner is so held that his forward progress is stopped.
- b. When any part of the Runner's body, except his hand or foot, touches the ground. Exception: The ball remains alive when it will ostensibly be held, or is held, for a place kick; it then may be kicked, passed or advanced.
- c. When a touchdown, touchback, safety, field goal, successful try, or when a fair catch is made following a valid fair catch signal.
- d. When, during a Try, Team B obtains possession of the ball or when it becomes certain that a scrimmage kick on a Try will not score the point.
- e. When a player of the kicking team catches or recovers any free kick or a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone; when a free kick or scrimmage kick comes to rest on the ground and no player attempts to secure it; or when, following a valid signal for a fair catch, a free kick, or scrimmage kick which is beyond the neutral zone is caught or recovered by any player of the receiving team or when a return kick is made.
- f. When a forward pass strikes the ground or is caught simultaneously by opposing players.
- g. When a backward pass or fumble by a player is recovered by an opponent after it touches the ground.
- h. When a forward pass is completed on or behind the opponents' goal line, or a free ball is caught or recovered by a player on, above, or behind his opponents' goal line.

A.R. 6. A player ineligible to touch a kick catches or recovers it.
RULING: The ball is dead — no exception for illegal possession.

Ball Ready For Play

ARTICLE 4. No player shall put the ball in play until it is declared ready for play.

PENALTY—5 yards from the spot where the ball should have been put in play legally. (S2)

Count

ARTICLE 5. The ball shall be put in play within 25 seconds after it is declared ready-for-play, unless, during that interval, play is suspended by the Referee.

PENALTY—5 yards. (S6)

Section 2. Out of Bounds

Player

Out of Bounds

ARTICLE 1. A player is out of bounds when any part of his person touches anything other than another player or game official which is on or outside a boundary line.

Held Ball

Out of Bounds

ARTICLE 2. A ball in player possession is out of bounds when either the ball or any part of that player touches the ground or anything else, which is on or outside a boundary line except another player or game official.

A.R. 7. A Runner inbounds bumps into or is touched by a player or game official on the side line. RULING: The ball is not out of bounds.

Ball

Out of Bounds

ARTICLE 3. A free ball (other than a kick which scores a goal) or a forward pass is out of bounds when it touches the ground, a player or anything else which is on or outside a boundary line.

Out of Bounds

at Crossing

Point

ARTICLE 4. If a live ball crosses a boundary line and is then declared out of bounds, it is out of bounds at the crossing point.

Out of Bounds

Point

ARTICLE 5. If a live ball is declared out of bounds and the ball does not cross a boundary line, it is out of bounds at the ball's most forward point when it was declared dead.

A.R. 8. A player with one foot out of bounds behind a goal line touches a free ball in the field of play. RULING: Ball is out of bounds and dead at its most forward point in the field of play.

RULE 5—SERIES OF DOWNS, LINE TO GAIN

Section 1. A Series — How Started — Broken — Renewed

When to Award Series ARTICLE 1. A series of four consecutive scrimmage downs shall be awarded to the team which is next to put the ball in play by a snap following a free kick, touchback, fair catch, or change of team possession. A new series also shall be awarded when a down ends between the goal lines and no foul during that down is involved or if the penalty for a foul during that down is enforced or declined:

- To Team A if it is in legal possession of the ball on or beyond its line to gain.
- To the team in legal possession (1) if a change of team possession occurred during the down, or (2) if a player of Team B first touched a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone, or (3) if accepted penalty awards ball to offended team.
- To Team B if, after fourth down, Team A has failed to earn a first down or Team A's scrimmage kick went out of bounds or comes to rest and no player attempts to secure it.

Line to Gain ARTICLE 2. The line to gain for a series shall be established 10 yards in advance of the ball's most forward point, but if this line is in the opponents' end zone the goal line becomes the line-to-gain.

Measurement of Distance ARTICLE 3. The most forward point of the ball when declared dead between the goal lines shall be the determining point in measuring distance gained or lost by either team during any down. The ball shall not be rotated before measuring.

Continuity of Downs Broken ARTICLE 4. The continuity of a series of downs is broken when team possession of the ball changes during a down, a player of Team B touches a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone, or the kick goes out of bounds or comes to rest and no player attempts to secure it, or when at the end of a down Team A has earned a first down. However, any down may be repeated if so provided by the rules.

Section 2. Down and Possession After a Penalty

Foul During Free Kick ARTICLE 1. When a scrimmage follows the penalty for a foul committed during a free kick, the down and distance established by that penalty shall be first down with 10 yards to gain.

Penalty Resulting in First Down

ARTICLE 2. After a penalty which leaves the ball in possession of Team A beyond its line to gain, or after a penalty has awarded the ball to either team between the goal lines, or when a penalty stipulates a first down, the down and distance established by that penalty shall be first down with 10 yards to gain.

Foul Before
Possession

ARTICLE 3. After a distance penalty between the goal lines, incurred during a scrimmage down and before any change of team possession during that down, the ball belongs to Team A and the down shall be repeated unless the penalty also involves loss of a down, stipulates a first down, or leaves the ball on or beyond the line to gain. If the penalty involves loss of a down, the down shall count as one of the four in that series.

A.R. 9. Team A's 4th-down legal forward pass touches a receiver who was ineligible at the snap and who is in the field of play and beyond the neutral zone and then strikes the ground. RULING: Team B's ball, 1st and 10, after distance penalty from previous spot.

A.R. 10. Team A Runner attempts a backward pass which is ruled forward and illegal. The pass strikes the ground. RULING: Penalty enforced from the spot where the pass was thrown and, unless thrown after change of team possession, the scrimmage counts a down.

Foul After
Possession

ARTICLE 4. If a distance penalty for a contact foul incurred during a down after change of team possession is accepted, the ball belongs to the team in possession when the foul occurred. The down and distance established by any distance penalty incurred after change of team possession shall be first down with 10 yards to gain.

A.R. 11. Team B runs back Team A's kick or intercepted pass. During the run a Team B player clips. RULING: B's ball, 1st and 10, after penalty from spot of foul.

Penalty Declined

ARTICLE 5. If a penalty is declined, the number of the next down shall be whatever it would have been if that foul had not occurred.

Foul Between Downs

ARTICLE 6. After a distance penalty incurred between downs, the number of the next down shall be the same as that established before the foul occurred unless enforcement for a foul by Team B leaves the ball on or beyond the line to gain.

A.R. 12. Team A's scrimmage kick goes out of bounds at B's 20-yard line after which a Team B player clips. RULING: 1st and 20 for Team B on its 10-yard line.

A.R. 13. First and 10 for Team A. Team A Runner gains seven yards then crawls. RULING: 2nd down for A after penalty from dead ball spot.

Foul Between Series ARTICLE 7. A scrimmage following a penalty incurred after a series ends and before the next series begins shall be first down, but the line to gain shall be established before the penalty is enforced.

Fouls by Both Teams ARTICLE 8. If an offsetting foul occurs during a down, or while the ball is ready for play for such down, that down shall be repeated. (Exception: 10-1-4). If offsetting fouls occur between successive downs, the next down shall be the same as it would have been had no fouls occurred.

A.R. 14. During a down Team A is offside and, after the ball becomes dead, a Team B player knees an opponent. RULING: Penalties offset. After Team B player is disqualified it is Team A's ball at the previous spot and down is repeated. 10-1-4 Exception may apply on change of team possession.

RULE 6—KICKS

Section 1. Free Kicks

Restraining Lines

ARTICLE 1. For any free-kick formation the kicking team's restraining line shall be the yard line through the most forward point from which the ball may be kicked and the receiving team's restraining line shall be the yard line ten yards beyond that point. Unless relocated by a penalty, the kicking team's restraining line on kickoff shall be its 40-yard line and for free kick after safety its 20-yard line.

Free Kick Formation

ARTICLE 2. A free kick must be kicked legally and from some point on or behind Team A's restraining line and between the in bounds lines. When the ball is kicked: all players of each team must be in bounds; each Team-A player except the holder and kicker of a place kick must be behind the ball; and all Team-B players must be behind their restraining line, and at least five of them must be within five yards of that line.

PENALTY—5 yards from previous spot. (S1) (S2)

Free Kick Recovery

ARTICLE 3. No player of Team A shall touch a free kick before it either reaches Team B's restraining line or touches a Team-B player. Thereafter, all players of Team A become eligible to touch, recover, or catch the kick except that no Team-A player who goes out of bounds during the kick may touch the kick until after it has been touched by an opponent. Illegal touching of a free kick is a violation which, when the ball becomes dead, gives the receiving team the privilege of taking the ball at the spot of the violation. However, if a penalty incurred by either team before or as the ball becomes dead is accepted, this privilege is canceled.

A.R. 15. A player of Team A illegally touches a free kick; then he or a teammate illegally recovers the kick. RULING: Unless cancelled by an accepted penalty, Team B may elect to take the ball at any spot of illegal touching by Team A.

Forced Touching Disregarded

ARTICLE 4. A player pushed or blocked by an opponent into a free kick shall not, while inbounds, be deemed to have touched the kick unless his hand touched it.

Free Kick at Rest

ARTICLE 5. If a free kick comes to rest inbounds and no player attempts to secure it, the ball becomes dead and belongs to the receiving team at the dead-ball spot.

Free Kick Caught or Recovered

ARTICLE 6. If a free kick is caught or recovered by a player of the receiving team, the ball continues in play (Exception: Rules 6-5-1 and 2, and 4-1-3-e); if caught or recovered by a player of the kicking team, the ball becomes dead.

A.R. 16. A player of Team A recovers a rolling free kick beyond B's restraining line and makes a backward pass which goes out of bounds. RULING: The ball is dead and belongs to Team A where recovered.

Section 2. Free Kick Out of Bounds

Kicking Team

ARTICLE 1. A free kick out of bounds between the goal lines untouched in bounds by in bounds player of Team B, is a foul.

Receiving Team

ARTICLE 2. When a free kick goes out of bounds between the goal lines, the ball belongs to the receiving team at the inbounds spot. When a free kick goes out of bounds behind the goal line, the ball belongs to the team defending that goal line.

A.R. 17. A free kick from A's 40-yard line untouched by B goes out of bounds between the goal lines and (a) no other foul occurred, or (b) Team A was offside, or (c) Team A fouls after ball goes out of bounds. RULING: (a) and (b) Team B may decline the penalty and snap the ball first down and 10 at the inbounds spot, or elect that Team A repeat the kick from its 35-yard line; (c) Team B may snap the ball 15 yards in advance of the inbounds spot, or may elect that Team A repeat the kick from its 35-yard line.

A.R. 18. A free kick strikes a Team B player who is in his end zone and the ball then goes out of bounds at the 3-yard line. RULING: Free kick out of bounds between the goal lines; B's ball on the 3-yard line at the inbounds spot.

★ Section 3. Scrimmage Kicks

Fails to Cross the Neutral Zone

ARTICLE 1. Except during a Try, a scrimmage kick which fails to cross the neutral zone continues in play. All players may catch or recover the ball and advance it. (Exception: 6-5-2)

Crosses the Neutral Zone

ARTICLE 2. No inbounds player of the kicking team shall touch a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone before it touches an opponent. Such illegal touching is a violation which when the ball becomes dead gives the receiving team the privilege of taking the ball at the spot of the violation. However, if a penalty incurred by either team before or as the ball becomes dead is accepted, this privilege is cancelled.

A.R. 19. Players of both teams, attempting to recover a blocked kick behind Team A's scrimmage line, force the ball across the neutral zone. RULING: After a scrimmage kick has crossed the neutral zone no Team A player may touch the ball until after it has been touched by an opponent.

OFFICIAL NCAA FOOTBALL RULES

A.R. 20. Team A player illegally touches a scrimmage kick and the ball then rolls into Team B's end zone, where B recovers and advances the ball into the field of play. RULING: Team B may attempt to run the ball out and, when it becomes dead, may choose the result of that attempt or take the ball at the spot of A's illegal touching.

All Become Eligible

ARTICLE 3. When a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone touches a player of the receiving team who is in bounds, any player may catch or recover the ball.

Forced Touching Disregarded

ARTICLE 4. A player pushed or blocked by an opponent into a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone, shall not, while in bounds, be deemed to have touched the kick unless his hand touched the ball.

Catch or Recovery by Receiving Team

ARTICLE 5. If a scrimmage kick is caught or recovered by a player of the receiving team, the ball continues in play. Exception: Rules 6-5-1 and 2, and 4-1-3-e.

Catch or Recovery by Kicking Team

ARTICLE 6. If a player of the kicking team catches or recovers a scrimmage kick which has crossed the neutral zone, the ball becomes dead.

Out of Bounds Between Goal Lines or at Rest

ARTICLE 7. If a scrimmage kick goes out of bounds between the goal lines, or comes to rest untouched in bounds and no player attempts to secure it, the ball becomes dead and belongs to the receiving team at the dead-ball spot.

Out of Bounds Behind Goal Line

ARTICLE 8. If a scrimmage kick (other than one which scores a field goal) goes out of bounds behind a goal line, the ball becomes dead and belongs to the team defending that goal line.

Legal Kick

ARTICLE 9. A legal scrimmage kick is a punt, drop kick or place kick made according to the rules.

PENALTY—For an illegal kick 5 yards. (S16)

Interference with Opportunity

ARTICLE 1. A player of the receiving team who is within the boundary lines and is so located that he could touch: a free kick, or a scrimmage kick which is beyond the neutral zone while such kick is in flight must be given an unmolested opportunity to catch the kick. This protection terminates when the kick is touched by any player of the receiving team.

PENALTY—For foul between goal lines: receiving team's ball, first down, 15 yards beyond spot of foul. For foul behind goal line: touchback. (S14)

A.R. 22. Team B player, about to catch a scrimmage kick, is tackled before the ball arrives, but catches the kick while he is falling. RULING: Illegal interference. If the foul is between the goal lines, enforcement is from spot of foul and Team B puts the ball in play by a snap; if behind B's goal line: Touchback. The ruling would be the same had the kick been muffed or fumbled.

A.R. 23. A player of the kicking team beyond the neutral zone, who is standing or running between a kick in flight and an opponent, is struck by the ball in flight and an opponent was in such a position that he could have caught the ball; or, the opponent, in attempting to catch the kick, bumps into him. RULING: Illegal interference.

A.R. 24. A player of the receiving team, attempting to catch a kick, touches the ball which is then touched by an opponent. RULING: Not interference. Protection against interference with opportunity to catch a kick ceases when any player of the receiving team touches it, whether or not a signal for fair catch has been made.

Section 5. Fair Catch

Dead Where Caught ARTICLE 1. When a player makes a fair catch, the ball becomes dead where caught and belongs to the receiving team at the spot where that player first touched the kick.

No Advance ARTICLE 2. No player of the team, any member of which has signaled for a fair catch, shall carry the ball more than two steps in any direction.

PENALTY—5 yards from succeeding spot. (S2)

PENALTY—Receiving team's ball, first down, 15 yards behind spot of foul. (S10)

Illegal Block ARTICLE 4. A player of the receiving team, who has signaled for a fair catch and does not touch the ball, shall not block an opponent during that down.

PENALTY—15 yards from spot of foul. (S10)

No Tackling ARTICLE 5. No player of the kicking team shall tackle or block an opponent who has completed a fair catch.

PENALTY—15 yards from succeeding spot. (S7)

A.R. 25. A player who has made a fair catch is tackled (a) before; or (b) after he has carried the ball more than two steps. RULING: (a) Foul by the tackler. (b) Foul by the catcher. Enforcement spot for either penalty is the succeeding spot.

RULE 7—SNAPPING AND PASSING THE BALL

Section 1. The Scrimmage

Starting with a Snap ARTICLE 1. The ball shall be put in play by a legal snap unless the rules provide for a free kick.

PENALTY—5 yards from previous spot. (S2)

Not in a Side Zone ARTICLE 2. The ball may not be snapped in a side zone. If the starting point for any scrimmage down is in a side zone it shall be transferred to the inbounds spot.

Requirements follows:

ARTICLE 3. The requirements for scrimmage are as follows:

a. Before the ball is snapped:

1. The Snapper, after assuming his position for the succeeding snap and adjusting the ball, may neither move nor change the position of the ball in a manner simulating the beginning of a play until he snaps it. An infraction of this provision may be penalized whether or not the ball is snapped and the penalty for any resultant encroachment or contact foul by an opponent shall be canceled. (S2)
2. After the ball is ready for play and before the snap each player or entering substitute of Team A must have been within 15 yards of the ball and no simulated replacement of a player shall be used to confuse opponents. (S2)
3. After the ball is ready for play and until it is snapped no player on defense may touch the ball except when moved illegally as in a-1 above, nor may any player contact an opponent or in any other way interfere with him. This includes standing in the zone to give defensive signals or shifting through the zone. (S2)
4. No player of the offensive team shall make a false start. A false start includes feigning a charge, or a shift or movement which simulates the beginning of a play. An infraction of this rule may be penalized whether or not the ball is snapped and the penalty for any resultant encroachment or contact foul by an opponent shall be canceled. It is also a false start if a player on the line between the Snapper and the player on the end of the line, after having placed a hand(s) on or near the ground, moves his hand or hands, or makes any quick movement unless the movement is caused by an interruption such as calling players off the line for receiving a new signal or is caused by a Team B player moving into the neutral zone before the ball is snapped. (S2)

following play situations apply: While the ball is ready for play a player breaks or charges into or across the neutral zone without contacting an opponent and (a) returns to legal position; or (b) draws an instantaneous reflex charge by an opponent causing contact; or (c) before he returns to legal position a delayed charge of an opponent causes contact; or (d) has returned to legal position when an opponent's charge causes contact. RULINGS: (a) legal; (b) foul by initial charger; (c) offsetting fouls; (d) foul by opponent.

b. When the ball is snapped.

The offensive team must be in a formation which meets these requirements:

1. At least seven players must be on their scrimmage line not less than five of whom shall be numbered 50 through 79. The remaining players must be either on their scrimmage line or behind their backfield line, except as follows:

One player may be between his scrimmage line and his backfield line if placed in a position to receive a hand-to-hand snap from between the Snapper's legs. When in such position that player may receive the snap himself or it may go directly to any back. (S2)

2. The player on each side of and next to the Snapper may lock legs with the Snapper, but any other lineman of the team on offense must have both feet outside the outside foot of the player next to him when the ball is snapped. (S2)
3. All players must be inbounds and only the Snapper may be encroaching on the neutral zone, but no part of his person may be beyond the neutral zone and his feet must be stationary behind the ball. (S1)
4. One offensive player may be in motion, but not in motion toward his opponents' goal line. If such player starts from his scrimmage line he must be at least five yards behind that line when the ball is snapped. Other offensive players must be stationary in their positions without movement of the feet, body, head, or arms. (S3)

c. After the ball is snapped.

1. No offensive player while on his scrimmage line, may receive a snap. (S2)

PENALTY—For foul before ball is snapped: 5 yards from succeeding spot.
For foul as or after ball is snapped: 5 yards from previous spot. (S1, S2 or S3)

Shift Plays

ARTICLE 4. If a snap is preceded by a huddle or shift, all players of the offensive team must come to an absolute stop and remain stationary in their positions, without movement of the feet, body, head, or arms, for at least one full second before the ball is snapped.

PENALTY—5 yards from previous spot. (S4)

A.R. 27. After a huddle or shift all offensive players come to a legal stop and remain stationary for a full second. Then, before the snap, two or more of them simultaneously change their positions. RULING: A second shift. All eleven offensive players must remain stationary for one full second before the snap. Otherwise it is an illegal shift.

A.R. 28. Following a huddle, or shift offensive players take preliminary positions, then advance or drop into final positions. RULING: Such movement constitutes a shift; players must hold their final positions for one second before the snap.

A.R. 29. Ten offensive players shift while one stands fast; then that one starts moving backwards before one second elapses. RULING: Illegal shift.

A.R. 30. After offensive players have paused one second an end runs wide, stops and, before one second elapses, a back starts moving backward. RULING: Legal. But if the back starts before the End stops, the simultaneous movement of the two players constitutes a second shift and all offensive players must be stationary for another second before the snap.

Ball Forward

ARTICLE. 5. No player may hand the ball forward except as follows:

During a scrimmage down a Team-A player who is behind his scrimmage line may hand the ball forward to a backfield teammate who is also behind that line, or to a teammate who was on his scrimmage line when the ball was snapped, provided that teammate left his line position by a movement of both feet which faced him toward his own end line and was at least one yard behind his scrimmage line when he received the ball.

PENALTY—5 yards from spot of foul; also, loss of a down if by Team A before team possession changes during a scrimmage down. (S13 and S26)

Section 2. Backward Pass and Fumble

Any Time

ARTICLE 1. A Runner may hand or pass the ball backward at any time, except if intentionally thrown out of bounds to conserve time.

PENALTY—5 yards from spot of pass also loss of down if by Team A before possession changes during a scrimmage down. (S12 and S26)

Recovered

ARTICLE 2. A backward pass or fumble may be caught or recovered by any player. If caught in flight the ball continues in play; if recovered by the fumbling or passing team the ball continues in play, but if recovered by an opponent the ball becomes dead and belongs to his team where recovered.

RULING: Fumble; the ball continues in play.

A.R. 32. A player of the receiving team catches a kick, then fumbles the ball. A player of the kicking team catches the fumbled ball before it strikes the ground. RULING: The ball continues in play.

Out of Bounds

ARTICLE 3. When a backward pass or fumble goes out of bounds between the goal lines the ball belongs to the passing or fumbling team at the out of bounds spot; if out of bounds behind a goal line it is a touchback or a safety.

Section 3. Forward Pass

Legal Forward Pass

ARTICLE 1. Team A may make one forward pass during each scrimmage down before team possession changes, provided the pass is thrown from a point in or behind the neutral zone.

Illegal Forward Pass

ARTICLE 2. A forward pass is illegal:

- If thrown by Team A from a point beyond the neutral zone.
- If thrown by Team B, or if thrown by Team A after team possession has changed during the down.
- If it is the second forward pass by Team A during the same down.
- If intentionally thrown to the ground or out of bounds to save loss of yardage or to conserve time.

PENALTY—5 yards from spot of pass; also loss of a down if by Team A before team possession changes during a scrimmage down. (S12, 13 and S26)

Eligibility
to Touch Legal Pass

ARTICLE 3. Eligibility rules apply only when a legal forward pass is thrown. All Team-B players are eligible to touch or catch a pass. When the ball is snapped, the following Team-A players are eligible:

- Each player who is in an end position on his scrimmage line and who is wearing a number other than 50 through 79.
- Each player who is legally in his backfield wearing a number other than 50 through 79.

Eligibility
Lost by Going
Out of Bounds

ARTICLE 4. No eligible offensive player who goes out of bounds during a down shall touch a legal forward pass in the field of play or end zone until it has been touched by an opponent.

PENALTY—Loss of down at previous spot. (S16 and S26)

Regained

ARTICLE 5. When a Team-B player touches a legal forward pass all players become eligible.

Completed
Pass

ARTICLE 6. Any forward pass is completed when caught by a player of the passing team who is in bounds, and the ball continues in play. If a forward pass is caught simultaneously by opposing players the ball becomes dead and belongs to the passing team.

A.R. 33. Team A's legal forward pass is first touched by one of its eligible players, then caught by another. RULING: Completed pass.

Pass

ARTICLE 7. Any forward pass is incomplete when the pass touches the ground or goes out of bounds. It is also incomplete when a player jumps and catches the pass but lands on or outside a boundary line. When a legal forward pass is incomplete the ball belongs to the passing team at the previous spot. When an illegal forward pass is incomplete, the ball belongs to the passing team at the spot of the pass.

Contact
Interference

ARTICLE 8. During a down in which a legal forward pass is thrown, contact by an opponent which interferes with an eligible player who is beyond the neutral zone is pass interference unless it is of the type which may occur:

- When, immediately following the snap, opposing players charge and establish contact with opponents at a point which is within one yard beyond the neutral zone.
- When two or more eligible players are making a simultaneous and bona fide attempt to reach, catch or bat the pass. Eligible players of either team have equal rights to the ball.
- When Team-B player legally contacts an opponent before pass is thrown.

Forward pass interference regulations are effective whether or not the pass crosses Team A's scrimmage line. Interference by Team-A players is prohibited from the time the ball is snapped until the pass is touched by any player. Interference by Team-B players is prohibited from the time the pass is thrown until it is touched by any player.

PENALTY—Interference by Team A: 15 yards from previous spot plus loss of a down, if foul occurs in field of play. If foul occurs in Team B's end zone: Touchback or 15 yards from previous spot plus loss of down.

Interference by Team B: Team A's ball at spot of foul, first down, if foul occurs in field of play. If foul occurs in Team B's end zone: Team A's ball, first down, on Team B's 1-yard line, or, if the previous spot was on or inside that line, first down halfway between the previous spot and the goal line. (S14 and S26)

A.R. 34. A Team-B player, defending against a legal forward pass, has his back to the ball and is waving his arms in the face of an eligible player of Team A, who, in his attempt to catch the pass, bumps into the Team-B player. RULING: Pass interference by the Team-B player. He was not making a bona fide attempt to catch or bat the pass.

Ineligibles

Down the Field

ARTICLE 9. Immediately after the snap, offensive players may charge into opponents and drive them back provided contact is established at a point which is not more than one yard beyond the neutral zone, but if such contact is lost by any player who was ineligible at the snap he must remain stationary at that spot until the pass is thrown. Otherwise, no ineligible player shall be beyond the neutral zone until a legal forward pass is thrown.

PENALTY—15 yards from previous spot. (S15)

Illegal

Touching

ARTICLE 10. No originally ineligible player while in bounds shall touch a forward pass until it has touched an opponent.

PENALTY—If beyond the neutral zone and in the field of play: 15 yards from previous spot plus loss of a down. If in Team B's end zone: Touchback or 15 yards from previous spot plus loss of a down. If in or behind the neutral zone: 5 yards from previous spot plus loss of a down. (S16 and S26)

A.R. 35. An ineligible player of Team A first touches a legal forward pass. RULING: The ball continues in play but the foul is subject to penalty when the ball becomes dead.

RULE 8—SCORING

Section 1. Value of Scores

Scoring Plays ARTICLE 1. The point value of scoring plays shall be:

Touchdown	6 Points
Field Goal	3 Points
Safety (points awarded to opponents)	2 Points
Successful Try {
Touchdown	2 Points
Field Goal or Safety	1 Point

Forfeited Games ARTICLE 2. The score of any game forfeited in accord with the rules shall be 1-0 against the forfeiting team.

Section 2. Touchdown

How Scored

ARTICLE 1. A touchdown shall be scored when a player is legally in possession of the ball while any part of it is on, above, or behind his opponents' goal line.

A.R. 36. The Runner is thrown or falls on his opponents' 1-yard line but his momentum causes him to slide across the goal line. RULING: Not a touchdown unless the ball's forward point was on, above or across the goal line when any part of the Runner's body except hand or foot struck the ground.

Section 3. Try

Opportunity to Score

ARTICLE 1. A Try is an opportunity to score one or two additional points while time is out. The opportunity shall be granted a team which has scored a touchdown. The Try begins when the ball is ready for play and includes a scrimmage down. The snap may be from any point between the in bounds lines on or behind the opponents' 3-yard line. The opportunity ends if Team B gains possession of the ball or is entitled to possession after a foul, or if a penalty against Team A involves loss of a down, or if an accepted penalty results in a score.

How Scored

ARTICLE 2. The point or points shall be scored if the Try results in what would be a touchdown, field goal, or safety under rules governing play at other times.

Foul During Try for Point

ARTICLE 3. If an offsetting foul occurs while the ball is ready for play, or during the down; or when a penalty incurred during the down is enforced and does not result in a score, the down shall be replayed except when a distance penalty is incurred by Team B during a successful Try, Team A shall have the option of declining the score and repeat the Try following enforcement or accepting the score with enforcement of the penalty from the spot of the next kickoff. A replay after a penalty against Team B may be from any point between the in bounds lines on the yard line where the penalty leaves the ball.

Next Play

ARTICLE 4. After a Try the ball shall be put in play by a kickoff. The Field Captain of the team against which the touchdown was scored shall designate which team shall kick off.

Section 4. Field Goal

How Scored

ARTICLE 1. A field goal shall be scored for the kicking team if a drop kick or place kick passes over the cross bar or directly over an upright of the receiving team's goal before it touches the ground or a player of the kicking team. The kick may be a scrimmage kick but may not be a free kick.

Next Play

ARTICLE 2. After a field goal is scored the ball shall be put in play by a kickoff. The Field Captain of the team scored against shall designate which team shall kick off.

Section 5. Safety and Touchback

How Scored

ARTICLE 1. When the ball is out of bounds behind a goal line (except from an incompleated forward pass), or when the ball becomes dead in possession of a player on, above, or behind his own goal line, it is a touchback if the attacking team is responsible for the ball's being on, above, or behind that goal line; if the defending team is responsible, it is a safety. When an accepted penalty for a foul or when an illegal forward pass leaves the ball on or behind the offending team's goal line, it is a safety.

Responsibility

ARTICLE 2. The team responsible for the ball's being on, above, or behind a goal line is the team whose player carries the ball or imparts an impetus to it which forces it on, above, or across that goal line; or is held responsible for a free ball being on, above, or behind the goal line.

Initial

Impetus

ARTICLE 3. The impetus imparted by a player who kicks, passes, snaps, or fumbles the ball shall be considered responsible for the ball's progress in any direction even though its course be deflected or reversed after striking the ground or after striking a player of either team. However, the initial impetus is considered expended and the responsibility for the progress of the ball is charged to a player: if he illegally kicks a free ball or bats a free ball after it strikes the ground; or if the ball comes to rest and he gives it new impetus by any contact with it.

A.R. 37. The Runner, after receiving the snap in his own end zone, is downed with the ball resting on his goal line, its forward point being in the field of play. RULING: Safety. A part of the dead ball is on the Runner's goal line.

A.R. 38. The ball is snapped to a Team-A player who punts from his own end zone, the ball going out of bounds behind the kicker's goal line. RULING: Safety.

A.R. 39. A Team-A player makes a scrimmage kick from a point beyond or behind the goal line and the ball strikes a player or the ground, then rebounds into the end zone where a Team-A player falls on it. RULING: Safety.

A.R. 40. A fumble occurring in the field of play crosses the goal line and is recovered in the end zone. RULING: The impetus is charged to the player who fumbled.

A.R. 41. A Team-B player intercepts a legal forward pass in his own end zone, attempts to run it out, but is tackled and downed behind his goal line. RULING: Touchback.

A.R. 42. A Team-B player catches a kick in his end zone, then fumbles and, in attempting to recover the ball, forces it out of bounds behind his goal line. RULING: Touchback.

Resulting From Foul

ARTICLE 4. If the penalty for a foul committed when the ball is free leaves the ball behind a goal line, it is a safety if behind the offender's goal line; if behind the offended team's goal line, it is a touchback.

Kick After Safety

ARTICLE 5. After a safety is scored the ball shall belong to the defending team at its own 20-yard line and that team shall put the ball in play by a free kick which may be a punt, drop kick, or place kick.

Snap After Touchback

ARTICLE 6. After a touchback is declared the ball shall belong to the defending team at its own 20-yard line and that team shall put the ball in play by a snap.

RULE 9—CONDUCT OF PLAYERS AND OTHERS SUBJECT TO THE RULES

Section 1. Contact and Interference Fouls

Striking, Kicking, Kneeing

ARTICLE 1. No player shall strike an opponent with his fist, or deliver a blow with extended forearm, elbow, or locked hands, or kick or knee an opponent during the game or between the periods.

PENALTY—15 yards. Offenders shall be disqualified. (S10)

Player Restrictions

ARTICLE 2. No player shall commit a personal foul during a period or during an intermission. Any act prohibited hereunder or any other act of unnecessary roughness is a personal foul.

- a. No player shall meet an opponent with the knee, or strike an opponent's head, neck or face with the heel, back or side of the open hand during the game or between the periods.
- b. No player shall strike an opponent above the knee with his foot or any part of his leg which is below the knee.
- c. There shall be no tripping.
- d. There shall be no clipping during a free-kick down. During a scrimmage down, there shall be no clipping outside the rectangular area centered on the middle lineman of the offensive formation and extending four yards laterally in each direction and three yards longitudinally in each direction. When the ball is snapped, an offensive player who is outside this area, and in motion toward the ball or positioned five yards or more outside this area, is not permitted to clip in this area.
- e. There shall be no piling on, falling on, or throwing the body on an opponent after the ball becomes dead.
- f. No opponent shall tackle the Runner when clearly out of bounds or throw the Runner to the ground after the ball becomes dead.
- g. There shall be no hurdling.
- h. No player shall run into or throw himself against an opponent obviously out of the play either before or after the ball is dead.
- i. No player shall grasp the face mask of an opponent.
- j. No player shall deliberately and maliciously use his helmet or head to butt or ram an opponent.

PENALTY—15 yards (S7 or 8). Flagrant offenders shall be disqualified (S10).

OFFICIAL NCAA FOOTBALL RULES

A.R. 43. A player legally attempting to recover a free ball uses his hands or arms on the back of an opponent to push him out of the way. RULING: Not a violation of the clipping rule.

A.R. 44. An opponent turns his back to a legal side block, thus making it impossible for the blocker to avoid running into the back of the opponent. RULING: Legal block.

A.R. 45. When two players of opposing teams fall to the ground the body of one lies across the back of the legs of the other. RULING: Not necessarily a violation of the clipping rule. No official should declare a clipping foul unless he observes the block from its inception.

Roughing the Kicker or Holder

ARTICLE 3. When it is reasonably obvious that a scrimmage kick will be made, no opponent shall rough the kicker, or the holder of a place kick. The kicker should be protected from injury, but contact which is slight or is caused by the kicker's own motion or which results when a scrimmage kick is blocked or partially blocked shall not be construed as roughing.

PENALTY—15 yards from previous spot (S9). Flagrant offenders shall be disqualified. (S10)

Illegal
Interference

ARTICLE 4. No substitute may interfere in any way with the ball or a player while the ball is in play.

PENALTY—15 yards. Flagrant offenders shall be disqualified. (S10) (See A.R. 46)

Section 2. Non-Contact Fouls

Unfair Tactics

ARTICLE 1. Any act which interferes with orderly game administration is prohibited, including the following:

- During the game, substitutes, coaches, and authorized attendants shall remain within their team area when not entering or leaving playing field.
- If a player is injured, attendants may come in bounds to attend him but they must obtain recognition from an official before communicating with any player. No other person except players, officials or eligible substitutes shall be on the field during any period without permission from the Referee.

PENALTY—15 yards from succeeding spot. Flagrant offenders, (if players or substitutes) shall be disqualified. (S10)

Prohibited
Acts

ARTICLE 2. There shall be no unsportsmanlike conduct by players, substitutes, coaches, authorized attendants or any other persons subject to the rules, either during the game or between the periods. Any act prohibited hereunder or any behavior so designated by an official is "Unsportsmanlike Conduct."

- a. No player, substitute, coach, authorized attendant, or other persons subject to the rules shall use abusive or insulting language to players or officials.
- b. No player of the team on defense shall use words or signals which obviously disconcert opponents when they are preparing to put ball in play.
- c. No disqualified player shall enter the field.

PENALTY—15 yards from succeeding spot. Flagrant offenders shall be disqualified. (S10)

A.R. 46. Anyone other than a player or an official: (a) tackles or impedes a Runner who is in the clear and on his way to a reasonably assured touchdown; or (b) prevents a reasonably assured recovery of a free ball which could have resulted in a touchdown. RULING: (a) or (b) Award a touchdown and disqualify the offender.

Concealment ARTICLE 3. No player shall conceal the ball beneath his clothing or substitute any other article for the ball.

PENALTY—15 yards from previous spot. (S10)

Unfair Acts ARTICLE 4. If a team refuses to play within two minutes after ordered to do so by the Referee, or if play is interfered with by an obviously unfair act not specifically covered by the rules; or if a team repeatedly commits fouls which can be penalized only by halving the distance to its goal line, the Referee may enforce any penalty he considers equitable, including the awarding of a score. For refusal to play, or for repeated fouls, the Referee shall, after one warning, forfeit the game to the opponents.

Section 3. Blocking, Use of Hand and Arm

Who may Block ARTICLE 1. Players of either team may block opponents provided it is neither forward-pass interference, interference with opportunity to catch a kick, nor a personal foul.

Interfering for or Helping the Runner

ARTICLE 2. The Runner or Passer may use hand or arm to ward off or push opponents but the Runner shall not grasp a teammate and no other player of his team shall grasp, push, lift, or charge into him to assist him in gaining forward progress. Teammates of the Runner or Passer may interfere for him by blocking but shall not use interlocked interference by grasping or encircling one another in any manner.

PENALTY—5 yards. (S11 or 18)

Use of Hand or Arm by Offense

ARTICLE 3. When a teammate of a Runner or Passer uses a hand or forearm in blocking or to supplement a shoulder block, the hand must be in contact with the blocker's body and the hand and arm kept below the shoulders of the opponent during the entire block.

The hand may not be used to deliver a blow, grasp, push, or pull an opponent. The forearm or upper arm may not be used to hook, lock, or clamp an opponent and the extended hand or arm may not be used to obstruct, encircle, or lift an opponent. In a crab or body block it is not required that the hand or arm be in contact with the blocker's body. In no block may the hands be locked.

PENALTY—15 yards. (S11)

A.R. 47. While a legal forward pass is in flight, a Team-A player behind his scrimmage line uses his hands illegally. RULING: If pass is completed or intercepted: penalty enforced from spot of foul; if pass is incomplete: penalty enforced from previous spot.

A.R. 48. An offensive player's hand or arm, which is in legal blocking position, contacts an opponent above his shoulder, the contact occurring because the opponent squats, ducks or submarines. RULING: Not an infraction of 9-3-3, but such contact must not violate the provisions of 9-1-1.

A.R. 49. After a legal forward pass has been touched, eligible players of either team who have a reasonable chance to reach the pass use hand or arm to push an opponent out of the way. RULING: Legal use of hand or arm.

Defensive

Use of Hands

ARTICLE 4. Opponents of a Runner may use their hands and arms to tackle the Runner, stop him, or throw him to the ground. They may use their hands and arms to grasp, push, pull, or lift other offensive players out of the way if attempting to get at a Runner. An opponent who is making no attempt to get at a Runner may ward off, push, or pull offensive players who are attempting to block him, but shall not use a hand or arm to tackle or hold them. When no attempt is being made to get the ball or the Runner, a hand or arm may be used to contact an opponent only when the hand or arm is in contact with the blocker's body. When a hand or arm is used by an opponent of a Runner, the hand must be in advance of the elbow.

Defensive Restrictions ARTICLE 5. No defensive player may position himself with his feet on the shoulders of a teammate prior to the snap.

PENALTY—15 yards from previous spot. (S10)

When Ball Is Free ARTICLE 6. When the ball is free:
a. No player shall grasp, pull, or tackle an opponent.
b. A player who is eligible to touch the ball and is trying to get at it may use his hand and arm extended to ward off or push an opponent out of the way; otherwise he shall not use an extended hand or arm to obstruct an opponent.
c. A player ineligible to touch the ball may use his hand or arm extended to ward off or push an opponent who is attempting to block him, but shall not use an extended hand or arm to obstruct any other opponent.

PENALTY—Offended team's ball at spot of foul. (Exception: Rule 10-2-1-b-2 and 3). (S11)

Section 4. Batting and Kicking

Batting a Free Ball ARTICLE 1. While a pass is in flight any player eligible to touch the ball may bat it in any direction and any player may block or partially block a scrimmage kick in the field of play or end zone, but no player shall bat any other free ball forward in the field of play or in any direction if it is in an end zone.

Illegally Kicking Ball ARTICLE 2. A player shall not deliberately kick a free ball, a forward pass, or a ball being held for a place kick by an opponent. These illegal acts do not change the status of the free ball or forward pass, but if the player holding the ball for a place kick loses possession during a scrimmage down, it is a fumble; if during a free kick the ball remains dead.

PENALTY—If the ball is free: Offended team's ball at the spot of foul.
If the ball is in possession: 15 yards from previous spot. (S16)

RULE 10—PENALTY ENFORCEMENT

Section 1. Penalties Completed

How and When Completed

ARTICLE 1. A penalty is completed when it is accepted, declined, or canceled according to rule. Any penalty may be declined but a disqualified player must leave the game. When a foul is committed at a time other than following a touchdown and before the ball is ready for play on a Try, the penalty shall be completed before the ball is declared ready for play for any ensuing down. A penalty incurred after a touchdown and before the ball is ready for play for the Try shall be completed at the ensuing kickoff.

Simultaneous With Snap

ARTICLE 2. A foul which occurs simultaneously with a snap or free kick is considered as occurring during that down.

Two or More Fouls by the Same Team

ARTICLE 3. When two or more fouls by the same team are reported to the Referee before the penalty for any one of them has been completed, the Referee shall explain the alternative penalties to the Field Captain of the offended team who may then elect only one of these penalties.

Offsetting Fouls

ARTICLE 4. If fouls by both teams are reported to the Referee before the penalty for any one of them has been completed, each such foul is an offsetting foul and the penalties cancel each other and the down is replayed. Exception: If there is a change of team possession during a down or at the end of a down by rule, the team last gaining possession may decline offsetting fouls if it had not fouled prior to the last change of possession and thereby retain possession after completion of the penalty for its infraction.

A.R. 50. The Runner gains 20 yards, is downed, then crawls, and an opponent piles on him. RULING: Offsetting fouls. 10-1-4 Exception may apply on change of team possession.

Section 2. Enforcement Procedures

Spots

ARTICLE 1. The basic enforcement spots are: the previous spot, the spot of the foul, and the succeeding spot. The enforcement spot for a foul committed when the ball is dead is the succeeding spot; except when the foul occurred after a touchdown and before the ball is ready for play for the Try, the enforcement would be at the spot of the succeeding kickoff.

The distance and manner of enforcement specified in the penalty shall apply. Exceptions: No distance penalty shall exceed half the distance from the enforcement spot to the offending team's goal line; Team A may elect the enforcement spot at kick off after a successful Try (8-3-3); and infractions of 9-3-6 occurring as in 10-2-1-b-2 and 3 shall be enforced accordingly.

When no enforcement spot is specified in a penalty, the enforcement spot shall be:

- a. If the ball was in possession enforcement shall be from the spot of the foul. Exceptions:
 1. If the foul occurs prior to the incompleteness of a legal forward pass or is against the Passer during any legal forward pass, enforcement shall be from the previous spot.
 2. When the foul is behind the goal line of the offended team, enforcement shall be from that goal line.
 3. Enforcement for a foul by the defensive team (except as in a-1 above) committed behind its goal line shall be: opponents' ball, first down, on the offenders' 1-yard line, or halfway between the previous spot and that goal line if the previous spot was on or inside the 1-yard line.
 4. Team A may, as provided by Rule 8-3-3, elect the enforcement spot of a distance penalty incurred by Team B during a successful Try.
- b. If the ball was free:
 1. From a fumble, backward pass, free kick which had been legally touched, or a scrimmage kick which did not cross the neutral zone or which had crossed that zone and had touched a Team-B player, the ball shall be awarded to the offended team at the spot of the foul (no distance penalty).
 2. From a scrimmage kick which had crossed the neutral zone and the foul occurred before it had touched a Team-B player the penalty shall be 15 yards from the previous spot with Team A retaining the ball.
 3. From a free kick in bounds and the foul occurred before the ball had legally touched any player the penalty shall be 15 yards from previous spot and the free kick repeated.

A.R. 51. Team-A player illegally touches a scrimmage kick and a Team-B player clips while the ball is still free. RULING: If the clipping occurs before the kick has been touched by a player of Team B, 10-2-1-b-2 applies; if after touched by Team B, Team A's ball at spot of B's foul.

A.R. 52. A player illegally bats or kicks a ball free from a legal kick. RULING: The offended team may elect to take the ball at the spot of the foul.

A.R. 53. Team A's ball, 1st and 10, on its own 5-yard line. While an untouched scrimmage kick is beyond the neutral zone, a Team-A player knees an opponent. RULING: Team A's ball. After the Team-A player is disqualified his team is penalized to its 2½ yard-line.

The Officials

JURISDICTION AND DUTIES

General

The officials are jointly responsible for the enforcement of all rules and must co-operate closely in facilitating the orderly conduct of the game.

The Referee must carry a whistle and sound it to indicate that the ball is ready for play during a time out, that it has become dead, or that he has suspended play. Other officials (in addition to the Field Judge whose use of a whistle is elsewhere provided for) may use whistles if so authorized or directed by the assigning authority.

Each official must carry a marker and drop it whenever he calls a foul.

Each official must know and use arm signals, hereinafter prescribed, to indicate the fouls he calls or to indicate other rulings he makes.

Whenever a live ball or the Runner goes out of bounds the nearest official must signal "time out" immediately and mark the out of bounds spot. The other officials must repeat that "time-out" signal at once.

If an official declares a foul during a down he shall mark the spot, then report the foul to the Referee when the ball becomes dead. A foul declared between successive downs shall be reported to the Referee immediately. Upon request of Field Captain the offending player shall be identified.

Referee

The Referee has general oversight and control of the game. He is sole authority for the score, sole judge of forfeiture of the game by rule, and his decisions upon all matters not specifically placed under the jurisdiction of other officials is final.

Whenever play is suspended by the Referee he shall complete any penalty which may have been incurred; spot the ball where play is to resume; announce team possession for the next down; and indicate, by use of prescribed signal, that the ball is ready for play.

The Referee must see that the ball is put in play and declared dead according to rule and he has final authority over the ball's position and progress.

Prior to the beginning of a game the Referee must test and select the game ball or balls. He must also inspect the entire field and report any irregularities to the Field Captains of each team and all officials.

If the Referee orders the ball changed between downs he may use an assistant on each side line to expedite the exchanges.

After each time out and before declaring the ball ready for play the Referee must make sure that both teams and all officials are ready.

Unless the most advantageous choice is obvious the Referee shall explain to the Field Captain any option or alternatives to which he may be entitled and then proceed in accordance with the choice first expressed by that Field Captain.

The Referee must instantly signal "time-out" whenever he suspends play. For scrimmage plays the Referee's normal position is behind the scrimmage line of the team on offense.

Umpire

The Umpire has primary jurisdiction over the equipment and conduct of the players.

In each scrimmage the Umpire is particularly responsible for observing illegal line play and he must also cover open play which develops after line-men make their initial charge.

For scrimmage plays the Umpire's normal position is behind the team on defense but he must adjust his position to the defensive formation and avoid interfering with the vision or movement of defensive players.

Linesman

The linesman has primary jurisdiction over the neutral zone and infractions of the scrimmage formation.

Under the supervision of the Referee the Linesman marks the progress of the ball and keeps an accurate count of the downs. He must provide himself with assistants who remain out of bounds and conform to his directions.

Under the direction of the Linesman, two assistants operate the yardage chain to mark and hold the starting point and line to gain for each series of downs.

A third assistant operates the down indicator and marks and holds the yardline through the ball's most forward point at the beginning of each down. For a scrimmage formation the Linesman's normal position is in the neutral zone on one side of the field well clear of all players.

Field Judge and Back Judge

One Judge has primary jurisdiction over the timing of the game. He may provide himself with a whistle and act for the Referee on down-field play.

The Judge must start and stop the game clock as prescribed by the rules and keep the Referee informed with respect to the time remaining in each period. If a foul is declared while the ball is in play, the Judge shall stop the clock when the ball becomes dead.

The Judge must provide himself with a stop watch and be prepared to time the game with that watch or with a scoreboard clock operated by an assistant under his direction.

Whenever a scoreboard clock is used the Judge must observe it closely and be ready to take up the timing with his stop watch if for any reason the scoreboard clock fails to function properly.

Each Judge must be particularly alert to cover and rule on down-field play.

For a scrimmage, the position of the Field Judge is on the side of the field opposite the Linesman and he may be either on or beyond the scrimmage line. Position of the Back Judge is beyond the neutral zone and down field.

"My boys drink all the Gatorade they want all through the game."

Head Football Coach
University of Florida*

Stokely Gatorade thirst quencher is the amazing new drink that satisfies thirst faster because it is absorbed about twelve times faster than water.

What's more, Gatorade immediately replaces the stuff you lose when you perspire during strenuous physical activity.

Gatorade was specifically developed for active athletes who need fast thirst satisfaction.

You will see Gatorade beside many of the professional, college, and high school football team benches. It is consumed as a fast thirst quencher not only during football games, but also at virtually all other athletic events such as basketball, track, baseball and tennis.

Stokely Gatorade has a pleasant lemon-lime taste. Drink all the Gatorade you want for no other drink, including water, can satisfy your thirst faster.

“What Makes a Winning Athlete?”

NEW FREE BOOKLET
tells how pHisoHex® can help

Abrasion—abscess—absence from play. A preventable sequence of events. Regular, exclusive use of pHisoHex, America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser, builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexachlorophene on the skin. Such use makes the skin of athletes “hospital” clean—like that of surgeons—better protected against infection of abrasions and broken blisters. Helps prevent boils, too.

The new booklet emphasizes the role of healthy skin in sports. It describes how pHisoHex has protected team players, kept them where the action is. It also includes other health hints for athletes. Write for your free copy.

Free supply also available to coaches, trainers and athletic officials for use of team members and students.
